DALTON BANDITS DIE.

WIPED OUT WHILE ROBBING BANKS IN KANSAS.

They Ride Into Coffeyville, Attack the Banks, and Are Attacked—Four of Them Killed, and They Also Kill Five Citizens.

Fight to the Death.

The Dalton gang has been exterminated, wiped off the face of the earth. Caught like rats in a trap, they were shot down, but not until four citizens of Coffeyville, Kan., yielded up their lives in the work of extermination.

Six of the gang rode into the town Wednesday morning and robbed the banks. Their raid had become known to the officers of the law, and when the bandits attempted to escape they were attacked by the Marshal's posse. In the battle which ensued four of the desperadoes were killed outright, and one was so badly wounded that he has since died. The other escaped, but he is being hotly pursued.

Of the attacking party four were killed, one was fatally and two seriously wounded. The dead are: GRANT DALTON, desperado, shot through the head; EMMET DALTON, desperado, shot through the left arm; JOSEPH AYERS, desperado, shot through the head; JOHN MOORE, alias "Texas Jack," desperado, shot through the head.

P. CONNELLY, City Marshal, shot through the head; L. M. BALDWIN, bank clerk, shot through the head; G. W. CROWE, merchant, shot through the head; T. J. BROWN, shoemaker, shot through the body.

Thomas G. Ayers, cashier of the First National Bank, was shot through the groin and can't lie down.

N. A. Reynolds of the attacking party has a wound in the right breast, but it is not considered necessary dangerous.

Luis Deiz, another of the attacking party, was shot through the right side. His wound is serious one, but is not fatal.

It was 9 o'clock when the gang rode into town, in two squads of three each, passing through unrequited streets and deserted alleys to the alley in the rear of the First National Bank. They quickly tied their horses, and without losing a moment's time proceeded to the attack upon the bank.

Robert Dalton, the notorious leader of the gang, and Emmet, his brother, were both in the bank, and with them the other four under the leadership of "Texas Jack," or John Moore, going to the private bank of M. M. Congdon & Co.

In the meantime the alarm had already been given. The Dalton boys were born and bred in Dalton, and were well known to nearly every man, woman and child. Almost before the bandits had entered the bank Marshal Connelly was collecting a posse. He ran first to the livery stable of Jim Spears, a dead end with a valuable right side. His quickly tied their horses, and without losing a moment's time proceeded to the attack upon the bank.

Forest Fires and Mosquitoes in Alaska.

Miles and miles of blackened stumps marked the ravages of forest fires. The Indian, when resting on his journey and suffering from mosquitoes, sets fire to the twigs and leaves around him, creating a smoky haze which keeps the pest at a distance.

Paying Postage on Mails.

"The amount of moisture in a letter of two or three pages will carry," says a business man, "is enormous, and is frequently heavy enough to turn the scale and call for more postage. A large batch of mail matter, not long ago, and on going to the postoffice I found it weighed well within the limit. It was explained, however, that the mail was damp when delivered, and that the water soaked up by the paper must be paid for, although it had since evaporated, which seems to indicate that it is economical to copy letters at least an hour or two before mailing them."

The use of Ely's Cream Balm, a sure cure for Catarrh and Cold in Head, is attended with no pain, inconvenience, or dread, which can be said of no other remedy.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it half a year, and cured my catarrh, and am, I think, a better man for it. My acquaintances have used it with excellent results.

Apply Balm into each nostril. It is Quickly Absorbed. Great Relief at once. Price 50 cents at Druggists or by mail.

An exchange gives an account of the death of an aged citizen who lived until the age of 82, but who had been a sufferer from asthma for many years.

It is generally supposed that this is a malady from which old people in particular suffer, but this is not so, for many young people contract it. It can be cured even in its worst stages.

We have tried it thousands of cases and have never known it to fail to give instant relief when REID'S GERMAN COUGH AND KIDNEY CURE was administered in small and frequent doses. It acts at once as a stimulant, relaxing the muscles. It contains nothing deleterious, neither opiate nor narcotic; it can be given again and again without any danger of evil results. No other cough remedy on the market can be given without danger; most of them contain opium in some form, or some other drug which, if taken in excessive quantities, is likely to prove fatal. REID'S GERMAN COUGH AND KIDNEY CURE contains no poison. The small bottles are 25 cents, the large ones 50 cents. Get it of any dealer.
