

Bichloride of Gold Club.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Picked Up at the Club Rooms and Various Parts of the City.

Harry Lawrence went to Bloomington Wednesday, returning with a patient.

Col. Nate A. Reed Jr., brought a couple of patients down from Chicago Saturday night.

Hardin W. Davis has been re-employed as club lecturer and organizer for the ensuing year.

M. B. Parker, a very clever gentleman who made many friends here, has returned to his home at Hamilton, Ga.

It was with regret that the writer bade good bye to so many of the noble hearted men who were in attendance on the convention last week.

Among the visitors from Dwight to Chicago over Sunday, were Dr. J. E. Blaine, W. S. Brown, Misses Mamie Birthwhistle and Edna Tobey.

The headquarters of John J. Flinn, chairman of the national executive committee, of the Keeley League, will be at 358 Dearborn street, Chicago.

The attendance at the club Monday morning was very small, consequently the meeting was of brief duration, and no graduation speeches were made.

It is thought by the executive committee that several additional club lecturers and organizers could be used to good advantage throughout the country.

The office fixtures for the secretary and treasurer's room of the National Keeley League, was packed up and shipped to headquarters in Pittsburg, this week.

Dr. Leslie E. Keeley has engaged Rev. H. M. Cole to deliver a series of twenty illustrated lectures on scenes in foreign lands, before the members of the Dwight Keeley League.

In all cases where the executive committee was asked to do so, the mileage of delegates from clubs who were not able to pay the expense was paid out of the funds in the treasury of the national society.

Dr. Gray who has been here learning the treatment, departed Sunday for his home at Utica, New York, where he will await orders as to his future movements from the Keeley company.

The new secretary and treasurer of the Keeley National League, J. M. Kelly, will remove the office to Pittsburg, Ia., from which point all club literature for the dissemination of knowledge will be sent out hereafter.

The regular weekly election of officers of the club, resulted as follows: Chairman, Harry Harlin, of Louisville, Ky., vice-president, Joseph E. Pace, of Mount Sterling, Ill., sergeant-at-arms, Ed. W. Wood, Lyons, Kansas.

Dr. S. Fillmore Bennett, of Richmond Ill., who is the author of the "Sweet Bye and Bye," arrived in Dwight Thursday with a new patient. The good doctor has certainly been doing some missionary work since his return home from Dwight.

John H. Pierce, of Omaha, Neb made an excellent farewell talk to the club Sunday morning, and his remarks were listened to with the closest attention. Mr. Pierce is a thorough gentleman and his departure will be greatly regretted by his numerous friends.

Major Samuel E. Moore, of Pittsburg Pa., national president of the Keeley League, Col. Nate A. Reed, jr., and Chas. Eugene Banks, editors of the Banner of Gold, Chicago, arrived here on business Thursday evening, and remained until Friday.

John J. Flinn, of Chicago, chairman of the national executive committee of the Keeley League, who worked so hard and faithfully to make the recent convention a success, is still in Dwight and expects to remain here for a few days for rest and recuperation.

Dr. Brown has returned to Dwight from the National Soldiers' Home at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, and has again resumed his former position in treatment hall. The numerous friends of Dr. Brown in Dwight were pleased to see him return.

Arrangements have been made by the national executive committee for publishing the complete official report of the recent convention in handsome pamphlet form, illustrated with historical scenes in and about Dwight. These pamphlets will be distributed free of cost to all actual attendants on the convention and sold at cost to institutes and clubs, as the committee has no desire to derive a benefit from the sale of them.

The matter of issuing tickets to the regular weekly club entertainments on Tuesday evening was fully discussed by the club members at the Wednesday morning meeting, and the issuing of tickets was left to the option of the committee on entertainments.

The beautiful brass bound gavel used in the sessions of the recent national convention has had the following inscription engraved upon it by J. C. Lewis: "Presented to Samuel E. Moore First President of the Keeley League, by John J. Flinn, B. C. of G. C. Chicago."

The office of J. M. Kelly, secretary and treasurer of the Keeley National League, will be at 73 South 13th street, Pittsburg, Pa., and club secretaries will do well to make a note of this fact. The salary to be paid Mr. Kelly has been fixed at one hundred dollars per month.

Col. and Mrs. Le Gage Pratt have returned to Chicago. Mr. Pratt expects to visit Dwight often, but his very estimable wife will be sadly missed by the guests of the Livingston, and her absence at the morning club meetings will be greatly regretted by all the attendants, who have the honor and pleasure of being acquainted with her.

Mr. O. M. Shanklin, of Trenton Mo., writes us as follows: Since leaving the Institute at Dwight on the 13th day of February last, I have been in excellent health and have enjoyed myself better than at any time in my life before. As the days lengthen into months, and as the months go by, my faith in the Keeley cure increases; I am certain that I am forever done with the liquor habit and habit, I know that I shall never drink again.

The members of the club were photographed by Staunton in front of the decorated club house Tuesday morning. A half tone cut will be made of this picture, to be used in the illustrated official report of the proceedings of the national convention. It is needless to say that the view taken was an excellent one, for Staunton never took a poor picture in his life, and he does not intend to slight his work after establishing his reputation as an artist.

Bishop Thoburn, of Calcutta, India, who has been engaged in missionary work for a great many years, was present at the club meeting Wednesday and made the boys a brief talk that was full of interest to them. Bishop Thoburn visited Dwight for the purpose of learning all that he can in regard to the Keeley cure for inebriety and the use of narcotics, with the object in view of its being a great help to him in his missionary labors in far away India.

A letter from an ex-patient residing at Mt. Carmel, Ill., was read to the club a few days ago by Secretary Dereen in which the writer advised his friend to whom the letter was addressed to make the acquaintance of Harry Lawrence who is so well and favorably known to all the patients who have ever taken treatment in Dwight. The writer informed his friend, however, that Harry had his faults the same as all other men have, but the worst he knew of him was, that he would steal cards when playing cinch, and would water his buttermilk, but aside from these faults he was O. K.

"Papa at Dwight," a picture taken by the Dwight Art Co., is a regular little gem, and represents a baby sitting up in a chair. The first week the baby looks very solemn and melancholy; the second picture shows a decided change in its countenance and expression; the third week shows the child looking much brighter; but the fourth week of papa's stay at Dwight the baby looks up with a merry smile all over its face. For it seems to know that papa is now entirely well and will soon be at home again. The picture must be seen to be appreciated.

Judge W. C. Arnold departed for his home in Huron, South Dak., Monday morning. Sunday evening a large congregation at the Congregational church had the pleasure of listening to an excellent address from Judge Arnold on the "Trial and Crucifixion of Christ" from a legal standpoint, and the Judge succeeded in proving to the satisfaction of his audience, that according to the Jewish laws the trial of Christ was illegal and unjust. The Judge's effort was highly praised by all who heard it, and his departure from Dwight is regretted by all with whom he was thrown in contact with during his four weeks sojourn.

Members of clubs all over the country who have had the pleasure of meeting John W. Dereen, the genial secretary of the Dwight club, will be pleased to hear that the board of control has reappointed him as secretary. Mr. Dereen is certainly the right man in the right place, and he is thoroughly familiar with all the duties of the office, and his hosts of friends here in Dwight and elsewhere, will join with the writer in extending congratulations to him on his reappointment. The janitor will be selected as has been the custom of late, from among the patients, and his salary will be at the rate of one dollar per day. That of Secretary Dereen has been fixed at fifty dollars per month.

The club house was crowded to overflowing by the members and patients Thursday morning, who had assembled to listen to speeches made by Hon. John J. Flinn, of Chicago, Judge W.

S. Arnold, of Lamapasas, Texas, and Dr. Leslie E. Keeley, of Dwight. The speeches made by these well known and popular gentlemen were listened to with the closest attention by the large audience, and there is no doubt but a vast amount of good will result to every one who had the pleasure of listening to them, for they all had reference to the benefits resulting to every patient who became a member of the club while at Dwight or any of the Keeley branch institutes throughout the country.

Mrs. Ida Buxton Cole has been engaged to lecture and organize women's auxiliary clubs by the executive committee of the Keeley Leagues. When this announcement was made to the club Wednesday morning, the news was received and greeted by a hearty round of applause that showed that the patients all had a warm spot in their hearts for this talented lady who is so earnest in the advancement of the cause of Keeleyism throughout the world. Mr. John J. Flinn, chairman of the national executive committee, who made the arrangements with Mrs. Cole, stated that she would go to Denver, Col., in October to attend an annual meeting of the W. C. T. U., and while in Denver she will make dates with the local Keeley Leagues throughout the state for a series of lectures to last about two weeks. About November 8th, she will go to Ohio, where she will remain until the Christmas holidays. About Jan. 15th she will go to Alabama where she will remain four weeks or longer if necessary, and her movements from that time on have not yet been definitely arranged for. There is no doubt whatever but that Mrs. Cole will succeed in interesting the people wherever she may lecture on this great benefits arising from the Keeley treatment for alcoholism and the use of narcotics. Mrs. Cole expects to inaugurate her series of lectures in the Dwight opera house some time between now and the date for her departure, and she will at this time endeavor to establish in Dwight the first young ladies auxiliary society of the Keeley League in the world. While the citizens of Dwight, and the patients who come here for treatment will regret that Mrs. Cole's work will take her away from the city a great deal of the time, yet they will rejoice in the fact that she goes out in the world with the bright prospect ahead of accomplishing a vast amount of good for the human race.

At the regular weekly entertainment given Tuesday evening, the performers were greeted with a crowded house and judging from the applause given the audience was an appreciative one, and the entertainment was certainly a very creditable one. Miss Elanor Mansfield, of Chicago, who is in the city as the guest of Mrs. Hattie Allen, rendered several very difficult selections upon the piano in a most creditable manner. The full program was as follows:

Overture.....Orchestra
Piano Solo.....Miss Mansfield
Musical Selections.....Orchestra
Song-"Good Bye Mavourneen".....J. E. Condit
Medley.....Orchestra
Guitar duet.....Plate and Bodwell
