JUST FULL of improvements—Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. To begin with, they're the smallest, and the easiest to take. They're tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules, scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Every child is ready for them.

Then, after they're taken, instead of disturbing and shocking the system, they act in a mild, easy, and natural way. There's no chance for any reaction afterward. Their help lasts. Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, Sick or Bilious Headaches, and all derangements of the liver, stomach, and bowels are promptly relieved and permanently cured.

They're put up in glass vials, which keeps them always fresh and reliable, unlike the ordinary pills in wooden or pasteboard boxes.

And they're the cheapest pills you can buy, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get.

WEAVER AND FIELD.

ACCEPT THE NOMINATION OF THE PEOPLE'S PARTY.

They Issue an Address to the People Declaring that They Stand Squarely Upon the Platform Adopted at the Omaha Convention.

The Address in Full.

General Weaver and General Field, the People's party candidates for President and Vice President, have issued the following address:

To the People of the United States:

Having been nominated respectively for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States by the National Convention of the People's party, which assembled at Omaha July 4, 1892, we take this method of formally notifying the public of our acceptance of the nomination and of our appreciation of the honor conferred upon us by the action of the convention.

We are heartily in accord with the platform of principles adopted by that convention, and, if elected, will endeavor to faithfully carry out the demands in letter and spirit.

We have been requested by the National Committee to visit the various States of the Union so far as it shall be within our power, and to address the people upon the political situation and the issues presented in the platform. We are now in the discharge of that duty, having already, one or more of us, visited fifteen States in the Northwest and South, and if health and strength are spared we intend to continue the work until the campaign is closed. We have been received with marked cordiality. The enthusiasm everywhere is without parallel, and each day tends to every part of the Union we have visited. By contact with the people we have become acquainted with their wants and sufferings, and have been brought face to face with the manifold perils which so seriously threaten our civilization and the overthrow of popular government. We wish to express our judgment freely and without reserve in order that we may stand acquitted before our fellow-citizens and our own conscience touching the whole matter.

Substance of the People Devoured.

The people are in poverty. Their substance is being devoured by heartless monopolists, trusts, pools and money sharks. Labor is largely unemployed, and where work is obtainable the wages paid are for the most part unremunerative, and the products of labor not paying the cost of production. This is a matter of serious concern to the whole people. The leaders of the heretofore dominant parties are completely confounded by the great monopoly and money centers, and manifest utter disregard for the wants and wishes of the people. The parties are hopelessly organized on sectional lines and the present bitterness and cruelties of the past; every four years dividing the lines of battle on that which should long since have been allowed to pass from the political discussions of the day. Notwithstanding the bitterness of the conflict between the old parties they vie with each other in their subservience to capitalistic and corporate greed.

They are incapable of dealing sincerely with the vast problem evolved by the growth of the last quarter of a century. Upon the general economic questions of the age they are practically in harmony, differing just enough to enable them to carry on a sham battle, while the work of robbery and spoliation proceeds unabated. In the meantime the farmers and planters, North and South, and the wage earners everywhere are proscribed, maltreated, brought into competition with convict labor, and in many instances shot down by hired mercenaries acting under orders of arrogant corporations, which have unblushingly usurped the functions of Government and summed to act in its stead. These corporations dominate the daily press and control the lines of daily communication with the people.

A still greater peril—we hold that the rights of a free ballot and a fair count are rights preservative of all rights, and upon their inviolability rests the perpetuity of free institutions and representative government. We are palpated to observe to the public mind of the Southern States through which we have passed a widespread loss of confidence on the part of the people in the integrity of the judges of elections in receiving the ballots of the people and counting them for the candidates of their choice. We think this wrong must be corrected by the intelligence and integrity of the people of the country; otherwise scenes of violence and perhaps bloodshed may follow these efforts of parties in charge of the ballot boxes to defraud the will of the voter, which lead to a serious collision, and that quickly.

Their Party's Growth in the South.

After consultation with the people we believe it to be true beyond reasonable question that the majority of white voters are with the People's party in every Southern State thus far heard from, and our information leads us to believe that the same thing is true in other Southern States through which we have passed a widespread loss of confidence on the part of the people in the integrity of the judges of elections in receiving the ballots of the people and counting them for the candidates of their choice. We think this wrong must be corrected by the intelligence and integrity of the people of the country; otherwise scenes of violence and perhaps bloodshed may follow these efforts of parties in charge of the ballot boxes to defraud the will of the voter, which lead to a serious collision, and that quickly.

Their Party's Growth in the South.

After consultation with the people we believe it to be true beyond reasonable question that the majority of white voters are with the People's party in every Southern State thus far heard from, and our information leads us to believe that the same thing is true in other States also. The white people are leaving the old parties and casting their lot with us, and our numbers are constantly increasing. We are informed by a large number of intelligent and reputable people that in the recent State election in Alabama Capt. Kolb was chosen Governor by over 40,000 majority, and yet his opponent was counted in by a majority of 10,000. County tickets throughout the State were counted out and others counted in. By the same unblushing methods we are informed that in the State election, which occurred in Arkansas on Sept. 5, at least 50,000 of the disqualified voters of the State were deprived of the right of suffrage. That the returns were inaccurate, that at this election the People's party, the number polling a large vote, was denied representation in the appointment of judges and commissioners, by whom the election was to be conducted. In consequence of these methods the will of the legally authorized voters of the State has been defeated.

After an experiment of many years it is apparent that neither the Republican party nor the Democratic party can or will accomplish the much-desired end—to wit, the restoration of the ballot to a fair and honest basis in the States of the Union. The People's party alone can secure the desired end. If the people of the whole country who desire honest elections and the repeal of class laws will rally to the support of this great industrial movement and place the party in power under whose banner the whole people of the South are now marshaling themselves, this vexed question will be settled forever. It is certain that the people of the South will not join the ranks of the Republican party. It is equally certain that the Republicans will not unite with the Democratic party.

What the People's Platform Offers.

The People's party affords the only solution of these important matters. All who desire the revival of business, all who wish for the return of prosperity to our country, all who desire to relieve the depressed industries and wage-workers of our common country, all who desire an adequate increase of circulating currency and the free coinage of silver, all who desire the abolition of banks of issue and the constitutional control of the money instruments of commerce by the Government of the United States, all who desire that the laws of taxation shall be equitably adjusted to the property of the country, all who desire that the public domain shall be sacredly held in trust for the people, all who desire that fraternity between the States shall be rendered subservient to the popular good, and, finally, all who desire the restoration of fraternity among the people and the obliteration of sectional animosities should at once regard it as their conscientious duty to align themselves under the banner of this great industrial and fraternal movement. It seems to us to be quite impossible that the liberal and justice-loving people of this country should longer cast their ballots for the corporations and money-changers. It would seem impossible that they should refuse to make common cause with the fair-minded majority of the people of the South, who have risen up to demand justice and good government in their respective States.

With the aggressions of capital on the one hand and the overthrow by fraud of free elections on the other, how is it possible for our civilization to last? The new party has its face turned to the glorious future, its sublime mission to usher in an era of fraternity and justice among men. In the presence of such an opportunity to emancipate our country from misrule of every kind, let party lines be forgotten, and let the generous flame of uncommon patriotism nerve every heart and move every soul.

MADE A SMALL FORTUNE

HOW TWO SCHOOL TEACHERS DID IT.

Two Hundred Dollars Grows to Twelve Thousand Within a Year.

(Marion, Indiana, Chronicle.)

There are two sisters teaching in the Marion public schools who have reason to thank the rapid development of one of Chicago's manufacturing suburbs for a small fortune which has grown from a very tiny seed planted less than a year ago. To a representative of the Chronicle these young ladies told the story of their remarkable investment as follows:

"At the close of our school work a year ago we found that we had saved about $100 each, for which we had no immediate use. We were spending our vacation in Chicago, and stepped into the office of the Commerce Building to see Jay Dwiggins & Co., whom we had long known. They were just then founding the new town of Griffith, whose fuel oil pipe lines and four great railroads, including a complete belt line encircling Chicago, gave great promise of making this a factory center.

"We were inclined to make an investment in the new town and consented to join them in the purchase of a five-acre block which they wished to subdivide with some other tracts and put immediately on the market. Our $200 sufficed to make the cash payment for one-third interest in this five acres and we expected to meet the deferred payments from our wages the following year.

"After making this investment we went further on our vacation trip, and what was our surprise a few weeks later to receive word that the five acres had been bought, subdivided, and completely sold out. Three parties had taken the entire block at a profit of almost $6,000, one-third of which we learned was at our disposal.

"So far we had not even seen Griffith, but this remarkably quick turn of affairs gave us a great interest in the new town, and we went immediately to look it over. We found, nine miles southeast of Chicago limits, a remarkable railroad junction, but little more than that. There were perhaps a dozen houses scattered about in the oak groves and occupied by railroad employes. There were no streets, no sidewalks, no nothing—except a bright future. The surveyors were just putting down the lot stakes. We found our block in the very center of the town plat, with frontage on what promised to be the best business street. The lots had been sold out at the ridiculously low average of $100 each.

"We remarked that we would rather buy than sell at these figure. This quick sale, even at a low price, had given us the capital with which to buy. We immediately selected Block 11 in the Original Town of Griffith, and bought it with the profits we had made. Griffith, saying: 'Well, we shall see what a year will bring forth in this promising place.'

"We have just now returned from Griffith after a year's absence. We found four factories completed and many more negotiating to come. Houses are going up on every hand, and streets are to be not been cut out when we were there a year ago, are now lined with prosperous stores. Our block, if sold at present prices, would realize about $12,000, but we would not take $25,000 for it. If it were similarly located in Marion, it would bring $50,000.

"We have seen Marion grow up from a country town into a flourishing young city, by the location of factories, and Marion has but three railroads and has not the great city of Chicago to tie to.

"We confidently expect within the next five years to see Griffith a great and flourishing city, and that will be time enough to realize on our beautiful block of lots. Since we bought our relatives have made further purchases and have made money, too. We certainly believe that Griffith lots bought at present prices and on the very easy terms at which they can be had will prove a quickly paying investment."

Dueling on Bicycles.

Dueling on bicycles is reported to be a new diversion in Spain. Two members of the bicycle club of Granada recently met in a knife duel, which is probably the first duel ever fought on wheels. Accompanied by their sergeants they wheeled out some distance on the road to Malaga, to a secluded spot. There, posted 700 feet apart, at a sign they wheeled for each other, each directing his wheel with the left hand and brandishing in the right that terrible knife of Spain, "navaja." At the first clash Perz pierced the left arm of Morcno, but in the third encounter Moreno thrust his knife into Perz's right breast. In a few minutes the latter died of internal hemorrhage.

Phantoms.

The hopes of cure held out in the advertisements of numberless remedies are mere phantoms, without the slightest shadow of reality about them. On the other hand, no statement has ever been made in behalf of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters that is not susceptible of ample substantiation. Care has ever been taken in laying its claims before the public to circumscribe those claims with the bounds of truth. Allegations outside of these form no blot on the record of this sterling, time-honored remedy, proven by the most respectable evidence to be a remedy for and preventive of malarial disease, rheumatism, kidney trouble, chronic indigestion and biliousness. It is an ineffably fine tonic, promotes convalescence and mitigates the infirmities of age. Taken before retiring at night it is a promoter of sleep.

The Man with the Wax Face.

A French medical journal tells of a remarkable surgical operation performed upon a certain Joseph Moreau, a soldier in the Army of the North, whose eyes, nose, teeth and lower jaw, and, indeed, his whole face was shot away by a shell in the battle of Bapuame, January, 1871. Although he was left on the field for dead he managed to stagger to a neighboring village, where he was cared for by the doctors. Later on one of the most distinguished sugeons of the day applied to the head, which was left almost without human semblance, a wax mask so cleverly adapted to the healthy portion of the skin as to appear quite continuous with it. This mask, as the years have passed, has become firmly attached to the head, the skin having grown around the edges, and has permitted the unfortunate wearer to appear less an object of repulsion to his fellow men.

Moreau has got quite used to breathing through the false nostrils and by the help of an artificial jaw worked by a portion of the original bone he is able to eat comfortably and masticate the toughest kind of food.

His voice has regained its natural quality and the sense of smell has come back to him with even more than natural acuteness. Of course he sees nothing through the false eyes which look out from his waxen features with a glassy stare, but it is long since he has acquired the peace of mind with which blind men are so often blessed, and in all the canton of Landredies, where he lives, there is not a happier man or one more fond of telling and listening to a good story than he who is known as the "Man with the Wax Face." He lives modestly on his pension and adds to his resources by the sale of a little pamphlet giving a scientific account of his wonderful cure.

An International Locomotive Match.

A trial of speed between English and American locomotives, which will set at rest the conflicting claims of superiority made by both countries, will be an interesting and novel feature of the World's Fair. The scheme has been broached to both the Pennsylvania and New York Central Companies, but no definite action has yet been taken by either. It is not known which of the two great roads will undertake the contest.

The plan is to bring over an English locomotive of the latest pattern, which will burn English coal, with a crew who will speak with an English accent. The run will be made from New York to Chicago and return, either with a heavy or light train, or possibly both. The run west may be made with a heavy train and the return with a lighter one. The American engine will carry the same weight and go by the same route, and the palm will be awarded to the one making the run in the shortest time.

In view of the claim made by England that she turns out the best, fastest and most economical locomotives in the world, no contest could take place that would arouse more interest. Uncle Sam knows a little something about building locomotives himself, and it is safe to say that John Bull will have no easy time of it.—Philadelphia Record.

Tobacco Pipe.

Although tobacco had been introduced into Europe by Sir Walter Raleigh over a century before, it was not until 1690 that the tobacco pipe, in its form as we now know it, was introduced. Its inventor was Johann Franz Jacob Villarius. Before that date tobacco was smoked from clay cylinders.

DO FARMERS WANT DIRECT TAXATION?

An exchange asks this question. The heaviest tax that the farmer is called upon to pay is that which is caused by sickness. Farmers are peculiarly liable to pneumonia and rheumatism. Indeed, it is not too much to say that if these maladies were removed the lives of the farming community would be greatly prolonged. They take cold, it settles on their kidneys, and they complain of a pain in their back without knowing what ails them. Then they suffer with rheumatism and are unfit for work. If they will take REID'S GERMAN COUGH AND KIDNEY CURE they will find that all of their troubles will disappear, for this great remedy stimulates the kidneys and enables them to perform their office—that of removing the uric acid from the blood.
