A party was given in Bloomington Tuesday night at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Burkhart in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lawrence, of Dwight. About forty invited guests were present and a very enjoyable evening was passed by all who were fortunate enough to be present.

Vice-president J. M. Fitzpatrick officiated as ring master and clown at the Monday morning meeting of the circus. It was a great aggregation and every performer was a star and each one succeeded in making a hit, but "Fitz" could not be induced to occupy the president's chair very soon again. He says he knows when he has got enough.

Secretary Dereen made the following report to the club Saturday morning. Total receipts of the club from all sources since the present secretary took charge July 23 to Oct. 1 1892, $735.52. Expenditures for same time $493.89. Cash in bank $241.63. Under the present careful management the Dwight club is getting on a sound basis again.

The thanks of the club were tendered Geo. D. Kelly for his many acts of kindness to members of the club, and for his efficiency and ability both as officer and member during his sojourn in Dwight. Mr. Kelly thanked the club and bade them good bye and left on the 10:22 train for Chicago Saturday morning. From there he goes to Pittsburg, Penn., thence to Connecticut where he will remain a month, after which he goes out ahead of Francis Murphy as his business agent and manager.

Vice-president J. M. Fitzpatrick, and J. McDonald returned to their home in Chicago Tuesday. They were afraid to show themselves at the club and say good bye, for they had played too many practical jokes upon the boys during their sojourn in Dwight, consequently they made a sneak out of town. However they were very popular with all the patients who regretted to have them leave.

After a few days illness President William Halleck Jones was able to occupy the chair at the session of the club Wednesday morning. After the usual routine business had been transacted, charges and specifications were brought against one of the most prominent and popular members of the club and a mock trial was indulged in that caused a great amount of amusement for the spectators.

Before Francis Murphy addressed the large audience that assembled in the opera house Thursday evening he expressed a wish to listen to the experience of several old graduates, and some of the patients now here, and as their names were announced by President Jones, they stepped upon the stage and gave a brief history of their disease and their complete cure by the Keeley remedies. Mr. Murphy was intensely interested in the brief recitals.

D. M. Staley, of Fairfield, Ill., who departed for home a few days ago, wrote an amusing card to be read to the club, which tells about the narrow escape he made while in Springfield when the pawnbrokers of that city made an endeavor to capture him in order to secure if they could the great amount of gold that he carried in his body. In their attempt to capture him and all but one was killed and the survivor took the first train for Dwight and Staley made his escape from the city and reached home in safety.

During their stay in Dwight last week, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Murphy were deeply impressed with all that they witnessed in connection with the Keeley treatment, and also with the workings of the club, each member of the organization seeming to take great pleasure in showing the distinguished guests that they considered it an honor to have Mr. and Mrs. Murphy among them. The club listened to an eloquent address from Mr. Murphy on Thursday and Friday mornings, and also had addresses from Dr. Leslie E. Keeley and Col. Nate A. Reed Jr., Friday.

Geo. D. Kelly left Dwight last Saturday for his home in Pittsburg, Penn., after a month's sojourn in Dwight. Mr. Kelly succeeded during his stay in Dwight in forming the acquaintance of almost every patient and many of the citizens, and impressed all with whom he came in contact as a gentleman, a most companionable and worthy man, and all unite with the STAR AND HERALD in wishing him long life, health and happiness. We trust that George will not forget the warm friends he made while here.

Dr. Alex W. Reese, in charge of the Keeley treatment at the National Military Home at Leavenworth, Kansas, writes a letter under date of Oct. 22, to the Dwight Keeley League, which was read to the club Monday morning by Secretary Dereen, and the reading of the letter elicited a hearty round of applause from the members. Dr. Reese writes among other things: "From the time I first became a member of your club, Dec. 25, '91, until the present hour, I have never ceased to have a deep interest and concern in all that pertains to your organization. I scan the columns of the Banner of Gold that is headed "Doings at Dwight" somewhat as a lover would an epistle from "his best girl." I look over the columns of the Dwight STAR AND HERALD called "Club Happenings" in the same way."

Those who related their experience at the Murphy meeting held at the opera house Thursday evening, were Judge W. S. Arnold, J. H. Pierce, Mrs. Ida Buxton Cole, Rev. H. M. Cole, T. Alfred Quaille, Harry Lawrence, Doctors Blaine and Gardner and Wm. Halleck Jones. At the conclusion of Francis Murphy's address an informal reception was held by Mr. and Mrs. Murphy and an opportunity was given to all who desired to take them by the hand, after which the committee having the distinguished guests in charge, escorted them and also Dr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Keeley to the laboratory where Mr. Murphy took each of the committeemen by the hand and bade them good night, after which Dr. Keeley stepped forward and thanked the club for the honors shown Mr. and Mrs. Murphy during their visit to Dwight.

Another crowded house greeted the performers at the entertainment given by the patients at the club room Wednesday evening. The first part of the evening was given up to minstrelsy, nine performers occupying the stage. The funny end men were McCaul and Taylor, whose alleged jokes of the vintage of 1801 caused considerable laughter among the members of the audience who had never attended a dime museum performance. Several excellent solos were sung in a very creditable manner. In the second part Rev. H. M. Cole sang a bass solo in a very pleasing manner. A tenor solo by Dr. Givens was rendered perfectly. All in all the entertainment was an excellent one. Below will be found the entire program:

FIRST PART. Overture.....Orchestra. Solo, "Sailing,".....T. A. Quaille. Bass Solo, "The Banana Man,".....Dr. Givens. Song, "Kathleen,".....Mr. Taylor. Irish Song, "The Girl from the Mountains,".....McCaul.

SECOND PART. Overture.....Orchestra. Solo, "Sailing,".....T. A. Quaille. Bass Solo, "From Bohemian Girl,".....Rev. H. M. Cole. Tenor Solo, "The Girl from the Mountains,".....Dr. Givens. Ventrioloquism.....Mr. Hollingshead. Flute Solo, "The Girl from the Mountains,".....C. C. Dudley. Farce, "Characters by entire Company."

Musical, Literary. A tremendous success was the way everybody expressed it, that attended the entertainment given by the Keeley League in the opera house last Friday evening. It was without doubt the best entertainment given by the League and the performers without a single exception, acted their part well. The following excellent program was rendered:

PROGRAM. Overture.....Orchestra. Reading of Humorous Epitaphs.....T. A. Quaille. Piano Solo, "The Girl from the Mountains,".....Miss Eleanor Mansfield. Lecture on Astronomy.....J. M. Evans. Flute Solo, "Blue Bells of Scotland," with variations.....C. C. Dudley. Soprano Solo, "Tis Not True,".....Miss Elizabeth Mansfield. Cornet Solo, "Emmett's Lullaby,".....Mr. Bailey.

The attendance was not as large as it should have been, and those who remained away can assure themselves that they have missed one of the best attractions of the season. The net receipts amounted to $39.15, which by a vote of the club Saturday was placed to the credit of the Northrup fund.
