ITEMS OF INTEREST

Picked Up at the Club Rooms and Various Parts of the City.

Dick Schroeder came up from Bloomington with another patient Tuesday

Le Gage Pratt is now in Pittsburg, Penn., working in the interest of the G. M. B. A.

A rising vote of thanks was tendered the performers Tuesday evening by the large audience.

The total membership of the Dwight Keeley League up to Thursday, Oct. 13th, was 4,354.

Judge W. H. Dodge arrived from Chicago Tuesday on a visit to his numerous friends.

A. T. Bartels manager of the Alhambra hotel in Chicago came down to Dwight one day last week with a patient.

C. C. Hall of Roodhouse, Ill., made a good talk to the boys Monday, and was fully satisfied with the Keeley treatment.

G. Edwin Jones, secretary and treasurer of the Golden Mutual Benefit Association of Chicago visited Dwight last week.

W. F. Seaton of Canton, Ill., a graduate of December, 1891, was in Dwight Monday selling an excellent brand of Peoria cigars.

Charles Pauli, proprietor of the National Hotel at Joliet, who is now in line enjoyed a visit from his wife the first of the week.

C. W. Lindner, a well known photographer of South Chicago, now in Dwight, has been enjoying a visit this week from his wife.

John A. Caldwell, of Union City, Tennesee, made his farewell speech in a manner that surprised all who had the pleasure of listening to him.

Stoves were put up in the club room and in the reading room Tuesday, and they are highly appreciated by the members these cool mornings.

Thirty-five new patients arrived in Dwight Tuesday night. They thought they could not wait until after election before commencing the treatment.

A great many people stood up during the entire entertainment Tuesday evening and considered themselves fortunate in securing standing room even.

A splendid farewell address was made Saturday morning by ex-president Ed W. Wood of Chicago, who graduated Friday night and left Dwight on Saturday.

An excellent talk was made by Geo. Morgan of Elgin, Ill., Saturday who graduated at Dwight fourteen months ago, who knew that his cure was an effectual one.

A Keeley Institute will be opened at Charleston, West Va., October 20th. Judge W. H. Dodge of Chicago, will be president of the company and C. A. Barnes of Acron, Ohio, secretary.

W. H. Collins had an elephant and a whole dime museum of freaks on his hands Tuesday evening but he was strictly in it nevertheless. As one man expressed it "Collins is a corker."

W. B. Marks, a well know bare back rider with Ringling Brothers circus, now traveling in Missouri, J. T. Walker, foreman on the Lincoln County News, Ellsbury, Mo., has finished his treatment and returned home.

The graduating speech made by A. Potter of Butte, Montana, was an excellent one and was listened to with close attention by all present and at its conclusion Mr. Potter was loudly applauded.

The club was favored with an excellent farewell speech Tuesday from N. Griswold of Chicago, who had just completed a four week's course of treatment. During his stay in Dwight Mr. Griswold has made several interesting talks at the club that will no doubt be productive of much good.

Friday morning the subject brought up for discussion was "How we became addicted to alcholic stimulants," and brief experiences were related by Mr. Mooney of Braidwood, T. Alfred Quaile of Chicago, Geo. Eliott of Toronto, Canada, Dr. Will S. Mullens of Henderson, Ky.

Under the date of March 3, 1892, F. M. Phipps of Mattoon, Ill., wrote the following on the pages of the Cornell House register: I am cured of the appetite for old "Booze" and expect to return to my little family and friends the like unto I had not been for fifteen years "A man." Adieu to all.

The first anniversary of the Keeley club in Bloomington was celebrated in a fitting manner last Sunday by the members of the League in that city. They had songs, music, an experience meeting and a good time generally. On the night of Oct. 24, they expect to give a grand ball for the benefit of their club.

Ex-president J. H. Pierce who made so many warm friends during his stay in Dwight arrived here on a brief visit Tuesday evening, and to say that he met with a hearty reception from his friends who still remain here would not half express it. Mr. Pierce is one of those genial companionable gentlemen whom it is a pleasure and an honor to know.

Patients or visitors to the club rooms should not carry away the daily papers from the reading room as they are taken for the benefit of all the members who may care to read them. It has occurred almost every day lately that some one has appropriated them to their own use soon after they have been placed upon the table in the reading room.

The little flower girl Hattie May Morris was awarded a rising vote of thanks at the club Sunday morning for her kindness in keeping the desks of the President and Secretary supplied with flowers during the entire season. Little Hattie has always been a great favorite with the patients and during the season that is just closed she sold over forty dollars worth of button hole boquets.

At the meeting Monday morning an interesting discussion was had on the topic "Should men shun the Saloon after leaving Dwight." Those taking part in the discussion were A. H. Potter. T. A. Quaile, J. E. Evans, Lew Nichols and Dr. Roberts, and it was thought advisable by all the speakers to keep out of the saloons and away from its associations in every way.

Frank Parmelee got back from Dwight, last Friday. He is feeling A No. 1, and rejoicing to think he ever went as a student to the Keeley Institute, from which he graduated one day last week. His friends, and he has a great many of them, are rejoicing with him in his victory over the devil of drink. Every good man and woman in this community wishes him well, and hopes for him an abiding victory.—Onarga Leader and Review.

Ex-vice-president Jos. E. Pace writes from his home at Mt. Vernon, Ill., that no business of his will be of such a nature that he cannot at any time devote his attention to anyone desiring information in regard to the Keeley treatment. During his four week's sojourn in Dwight Mr. Pace was an earnest and enthusiastic worker in the club, and now that he has returned home he does not forget to send cheering messages to the patients now here.

The song service Sunday morning was a very interesting one and the attendance was unusually large considering there was no way of heating the room provided. Miss Stella Flagler presided at the piano in her usual graceful manner, and was accompanied on the cornet by Mr. Jack Evans. Interesting speeches were made by T. Alfred Quaile of Chicago, Mr Fielder of Chicago, and others. A collection was taken up amounting to $13.06 for the benefit of a patient who was unable to pay his board.

The meeting Wednesday morning was a very interesting one and the time was fully occupied in a manner satisfactory to all. Ex-president John H. Pierce and W. H. Dodge made excellent talk each that did everyone in the hall an immense amount of good and greatly encouraged the new members who had the pleaeure of listening to them. A bright, encouraging letter was read by Secretary Dereen from Dr. Will S. Mullins of Henderson, Ky., written after his arrival home from Dwight. Vice-president H. A. Button made a splendid farewell talk to the club prior to his departure for his home at Casselton, N. Dakota.

At the election held for officers of the club Thursday morning, T. Alfred Quaile of Chicago, was unanimously chosen President. Jack Evans of Mt. Vernon, Ill., was elected vice-president, and James Fitsworth was appointed sergeant-at-arms. The selection of officers for the ensuing week gives general satisfaction. Farewell speeches were made Thursday by Mr. Mooney of Braidwood, Lew Nichols of the Ringling Brothers Circus, and J. H. Pierce, who goes to New Jersey as a lecturer for the Keeley National League. Mr. Pierce is a fine orator and will no doubt do an excellent work throughout the country for the Keeley treatment and the League.

A very important subject was brought up for discussion Saturday and one that is of interest to every member of the club, viz, "Shall members of the Keeley League wear the badge after leaving Dwight and returning to their respective homes?" By a rising vote of the members with the exception of one negative vote it was unanimously decided that the button should be worn at all times and places as it would prove a safeguard to everyone wearing it. Short speeches were made in favor of wearing it by Messrs. Ed. W. Wood, T. Alfred Quaile, Chicago, Harry L. Harlan, Louisville, Ky., Willard S. Brown, Dwight, George D. Kelly, Pittsburg, Penn., Jack Evans, Mt. Vernon, Ill., Dr. Roberts, Sumner, Mo., and several others whose names the club reporter was unable to learn. The only speech in opposition to the wearing of the button was made by H. N. Morse of Ludington, Mich., which was a great surprise to the other members and caused considerable discussion among them after the adjournment.

Tuesday Evening's Entertainment.

Since the formation of the club in Dwight a great many excellent entertainments have been given by the members who have been assisted from time to time by residents of the village and visitors from abroad, but it is conceded by those in a position to know that last Tuesday evening's entertainment was by all odds the very best ever given up to date. The club was peculiarly fortunate in having with them on this occasion as visitors from Chicago the Misses Ella and Lizzie Mansfield, the former lady having appeared here at an entertainment given by the club several weeks ago at which time she made a decided hit as a pianist. Mr. W. H. Collins of the musical house of Lyon & Healy had also been heard before and was an established favorite, as was Prof. Amos Cole the well known solo violinist and composer of the Keeley march who resides at Kankakee. These people with the patients and a few of the Dwight ladies who so kindly assist at the club entertainments, made up a program of great excellence and worth lasting two hours, and for once the entire program was rendered without any tedious waits and every performer responded promptly when their names were called.

The first number upon the program was an overture by the orchestra, followed by a piano solo by W. H. Collins. A humorous recitation was then given by J. M. Fitspatrick entitled "Temperance in a family." Then came Prof. Amos Cole with his violin and it was conceded by all that his selections were exquisite and of a very superior order, and the wrapt silence of the audience during his playing and the applause which follow it were the fullest endorsement of its merit. A vocal solo by Miss Lizzie Mansfield entitled "O, Promise Me," was superb. Miss Mansfield has a full strong voice and sings with fine musical feeling, and succeeded in captivating the audience from the start. Her selections were in excellent taste, and displayed the power and beauty of her perfectly modulated tones to the best possible advantage. For an encore she sang "When Your Ship Comes in." Then came the only and inimitable W. H. Collins who was compelled by the audience to respond to encore after encore and the thunderous applause which he received was well deserved. The baritone solo by Jack Evans was finely given and called forth loud applause. Little Stella Bovik gave two recitations in an excellent manner. A solo by Miss Mabel Huey was a most enjoyable feature, and the hearty applause bestowed upon her showed that she had won the hearts of her hearers She possesses a voice of unusual richness and purity and her selection was in excellent taste. Miss Ada Fenn brought down the house in her recital of "How the old horse won the bet." The lecture on freaks by Lew Nichols was a very humorous number and caused the appreciative audience to laugh heartily. The music both instrumental and vocal was sweet and inspiring. The accompaniments were played by Misses Ella Mansfield Stella Flagler and Mr. W. H. Collins. A solo by Miss Mamie Barnum was sung with feeling and elicited a round of applause. The complete program as given is as follows:
