The Keeley League.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Picked Up at the Club Rooms and Various Parts of the City.

T. S. Ingersoll of Mobile, Ala., is one of the new comers in the line.

Ex-president Harry L. Harlan make a good talk to the boys Tuesday morning.

The general Ople Read of Chicago, is spending a few days with friends in Dwight.

The topic up for discussion Friday morning was "How I became addicted to alcoholic stimulants."

Postage stamp photographs for autograph books are all the rage again among the club members.

A. H. Potter made the boys at the club an excellent talk Friday morning, as did Dr. Mullens of Kentucky, and T. Alfred Quail of Chicago.

Miss Winifred Ross of Chicago, made her brother, C. H. Ross, the popular and well known scenic artist, a very pleasant visit last week.

A very interesting letter from Alex Bruce of Henry, Ill., relating an eighteen years experience with John Barleycorn was read by Secretary Dereen Thursday.

Ex-vice-president Jos. E. Pace of Mt. Vernon, Ill., wrote a splendid letter of encouragement to the boys new in line, and it was read to the club by Secretary Dereen.

An excellent orchestra has recently been organized among the members and their excellently rendered selections add much to the morning sessions of the League.

Mr. Tuttle registry clerk at the Keeley institute has accepted a position in Cincinnati, Ohio, and his place has been taken by W. W. Derickson of Meadville, Penn.

Seventeen new names were enrolled on the secretary's book Thursday morning. The total membership of the Dwight Keeley League up to Thursday was 4,305.

T. Alfred Quail of "The Credit Review," Chicago, is a recent arrival in Dwight and is rapidly gaining the reputation among the boys of being the best single handed story teller in the state of Illinois.

The meeting opened Thursday morning with a solo by T. Alfred Quail of Chicago, after which the regular business was proceeded with. Ex-Sergeant at arms Benedict of La Fayette, Ind., a last year's graduate visited the club.

The club meetings have been very well attended for the past week or ten days. This can be accounted for no doubt because an effort is being made to make these meetings so full of interest that no one will desire to stay away from them.

The Keeley League of Bloomington has recently elected the following officers: President, George Alexander; vice-president, Prof. R. Schroeder; secretary, B. W. Mason; treasurer, H. W. Ulbrich; trustees, Martin Burkhardt, Alexander Weaver and Joseph Coupe.

The genial A. H. Potter of Butte, Montana, received a letter that makes it imperative for him to return west next Monday. Mr. Potter is one of those large hearted men whom it is a pleasure to meet and his departure from Dwight will be greatly regretted by the entire club.

John D. Hinde, jr., arrived from Mexico, Mo., last week to take the treatment. Mr. Hinde is the owner of a valuable string of racing horses that are now making the circuit of Missouri, and they have already won for their owner several large purses at the summer and fall meetings.

N. Griswold of Chicago, a well known commercial traveler, made a most excellent speech to the club Wednesday morning and was loudly applauded for his effort. Mr. G. is still in the line and came here with an earnest desire for an effectual and radical cure which no doubt he will receive.

Gray Staunton is always studying up something to please the boys with. His latest effort in this line is a neat little photograph that can readily be affixed to the end of a name in the autograph books. The boys fall all over each other in their efforts to reach the gallery and sit for a negative.

Secretary Dereen has been out of club badges and pins for the past two weeks and will not be able to supply any to the new members until a new die has been made for the pins which will take some days yet. Meanwhile the boys are exercising what patience they can under the circumstances.

Secretary Dereen read a very interesting and encouraging letter to the Club Friday from John Connelly who is employed as a guard at the state prison in Deer Lodge, Montana. Mr. C. graduated at Dwight, March 12, 1891, and since that time he has never had
