Ye editor got his head cracked a little, Sunday morning by Christopher Columbus World's Fair Bowen. And allow us to add here that the position of fighting editor on the Journal staff, is vacant, and open to receive sealed bids.—Cornell Journal. "The People" is the name of a new paper published in Streator by Johnnie Auckff. This gentleman will be remembered by many of our readers as a printer who used to work for Charlie Palmer in Dwight. The People is devoted to the working people and getting a living for Johnnie. By the quality of its editorial, local and general appearance it should be a grand all around success. An exchange says that ninety-nine persons out of every hundred that are asked by the news gatherer "What's the news?" will give the answer "Don't know" and these very persons will get as "hot as a little red wagon" if they do not see some item in the next issue of the paper, which they knew at the time. Tell the editor of the news. It is absolutely impossible for him to know and see everything that happens, and even if he does you may be able to enlighten him upon some point concerning the matter of which he is ignorant. Death of Little Rubie Hoover. The sad death of little Rubie Hoover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hoover, of Chicago, was telegraphed here yesterday morning to Will Ketcham. The remains arrived here last night and the funeral will take place at the residence of W. H. Ketcham to-day at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Hoover is a daughter of Mrs. Ketcham and she and little Rubie visited here only a few weeks since. Shortly after their return Rubie fell down stairs injuring her quite badly and took a severe cold, from which she never recovered. The death of the little one is a crushing blow to the family and relatives here. She was a particularly bright and loving little one, and the death leaves a void that can never be replaced. The many friends of the family extend their sympathy. The New Organ. The new organ will arrive in Dwight Saturday morning on early freight. It will be used Sunday at Congregational church, and a special invitation is extended to the people of Dwight to hear it.
