FINE RIGS A SPECIALTY.

PAYSON.

Ex-Congressman Payson, whom everybody knows in this part of Illinois as a fine orator, will deliver a speech on the issues of the campaign at Dwight on Saturday evening, Nov. 5. An invitation is extended to all republican marching clubs in this section to be present and take part in the torch light procession in the evening. This will be the last rally of the campaign and every voter is invited to be present. By ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

"Uncle Dick" Oglesby.

The republican club of Dwight will leave for the great county seat rally at Pontiac next Tuesday, Nov. 1 at 6:30 on a special train, taking on the Odell marching club at that point. It is estimated by the county central committee that there will be 1,000 torches in line that night. Every member of the Dwight club is requested to be present and bring torches loaded for business. Everybody outside of the club is invited to go on the excursion train. The fair is only 55 cents round trip. Trains will leave for home after rally. Turn out and get there. By order J. C. LEWIS, Capt.

Republican Club.

All members of the Dwight Republican Marching Club are requested to meet at the afternoon train to-day (Saturday) and go to Gardner tonight to take part in the great republican rally there. Bring your torches. By order J. C. LEWIS, Pres. W. G. DUSTIN, Sec.

Democratic Rally.

Thursday was democratic day in Dwight. The announcements had been made for ten days that Congressman Snow, C. S. Darrow, of Chicago, and J. F. C. W. Bock would speak here on that day. It was the intention of the committee to have an out-door meeting in the afternoon, but on account of the chilly weather it was held in the opera house.

The Odell band furnished the music and did very well, and earned their money.

President Prime, of the Dwight club, called the meeting to order in the afternoon and introduced Congressman Snow, who made a good democratic speech.

Mr. Snow was followed by Hon. J. F. C. W. Bock, who spoke in German. Our German education was neglected in our youth, but we will give him credit for making a good speech, because the democratic Germans say so.

In the evening a torchlight procession paraded the principal streets headed by the band and marched to the opera house where Hon. C. S. Darrow, of Chicago, spoke. Mr. Darrow was assistant corporation counsel under Mayor Cregier in Chicago and is a fine lawyer and orator and his speech was well received.

Congressman Snow made a short speech early in the evening until Mr. Darrow arrived on the hummer.

In the afternoon the crowd was not large but in the evening the opera house was filled to the doors.

This will probably be the last democratic rally of importance and the republicans will hold their last in Dwight during the campaign Saturday evening November 5.

Another Kansas Excursion.

The Trice Brothers left again Tuesday with another excursion to Kansas. The destination is about thirty miles from Wichita. The excursion was free to all those that received an invitation, and it is safe to say that all had a good time. C. Y. Trice was in charge and he knows how to treat his friends. The Trice Brothers are doing a great business in this part of Illinois, and those going from this section are among our best men. In many cases this community will not lose these men, but they are just investing their spare change in Kansas land. Mr. Trice informs us that he had more applicants this time than he could accommodate, and almost all of them will invest. The land company still have thousands of acres in Kansas which they will dispose of, and anyone wishing to go west or invest in Kansas land, will do well to see them or their representatives. Those that have made a trip with them speak very highly of the country and their treatment by the Trices while away.

Register and Vote.

Remember that next Tuesday Nov. 1 is the last chance to register your name to vote Nov. 8, 1892. It's every man's duty to register and vote. Register your name at the town house next Tuesday and cast your vote one week from that time early in the morning. The polls open at 7 a. m. and close at 5 p. m.

Discovered by Columbus.

Like many men who during their lives, have accomplished acts that entitle them to the everlasting gratitude of humanity and receive their reward after being dead and buried, so was Christopher Columbus. If the great spirit world provides a way that those that have gone before can see what is transpiring on this earth, certainly the spirit of Columbus must have been proud for the past two weeks, and can the spirits of departed men think, the hardships endured by Columbus and his spartan band must have paled into insignificance before the regal honors being paid to him all over this country. Nothing was ever seen or heard of that compares with the recent celebration of the discovery of America, in that city of cities, Chicago, during all last week. It was a scene that never had its equal, and it is very doubtful if the opening of the great fair itself will excel it. One thing is sure, it will never bring together so many great men at one time as was there last week. The great enthusiasm there spread out through the land, and Dwight had its share.

Prof. W. F. Wilson is an able and patriotic man, and believes it is right in the line of education, to instill into the young minds love of country and the flag, and he rightly thought this, the celebration of the discovery of America, a splendid opportunity. The teachers and scholars in the several departments joined in heart and hand and assisted the professor to make the celebration in Dwight a grand success, and it was.

Early Friday morning the little ones were to be seen about the streets on their way to school. At 9 o'clock the schools were called as usual and immediately each teacher formed their charges into lines and each scholar was presented with a flag. The lines marched from the school house to the west side park at 9:30, and formed as follows: Marshal music, Dwight Women's Relief Corps, teachers and scholars, Grand Army of the Republic, Sons of Veterans. The procession moved east to Franklin, south to East, to Chippewa, to Prairie avenue, to West, to Mazon avenue, west to West Park where the exercises were held. The park was well filled and the large number of seats provided were inadequate by half. The stand was handsomely decorated. The program was about as follows:

NOTES.

The parade presented a very handsome appearance.

Hersh Hagerty and Fred Mowbray furnished the martial music.

Where were the citizens and their remarks? Echo answers where?

The committee who had charge of affairs, under the counsel of Prof. Wilson deserve the great credit for the manner in which the whole program was carried out.

Many of our citizens celebrated in Chicago.

If there is one thing more than another that Dwight needs it is a well regulated brass band. This is a self evident fact on many occasions. There is plenty of ability here, but a leader with some get up and get it what is needed.

Dwight W. R. C. Inspected.

The Dwight Woman's Relief Corps is in excellent condition, so reported the inspector, Mrs. Blackmore, of Pontiac, Thursday evening, when the yearly inspection took place in Sons of Veterans hall. The corps, to the number of about twenty five assembled at about 8 o'clock, and President Mrs. Hattie Fox called them to order and turned them over to the inspector. Mrs. Blackmore thought the order was all right. After the inspection was over the ladies served sandwiches and coffee to the Sons, the old veterans and a few friends, and a very enjoyable evening was spent. Mrs. Blackmore was accompanied by Mrs. Armon, of Pontiac. They returned home on the midnight train much pleased with the Dwight corps, and the Dwight corps was much pleased with them.

"Dorothy" Well Done.

The Andrews Opera company scored a success Saturday evening at the opera house, and Manager Romberger is certainly to be congratulated in the manner in which he has started out in engaging first-class companies for the people of Dwight. The company seemed to be at their best and the choruses were strong and the solos, duets, quartettes, etc., were exceptionally fine. The cast of characters was as follows: Dorothy Bantam..... MARIÉ ROE
Lydia Hawthorne..... SELINA TAYLOR
Phyllis Tuppit..... GRACE HALE
Mrs. Privett, (Priscilla).....
..... JESSIE ANDREWS
Geoffrey Wilder..... JAY C. TAYLOR
Harry Sherwood..... GEO. ANDREWS
Squire Bantam..... JNO. C. McMILLAN
Farmer Tuppit..... FRED ALLEN
Lurcher..... ED. ANDREWS
Tom Strutt..... ARTHUR BURGESS
Lady Betty..... MABLE STUART
Chorus of Peasants, Ladies, Gentlemen, Hunters, Old Women, Etc.

The synopsis of the play is about as follows:

In the first act, Dorothy, daughter of Squire Bantam, and her friend Lydia Hawthorne, disguises themselves as peasants and go to the inn of Farmer Tuppit in search of an adventure. Geoffrey Wilder, nephew and heir to Squire Bantam, is betrothed to Dorothy whom he has never seen, and is very much opposed to the match. He and his friend Sherwood on their way to Squire Bantam's stop at the inn and fall in love with the two girls, not knowing who they are. Dorothy gives Wilder a black ring to remember her by and Lydia gives Sherwood a brown ring. Wilder, who is overwhelmed with debts and pursued by Lurcher, a sheriff's officer, forms a scheme to extract money from his uncle by stratagem.

In the second act, he disguises himself as a Duke, and with Sherwood and Lurcher, call upon Squire Bantam and pretends to be robbed in his house, and the Squire insists on making good his supposed loss. Meanwhile Wilder will not look at Dorothy, but makes violent love to Lydia whom he does not recognize, and gives her the black ring given him by Dorothy. Sherwood likewise gives the brown ring to Dorothy, while Lurcher makes love to Priscilla, an ancient widow of the Squires household.

In the third act, Dorothy and Lydia disguise themselves as gallants and challenge Wilder and Sherwood to mortal combat or a marriage with the ladies they met the night before. They arrange for a duel, but the two girls are frightened out and run away. When their identity is explained, all is satisfactorily arranged, much to the Squires satisfaction, as Wilder marries his cousin Dorothy after all, while Sherwood takes Lydia, and Lurcher, who has been improving his time, becomes the fifth husband of Priscilla. Tom Grass, a peasant, marries Phyllis daughter of Farmer Tuppit.

The costumes were very fine, and the troupe was by far the best ever in Dwight.

The attractions already booked for the opera house, which will be found in another column, are all of high standing, and insures a series of amusements that deserve the patronage of all.

Abbaduska-Barnum.

Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 28, at 6 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents at Odell, Ill., occurred the marriage of Miss Lilly Abbaduska to Mr. Frank Barnum, of Chicago. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Fred Jamison, brother-in-law of the groom, and pastor of the M. E. church at De Selin, Ill., in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends of the high contracting parties. The bride looked very sweet and handsome in a dress of white crepe de chien with train. She carried in her hand a bunch of bride's roses. It was a very quiet affair and was followed by a supper, given in honor of the occasion. The bride is a daughter of George Abbaduska, for many years a resident of Odell. The groom is a son of A. C. Barnum and one of Dwight's best known citizens, and is himself a well known and highly respected young man. They were the recipients of many fine and costly presents. Mr. and Mrs. Barnum left on the Hummer Monday morning for their future home. The many Dwight friends of the newly married pair extend congratulations.

The Dwight Young Ladies.

The Dwight Republican girls have received an invitation from the girls marching club in Gardner to come up there today (Saturday) and take part in the parade. The Gardner girls offer to entertain their visitors and it is likely quite a number will go.

The Girls Will Drill.

A novelty in the line of entertainments will soon be given in the opera house. It will be sixteen young ladies drilling with muskets. They will be handsomely clad, in zouave uniforms and handle the guns like old soldiers. The drilling has already commenced and the girls are doing nicely. It will be the most attractive entertainment ever given in Dwight. The date will be announced later.

The Big Organ will Stay.

The Congregational people have decided to keep the fine organ and have already made the first payment. It is a fine one and a credit to the congregation and to Dwight. About six hundred dollars has been pledged, and the remaining amount will be raised by entertainments.

Register.

Considerable over 600 names were registered on the poll books Tuesday last and there are more to come. Remember that Tuesday Nov. 1 is the last and only day left. It should be borne in mind that the polls open at 7 o'clock and close at 4, and that it will take very minute of that time to cast the votes if they are all registered. If any have to be sworn in some one will get left. Don't neglect to register under any circumstances, if you wish to vote, and every voter should vote without fail.

Orange Judd Farmer.

Now here is an excellent chance! We will send the ORANGE JUDD FARMER and DWIGHT STAR and HERALD for one year for $2.00 a year. We will not do this long. T Orange Judd Farmer subscriber must be a new one, but we will do the same by any STAR and HERALD subscriber who will pay in advance between now and Jan. 1, 1893.

From 7 to 5 O'clock.

Under the new election law, the poll on election day will open at 7 o'clock a. m., and close at 5 p. m. Voters must arrange their business to get to the polls within the time specified.

A $3 Magazine for $1.

The Postmaster-General writes to the editor of Arthur's New Home Magazine of Philadelphia: "As your magazine gets thicker it gets brighter. I congratulate you on doing what no one else has done in putting out two copies at the price others charge for one—it is half the price of other and no better magazines." This was written when the price was $1.50, but the circulation has grown so large that we can afford to make it $1, and have made it larger and better at the same time.

It has long been said that it was "the best magazine in the English language for the money," and it is better to-day than ever.

Every subscriber gets $3 worth of McCall's Glove Fitting Patterns free.

Full particulars and sample copy (including a pattern order worth 35 cents) sent free for five two-cent stamps.

The Arthur Publishing Company, (Lock Box 915) Walnut and Sixth Sts. Philadelphia, Pa.

The above Magazine and this Journal post-paid for one year for $2.

Covered Carriage Given Away.

The proprietors of the STAR and HERALD will present any one with a new covered single carriage, costing $75, who will get us one hundred new subscribers between now and Jan. 1, 1893, paid in advance, at $1.35 per year. We will further offer to take any subscriber from this time on for $1.35 from any time they may subscribe to Jan. 1, 1894.

We will provide against any loss of time to any one who will try to get the one hundred subscribers in this manner: In case of failure to procure the necessary number we will give any one $2.50 in cash for every ten subscribers they will get, or if they get fifty we will give them $15 in cash. This is a splendid opportunity for some young man or young lady to get a new covered carriage or make some pin money for Christmas. All subscriptions to be paid in advance.

Register Your Name.

Be sure and register this year and save trouble at the polls. Dwight will cast considerably over 500 votes this year and under the Australian system it will take a long while, and every voter should see that his name is properly recorded on Tuesday, Nov. 1. Look after this matter.

We will send "The Farmers Guide and Home Companion" and your home paper for one year for $1.50. The Farmers Guide contains forty columns of reading matter and is issued twice a month. This is an excellent chance to get an excellent agricultural paper cheap.

Coming Attractions.

The next attraction booked for the opera house, is Heywood's Celebrities, the bright lights in opera, comedy and concert. The company is highly spoken of by the press. They have nine people, all first-class, and outside of Dwight visit nothing but cities of 10,000 and upwards. Tickets will be on sale at Dr. Barr's drug store in due time. In the opera house Nov. 15.

The Jas. L. Brandt Comedy Co., in "Is Marriage a Failure," Dec. 7. Schubert Symphony and Lady Quartette, Dec. 12.
