The Banner of Gold!

A LITERARY JOURNAL OF THE HIGHEST CLASS.

Ople Read, Stanley Waterloo, Dr. DeWitt Talmage, Dr. Leslie E. Keeley, Hon. Joseph Merrill, John McGovern, Edith Keeley Stockley, Le Roy Armstrong, Marie Moore Marsh, Anna Oldfield Wiggs, John Albro, Charles Eugene Banks, John N. Crawford, and others of equal reputation in letters are contributors to its columns.
It is the best family weekly newspaper published in America.
It has a department devoted to the advanced thought of woman, edited by Mrs. M. Kate Reed. It has a department filled with news and correspondence pertaining to the Bi-Chloride of Gold Clubs and Keeley Institutes of the world.

THE OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE A. K. B.-C. OF G. CLUBS.

All the news from Dwight and every Branch Institute in America, Great Britain and the Continent of Europe.

The BANNER OF GOLD should be in every household in the land.—Chicago Tribune.
The BANNER OF GOLD publishes a miscellaneous number for Aug. 20 that will create a wide attention. It presents numerous literary features and contains portraits of Ople Read, Dr. Keeley, Joseph Merrill and DeWitt Talmage. It presents the most notable features of the recent triumphs of the bi-chloride of gold cure for drunkenness and shows the widespread efforts to check that disease. Under the management of Colonel N. H. Reed, Jr., and Charles Eugene Banks, well-known journalists of this city, is scoring an immense success. It now has a circulation of 15,000, and is growing weekly. It reaches every state in the Union. While it speaks officially of the Bi-Chloride of Gold and Keeley Institutes throughout the country, it is not published solely for that purpose. It contains articles of high literary merit, and its aim is to become the representative of western literature and culture. It is the most successful literary venture that Chicago has had in recent years.—Chicago Herald.

As an advertising medium it has no superior in the west. Those who have given it a trial are well pleased with the returns from it. The BANNER OF GOLD will start the year 1893 with a bona fide circulation of 20,000.

WEST ST. DWIGHT, ILL.

The Keeley Institute,
EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, MO.

Was established March 28th, 1892, and has had a prosperous and successful existence. It has everything in its favor. The location is good, being only twenty five miles from Kansas City, on the C. M. & St. P. Ry. The scenery and surroundings the most beautiful and picturesque in Missouri, and the famous Mineral Waters of Excelsior Springs are a great aid to the treatment, as they regulate and cure all disorders and diseases of the stomach, liver and kidneys, and also tone up the system and build up the general health.

We would advise all interested in the Keeley Cure, and people seeking rest, recreation and health, to stop off at Kansas City and run down to Excelsior Springs. They will find one of the most delightful places in the country.

The Keeley Institute,

CARBONDALE, ILL.

CARBONDALE is a pleasant woodland city of 3,000 inhabitants, located in the central part of Southern Illinois, at the junction of the Illinois Central, St. Louis & Cairo Short Line grand Taylor & Carbondale railroads. It is in direct communication Chicago, St. Louis, Cairo and Paducah, Ky. All of the religious denominations and leading secret orders are represented.

The Institute at this place is located on a high eminence surrounded by a grove of venerable Oaks and Evergreens, while a spacious lawn amply provided with seats, hammock, croquet and tennis add to the pleasure and comfort of the patients. Statistics show the point to be a remarkably healthy one. No restraint is placed upon the patients and every attention is paid to their comfort, and their stay here made a pleasant vacation.

Good board can be had at reasonable prices. Correspondence solicited.
