

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Picked Up at the Club Rooms and Various Parts of the City.

The total membership of the Dwight club, Wednesday, Oct. 19, was 1,375.

We will print cards with the above cut in the corner, for 75 cents per 100.

An interesting and encouraging letter was read from J. C. McNeill, of Mansfield, Ill.

An interesting letter was read Tuesday from J. J. Bell, of Lacon, who graduated last August.

Rev. S. W. Sample, of Minneapolis, Minn., was a club visitor Tuesday and made a very encouraging speech to the boys.

Farewell speeches were made Tuesday by Daniel J. Lowery, of Milwaukee, H. N. Morse, of Ludington, Mich.

G. C. Hoffman, of Peoria, Ill., graduated Nov. 14, 1881, was a club visitor Tuesday and made a short speech that was full of encouragement to the men now in line.

At the Saturday morning meeting letters were read from H. F. Vest, of Colchester, Ill., John Fredricks, of Joliet, Ill., and J. T. Walker, of Ellsberry, Mo., and Geo. W. Phillips, of Owensboro, Ky.

Throw away the tomato cans that are used by the president and secretary of the club for bouquet holders, and take up a collection for the purchase of suitable vases in which to place flowers hereafter.

Le Gage Pratt, who is so well and favorably known in Dwight, is the secretary and general manager of the Keeley Institute that was opened for business at Charleston, West Va., Thursday Oct. 20.

Mr. H. N. Morse, of Ludington, Mich., did not believe in the indiscriminate reading of letters before the club unless they had first been submitted to the president and secretary of the club for perusal.

A letter was read to the club dated at Macon City, Mo., from Lew Nichols manager of side shows with Ringling Brothers shows. The contents of the letter brought out a round of applause from all who heard it read.

Dr. J. H. Morton, of Jordan, Ky., "Stick" O'Neal, of Bloomington, and Mr. Gill, of Chicago, said good bye to the club Wednesday morning, and an excellent letter was read by President Quaila from Ex-President Ed W. Wood, of Chicago.

The Joliet News of October 17, contains a cut of Hon. William Mooney and an interview with that gentleman after his return home from Dwight. The interview closes by Mr. Mooney saying: "You can tell you readers that I am cured forever."

Major Curtis J. Judd made an excellent talk in the club room Friday morning that was most fully appreciated by all who had the pleasure of listening to him. Ex-State Senator Strong, of Blue Rapids, Kansas, also made a few remarks pertinent to the occasion.

Ask Harry Lawrence about that telegram he received from Bloomington last Saturday. He only got the horse laugh from five hundred men when he went to the train expecting to meet Ben W. Mason, secretary of the Bloomington club. Ask Harry if he ever got left.

Hereafter speeches at the club will be limited to five minutes, a very good idea; for there are men so constituted that they never know when to stop when they once get started and the men become very weary listening to these long-winded orations, with which they are afflicted at times.

Brief farewell speeches were made Friday by graduates Dr. B. F. Roberts, of Missouri, who had a continual fight on his hands against liquor before coming to Dwight, but for the first time in years he felt free from all desire for liquor. J. L. Wilson and Walter Porter, of Mackinaw, Ill., bade the club good bye.

The little slip on the wrapper designates the time of expiration of your subscription. Remember it should be paid in advance. Please examine the slip. The subscription price is so low that we can't send bills out, and consequently we hope you will respond promptly. This is for those in arrears.

Interesting letters were read to the club Monday morning from Alvin J. Slack, of Midway, Ky., Ex-President Henry A. Button, of Casselton, Minn., A. J. Sheridan, of Minneapolis, Minn., and a short farewell talk was made by Mr. J. H. Caldwell, of Chicago. Mr. Whitney, of Maine, who graduated in Dwight fourteen months ago was present and made some most excellent remarks in regard to his life since he left here, and he regarded Dwight as his second birth place. Mr. Whitney is now interested in the Keeley Institutes that are operated in New Hampshire.

Hon. Wm. Mooney is home from Dwight, feeling, as he puts it, like a man for the first time in twenty years. He thinks the Keeley cure is the grandest discovery of our time. With others we sincerely trust the cure is a permanent one and that this brainy man will never have occasion to visit the Dwight sanitarium again.—Braidwood Bulletin

Miss Stella Flagler presided at the piano at the Sunday morning song service, and the club was favored with two most excellent solos rendered by Mr. C. H. Ross and Mr. Wyckoff, of Chicago. "Shall the World's Fair be open on Sunday. If not, why not," was the topic discussed by Mr. T. A. Quaila and Dr. Manning, of Chicago, who both took the affirmative side.

Mr. Geo. E. Whitney, of Portland, Maine, general agent Boston and Maine Central railroads, and Mrs. Whitney, were Dwight visitors this week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Flagler. Mr. Whitney is a Keeley graduate of August '91, and a firm believer in the merits of the cure. He takes a yearly trip west and says that Dwight will always be one of his objective points.

Speaking of Dwight, it would seem that Mt. Vernon is keeping up the well earned reputation of getting the thing when she (the King City) goes after it. Our town clerk, John M. Evans, was elected vice-president of the Keeley League at Dwight last Thursday and James Titsworth was selected as sergeant-at-arms. These elections are held weekly (on Thursday), and there is more interest manifested there in the results than in the presidential campaign. Tally one more for the King City.—Mt. Vernon, Ill., News.

On account of the entertainment to be given by the club in the opera house Friday evening, the regular Tuesday evening entertainment was dispensed with this week, but in place of it an impromptu dance was arranged in which none but gentlemen participated, and to say that the boys enjoyed themselves would not half express it. Some of the costumes worn by the gentleman who represented ladies were out of sight. In addition to the dancing program several solos were sang, and many good stories told from the platform.

The Misses Ella and Lizzie Mansfield, of Chicago, who have been the guests of friends in Dwight for several days, have been very kind in assisting at the entertainments given from time by the Keeley League, and the members of the club fully appreciating their services, desired to show these talented young ladies that they were held in high esteem, and upon the motion of Willard S. Brown made at the club meeting Monday morning that the two young ladies be made honorary members of the Dwight Keeley League, and the secretary of the club be instructed to present each of them with the badge of the club in recognition of their services, the motion was unanimously seconded, and by the unanimous vote of the members present Misses Ella and Lizzie Mansfield were elected honorary members of this club. Their election gave universal satisfaction, everyone considering an honor worthy bestowed. At a rehearsal held in the opera house Monday afternoon, the buttons were presented to the Misses Mansfield on behalf of the club by President Quaila, who was authorized by the ladies to return their sincere thanks to the club for the honors.

Since the very first day of his arrival in Dwight when he became a member of the club, President T. Alfred Quaila has been very active in advancing the interests of the club in every possible way, and by his own personal exertions among the new people coming in every day, many of them found themselves active participants in the exercises of club before they really realized that they were in Dwight at all. At the song service last Sunday morning he extended an invitation to every patient here at that time, who was not a member of the club to meet him at the club hall in the afternoon when an informal talk would be had in regard to the benefits accruing to everyone who joined the club, not only while in Dwight but after their return to their respective homes. At the hour mentioned quite a number of the patients gathered at the club room and listened to short talks from President Quaila, Mr. Jones, of St. Louis, Willard S. Brown, of Dwight upon the subject. Many questions were asked and answered satisfactorily and quite a number who were their availed themselves of the opportunity to have their names proposed for membership on the following day, and taken altogether the results of the meeting were very satisfactory, and it would doubtless be of great benefit to the club to have such meetings as often as possible in the future with a view to enlightening the new arrivals on this subject, and explain to them what a membership in the Keeley League means. An hour spent in this manner every Sunday afternoon will be the means of increasing the membership in an appreciable manner.

The officers elected to serve for the ensuing term were president, Wm. Halleck Jones, of St. Louis, Mo., vice-president, John M. Fitzpatrick, of Joliet, Ill., and Lewis Lyons, of Keokuk, Iowa, was appointed sergeant-at-arms.

The club was addressed by Francis Murphy Thursday morning in an eloquent manner, and his speech was loudly applauded. Upon motion of H. B. Elliott, of Alabama, member of the national executive committee, Mr. Murphy was unanimously elected an honorary member of the Dwight Keeley League, and upon motion of O. B. Stanton, of Dwight, Mrs. Murphy was also made an honorary member of the club, and the secretary was instructed to present Mrs. Murphy with the emblem of the club.

The regular Tuesday evening club entertainments of late have been of such an excellent character that large crowds have attended them, in fact the number attending was so large that many were unable to even find standing room in the club house and as a natural consequence there has been considerable dissatisfaction and grumbling among the club members and patients for whose especial benefit these entertainments are given, and many ways have been talked of at the club to devise means by which to accommodate the members, patients, and those of their family who may be here with them, as well as the citizens of the town who desire to attend. The committee on entertainment met last week and decided that hereafter a rope would be stretched across the center of the hall, separating the visitors from the patients, the latter to be admitted at the side door of the club room, and shown to the seats in front of the rope, and all the town people or visitors will be admitted at the main entrance, and occupy the seats in the rear of the rope. Every new crowd coming to Dwight had different ways of doing things.

DWIGHT, ILL., Oct. 18th, 1892
At a regular meeting of Keeley League No. 1, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, That in the person of Dr. Leslie E. Keeley, the members of this kindred League, and patients under treatment at the various Keeley Institutes, as well as man and woman kind at large, have a steadfast friend and benefactor, and

WHEREAS, In many instances Dr. Keeley has followed the Divine injunction "Let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth," his heart, we know, aside from pecuniary interest, beats responsive to the wants and needs of his fellowmen. That from circumstances accidentally coming to our knowledge Dr. Keeley has in practice changed the sentiment "Man's inhumanity to man," and which until very recently many of us believe to be the truth, to the higher and nobler one of "Man's humanity to man," and

WHEREAS, That amongst the smallest of his many kind acts is the granting of the use of the opera house for the pecuniary advantage and mental enjoyment of Keeley League No. 1, of Dwight. Therefore be it

Resolved, That in consideration of the above facts, we the members of Keeley League No. 1, do and hereby declare that we shall ever bear Dr. Keeley in grateful and lovable remembrance.

Resolved, That to Curtis J. Judd, Secretary and Treasurer of The Leslie E. Keeley Co., and all members of the Medical Staff, we extend our hearty good will and respect for the uniform courtesy and consideration with which we have been treated, and words of encouragement with which we have been strengthened during our brief sojourn in Dwight.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of this league, and copies furnished the National League, the press, Dr. Leslie E. Keeley, Major Curtis J. Judd, and the members and families of the faculty. T. A. QUAILA, Chicago, Ill. G. D. KELLY, Pittsburg, Pa. H. N. MORSE, Ludington, Mich. Wm. H. JONES, St. Louis, Mo. E. MEYER, Joliet, Ill.
