

FROM WASHINGTON.

At Choptank, Md., eight of T. H. negroes in trial for the murder of Dr. Hill were declared guilty and sentenced to be hanged...

Washington has paid its last tribute of respect; the final ceremonies at the nation's capital are over; the beloved dead is gone toward his final resting place...

Considerable comment was caused by the Ohio headquarters at Victoria Hotel, Chicago, last night, when Judge Allen G. Thurman appeared among the many portraits of distinguished Ohioans that adorned the walls...

Swiss, Grand Captain of the Guard; E. J. Haddock, Omaha, Grand Marshal of the Camp A. C. ... Grand Marshal of the Camp A. C. ... Grand Marshal of the Camp A. C. ...

BEAT A MILE A MINUTE.

Swift engines of the Pennsylvania Railroad. An Iowa Family Perishes in a Burning Home—Four Children Lacked in and with them in Ontario—Baby Born in Jackson Park.

MILWAUKEE ABLAZE.

Business portion swept by furious flames. Blocks of factories and many residences burned—Hundreds of people driven from their homes and save nothing—Loss six millions.

SWAM IN BLAZING OIL. THE FEARFUL EXPERIENCE OF THREE BOATMEN.

A disastrous freight wreck took place near Hudson on the Philadelphia and Reading. A freight train dived into coal cars when an engine was shifting.

Foreign. Miss Cozans, the noted female suffragist, speaking at a meeting of the Woman's Emancipation Union in London, said that women should not go on talking until the cry of 'dynamite' is heard...

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

Four locomotives of the Pennsylvania Railroad, representing a different style of construction, were run over one another on the Jersey Meadows to discover which style of machine could do the best work...

Minutiae Chicago Fire. The lower portion of the East Side of Milwaukee went up in a whirlwind of flame Friday night. The burned portion comprises the wholesale district, the Northwestern Railway yards, and gas works.

Chinese Minister Suppressed—Fearful Deed of a Madman in Georgia—Firebugs Busy at Cleveland, Ohio—Train Robbers at Work in Alabama.

Two Big Four freight trains collided on the Washakie River bridge at Terra Haute. The shock broke a span out of the bridge, and both engines and a number of loaded stock cars were dropped into the river.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.

At Waco, Tex., judgment was rendered against James L. Moore and bondsmen for $36,000 in favor of the Waco Building Association.