Get a Sample Copy.
Call at the STAR AND HERALD office and get a copy of the Farmers' Guide, a forty column semi-monthly agricultural paper. We give it with the STAR AND HERALD for $1.50 in advance. It's a good offer.

A $3 Magazine for $1.
The Postmaster-General writes to the editor of Arthur's New Home Magazine of Philadelphia: "As your magazine gets thicker and gets brighter, I congratulate you on doing what no one else has done in putting out two copies at the price of one—half the price of other and no better magazines." This was written when the price was $1.50, but the circulation has grown so large that we can afford to make it $1 and have made it larger and better at the same time.

It has long been said that it was "the best magazine in the English language for the money," and it is better to-day than ever.
Every subscriber gets $3 worth of McCally's Glove Fitting Patterns free.
Full particulars and sample copy (including a pattern order worth 25 cents) sent free for five two-cent stamps.

The Arthur Publishing Company, (Lock Box 913, Walnut and Sixth Sts. Philadelphia, Pa.)
The above Magazine and this Journal post-paid for one year for $2.

Covered Carriage Given Away.
The proprietors of the STAR AND HERALD will present any one with a new covered single carriage, costing $75, who will get us one hundred new subscribers between now and Jan. 1, 1893, paid in advance, at $1.25 per year. We will further offer to take any subscriber from this time on for $1.25 from any time they may subscribe to Jan. 1, 1894.
We will provide anyone with any loss of time to any one who will try to get the one hundred subscribers in this manner: In case of failure to procure the necessary number we will give any one $2.50 in cash for every ten subscribers they will get, or if they get fifty we will give them $15 in cash. This is a splendid opportunity for some young man or young lady to get a new covered carriage or make some pin money for Christmas. All subscriptions to be paid in advance.

Orange Judd Farmer.
Now here is an excellent chance! We will send the ORANGE JUDD FARMER and DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD for one year or $2.00 a year. We will not do this long.
Orange Judd Farmer subscriber must be a new one, but we will do the same by any STAR AND HERALD subscriber who will pay in advance between now and Jan. 1, 1893.

Attention Woodmen!

A Big Crowd.
The republican rally at Braidwood last Wednesday was a great success and it was stated by those who live there that it was the largest crowd ever brought together at that place. Gov. Fifer was the principal speaker in the afternoon. In the evening two speeches were given in Italian. This was the largest meeting of the campaign at that place. It is estimated that ten thousand people were present.

A Winter Excursion to Mexico. "The Egypt of the New World."
The American Public Health Association and International Medical Congress will be held in the City of Mexico, November 30, and December 1 and 2, 1892. Excursion rate of one fare for the round trip to the City of Mexico and return will be made by the Chicago & Alton and its connectors account of this meeting. Tickets at the reduced rate will be on sale November 19 to 26, 1892, inclusive, and will be good to return up to and including December 31, 1892. A special train of elegant Pullman buffet sleeping cars will leave St. Louis Saturday, November 19, 1892, at 8:10 P. M., via the Iron Mountain Route, for the City of Mexico. The entire train will run through sold to Mexico's capital and will remain with the special party during the whole of the trip. If the business warrants it the Chicago & Alton will run a Pullman sleeping car through from points on its lines to the City of Mexico, which sleeping car will be attached to the special train at St. Louis.

Detailed information regarding this excursion, sleeping car accommodations, rates of fare, etc., can be had of N. H. Coole, Ticket Agent, Chicago & Alton Railroad Dwight. James Charlton, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Chicago, Illinois.

Lands for Sale.
The best farm country in the world for either large or small farms, gardens, fruits, orchards, dairying, raising stock or sheep.
