A Wasp's Sting.

What some wag terms "the business end of a wasp" stings with scarcely more acuteness than the acid eructations of gas from the stomach to the gullet that are characterized as heartburn. Never was there a case of indigestion without this symptom. Both cause and effect are removable by the fine carminative tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which confers regularity and vigor upon a disordered and enfeebled stomach with certainty and dispatch. Besides checking the pranks of a rebellious stomach, the Bitters wakes up a dirmant liver, and causes the bowels to act like clockwork. An immense reputation has also been won by this professionally approved medicine as a means of eradicating and preventing malarial trouble, and counteracting a tendency to rheumatism and kidney complaints. Neuralgia and nervousness are also remedied by it.

VOTERS INSTRUCTED HOW TO CAST A BALLOT.

Any Man Eligible Can Run for Office—How Nominations Are to Be Made—Form of the Ballot—A Comprehensive Compilation of General Instructions.

A Secret Ballot.

Any man eligible can run for office who can secure a caucus nomination, or who will get up a nomination paper. In case of a State election, or an election in a district, or a division greater than a county, certificates of nomination must be filed with the Secretary of State at least thirty days before the election. Should it be a county or a township election the papers should be filed with the county clerk. For a village, town, or city election certificates of election and papers must be filed with the town clerk at least fifteen days before the election takes place.

No certificates of nomination will be valid except those of regularly called caucuses of political parties, which cast at least two per cent. of the entire vote cast in the town at the last general election.

All nomination papers must be signed by a number of qualified voters equal at least to five per cent. of the total vote cast at the last general election.

A nomination paper may be filed in behalf of one or two candidates only; a full ticket is not necessary.

All official ballots shall be printed and distributed at public expense, and no other ballots shall be used.

THE BALLOT.

As nearly as practicable the ballot shall be in the following form:

For Secretary of State.	NEWELL D. HUGES.	For Lieutenant Governor.	JOHN M. PALMER.	For Governor. DEMOCRATIC.
For Secretary of State.	L. N. PEARSON.	For Lieutenant Governor	LYMAN D. BAY.	For Governor. REPUBLICAN.
For Secretary of State.	JAMES B. HANNA	For Lieutenant Gove nor.	JOS. L. WHITLO E.	For Governor. PROHIBITION.

(And continuing in like manner as to all candidates to be voted for at such election.)

No name shall be put on the ballot except those regularly sent in by nomination papers or by certificates of caucus nominations.

A voter may subscribe to one nomination for each office to be filled, and no more."

The ticket of each caucus nomination will be printed in full on the ballots, and, when the ballot is composed entirely of petitioners' tickets, each group may be printed full, regardless of repetitions; but, when it contains one or more lists of regular caucus nominations no name appearing in such lists can be added to the ballot by petition for the same office.

A candidate can withdraw his name after nomination only at his only request in writing, acknowledged before a justice or notary, and filed the required number of days before election.

In case a candidate duly nominated dies, or declines a nomination; or when certificates of nomination or nominations papers "are held to be insufficient or inoperative;" the vacancy may be filled by another petition of the persons making the original nomination, adding to the petition a statement as to the fact of the death, resignation, insufficiency, etc.; or, by another caucus, or in accordance with provision made at the caucus, if the vacancy occur under a caucus nomination.

All objections to certificates of nomination or nomination papers after they have been filed must be made in writing; and all questions arising in relation to them shall be settled by the Board, and ths decision of a majority of the Board shall be final.

The various tickets must all be printed on one ballot, each with its appropriate title, to be supplied by the Clerk, if titles be wanting. Candidates will find it to their advantage to distinguish their ticket by some title or heading.

On the back of each ballot must be printed the words "official ballot," followed by the name of the town or precinct for which the ballot is prepared, the date of the election, and a fac simile, by means of an electrotype, of the signature of the Town Clerk or person whose duty it is to furnish the ballot.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS.

Give your name, and if required, your residence to the judges of the election.

If your name is on the register, you will be permitted to enter the inclosed space inside the guard-rail.

If your vote is not challenged, one of the judges, after indorsing his initials on the back thereof, will hand you a ballot.

If your name is not on the register, or your vote is challenged, you will not receive a ballot until you have established your right to vote, by affidavit or otherwise.

When you have received a ballot, retire at once alone into one of the voting bootlas, untold your ballot and prepare it for the ballot box by marking it thus, X.

You will find printed on the ballot, in columns, side by side, all the candidates of all the parties to be voted for at that election.

At the top of each column you will find the name of each party ticket or list of candidates, as "Republican," "Democratic," "Prohibition," etc.

Placed before, or to the left of each of these headings, you will notice a circle ½-inch in diameter. If you want to vote the "straight" party ticket, you will select the party of your choice and mark a cross in the circle, and do not mark your ballot at any other place nor in any other way. Your ballot, so marked, will be counted for all the candidates nominated by your party.

Opposite, to the left, of each name on the ballot, you will find a square. If you do not want to vote for all the candidates of any party "straight," place a cross in the square, opposite the name of the candidate of your choice, but do not mark a cross in the circle opposite the name of the party, and your ballot will be counted only for the names marked.

Or, you can write in the name of the candidate of your choice in the blank space on the ticket, making a cross opposite thereto.

If you want to vote for the candidates of a party, with some exceptions, make a cross X mark in the circle opposite the party name, and then make a cross X mark in the square, opposite the name of any candidate of another party, and your ballot will be counted for the candidates of the party marked, except as to the candidates marked under another party title, and these will be counted for the candidates marked.

In voting for Representatives to the General Assembly, and the number of votes to be given each candidate is printed on the ballot, place a cross X mark opposite the name, and the ballot will be counted as printed. If the number of votes to be given to each candidate is not printed on the ballot, and you mark a cross X opposite only one name, 3 votes will be counted for that candidate. If you mark a cross X opposite two names, 1½ votes will be counted for each candidate. If you mark three names with a cross X, each candidate will be given 1 vote. If the names only of the candidates, and not the number of votes to be given each, are printed on the ballot, and you want to divide your vote unequally, you must mark the names of the candidates with a cross X, and follow the name with the number of votes you intend to give each.

In voting on any proposition submitted to vote and printed on the ballot, make a cross X mark in the column opposite the heading "Yes" or "No," and your ballot will be counted "for" if you mark opposite "Yes," and "against" if you mark opposite "No."

Do not mark your ballot in any other way except as indicated above.

Before leaving the voting booth, fold your ballot so as to conceal the marks, and to expose the official indorsement on the back.

Leave the booth and hand your ballot to the judge in charge of the ballot-box, who, without marking it in any way, must deposit it in the box.

You will not be allowed to occupy a voting booth with another voter.

You will not be allowed to occupy a booth more than five minutes if others are waiting to vote.

You will not be allowed to remain in the inclosed space more than ten minutes, and you must quit it as soon as you have voted.

You will not be allowed to re-enter the inclosed space, after you have voted, during the election.

You will not be allowed to take a ballot from the polling place before the close of the election.

You will not be allowed to vote any ballot except the one you receive from the judges.

If you spoil a ballot in preparing it, you must return it and get another in the place of it.

If you will declare upon oath that you cannot read the English language, or that by reason of physical disability you are unable to mark your ballot, upon request you will be assisted by two officers, appointed for that purpose, of opposite political parties. These officers will mark your ballot as you direct.

Intoxication will not be regarded as physical disability, and if you are intoxicated you will receive no assistance in marking your ballot.

The polls will open at 7 o'clock in the morning and close at 5 o'clock in the evening, except in cities having a Board of Election Commissioners, where they open at 6 o'clock in the morning and close at 4 o'clock in the evening. Between these hours you are entitled to absent yourself from your place of employment for the period of two hours for the purpose of voting. You will not be liable to any penalty for your absence, nor shall any deduction be made from your wages or salary on that account; but you must ask for leave of absence before the day of election, and your employer may specify the hours during which you may be absent.

Ready.

During the rebellion in Chili, one young girl had the chance of distinguishing herself in a moment of danger, and hesitated not a moment in embracing it. This was the daughter of Don Claudio Vicuna, and her father thus described the story of her heroism to the author of "Dark Days in Chili":

One evening at six o'clock, during my absence, my daughter was writing some letters for me at a table. Suddenly she heard a crash of broken glass, followed by a loud explosion at the street end of the room, and there had been so much bomb work of late that instinctively she guessed what had happened.

Before she could collect herself sufficiently to rush for the door, a second bomb was hurled in, and rolled almost to her feet, providentially without exploding. This she picked up, and threw from the other window into the court below; then, seeing that some brown paper was smoldering in a half-open box of rifle cartridges, she quickly dashed a large jug of water over it.

By this time the servants had rushed in, and succeeded in extinguishing the fire which had caught the curtains and furniture.

But my brave girl, remembering that I had gone out unarmed, took my revolver and started out alone to meet me on my way home, and it was not until I had been provided with the weapon that she told me what had happened.

IN a world where human beings are born at the rate of one a second or oftener, it is not astonishing that a child makes its appearance now and then who grows up to the stature of manhood, becomes a judge at a polling place, and is capable of insulting women who ask to be registered as voters. But it seems tough that in the distribution of such men over the face of the earth more than one of them should have fallen to the lot of Chicago.

Cold Wave Coming.

The weather reports from all extreme stations announce the early advent of severe cold waves which will, for a protracted period, give our region a taste of the frigid zone.

This is not unusual in this latitude and at this time of the year. In anticipation of this fact, thousands of people are completing arrangements to spend the winter in the South. To these persons, the question of choosing a route is of great moment.

Of all South bound roads the Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railroad offers the best advantages to the traveler. It is the shortest line from Chicago to Florida and Gulf Coast resorts. Its trains reach destination six hours in advance of any other line. It has perfect passenger service. Its equipment is unsurpassed.

Its popular fast train, the "Chicago & Nashville Limited," connects with all through trains from the West and Northwest, is vestibuled from end to end, is heated by steam and lighted by gas, is composed of Pullman sleepers, Pullman ladies' and day coaches, and superb dining car, dispensing a cuisine the better of which is not found in America.

The "Chicago and Nashville Limited" leaves Dearborn Station, Chicago, at 4 p. m. every day in the year, running through without change to Nashville, Tenn., where it makes sure connections with the fast trains of the L. and N. R. R. for Jacksonville, Fla., St. Augustine, Pensacola, New Orleans, and all points in Florida or on the Gulf Coast.

For full information, time tables, illustrated guide books, maps, etc., apply to, or address any agent of connecting lines, Charles W. Humphrey, Northern Passenger Agent, 170 East Third street, St. Paul, Minn., City Ticket Office 201 Clark street, Chicago, or Charles L. Stone, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, room 415, First National Bank Building, Chicago.

Friends of Sir Walter Scott.

By the death of Mrs. Carruthers, of Inverness, there has passed away one of the last of those intimately connected with the family and household of Sir Walter Scott. Mrs. Carruthers was the youngest daughter of the great novelist's faithful friend and amanuensis, Wm. Laidlaw, of Kaeside, Abbottsford, and author of "Lucy's Flittin'." The deceased lady's husband, Mr. Robert Carruthers, the younger son, was a son of the well-known editor and biographer of Pope, who was also proprietor and editor of the Inverness Courier for nearly half a century. There still survives another daughter of William Laidlaw, who resides at Inverness, and has in her possession the desk in which the "Waverley" manuscript was found, and which was given to her father by Sir Walter Scott.

Her First Pair.

She knew it all, says the Detroit Free Press. Of course she did. She was about that age when they always do. She was pert and pretty, but she didn't wear suspenders. However, she knew she ought to. That's why she sailed into the store so grandly. The poor, innocent, ignorant clerk was utterly overcome by her tremendous superiority. He simply did not know anything except how terribly inferior he was to this prodigy of super-excellence.

"Have you suspenders here?" she said with an air of if-you-haven't-you'd-better-have.

The clerk could only nod in affirmative.

"Well," she continued, "I want a set." Then the clerk busted wide open.

To the Copper Country

Is but little more than a night's ride in the direction of the North Star. Solid trains of coaches and buffet sleeping cars leave Chicago each night at 8:00 (from C., M. & St. P. Ry. depot), via the Milwaukee & Northern R. R.—the North Star route—arriving at Champion, Mich., at 11:50 a. m.; Marquette 10:25 a. m.; Houghton 11:30 a. m.; Hancock 12:05 p. m.; and Ontonagon 9:10 p. m. This is the shortest, best, and quickest route to all important points on the Upper Peninsula of Michigan. Try it. Breakfast served on train en route. Berths may be reserved in sleeping car one week in advance at City Ticket Office, 237 Clark street, Chicago.

Another Fly Banisher.

It is not generally known that placing certain herbs in a room will banish flies from it. Sweet clover, for instance, which is not difficult to obtain, as it is found thriving luxuriantly on almost every country roadside, will put flies to rout. The sweet, pungent odor it exhales is quite unobjectionable, but is still abhorred by flies.

WITH Ely's Cream Balm a child can be treated without pain and with perfect safety. Try the remedy, it cures Catarrh. My son has been afflicted with nasal catarrh since quite young. I was induced to try Ely's Cream Balm, and before he had used one bottle that disagreeable catarrhal smell had all left him. He appears as well as a boy can be. It is the best catarrh remedy in the market.—J. C. Olmstead, Arcola, Ill.

ONE of my children had a very bad discharge from her nose. Two physicians prescribed, but without benefit. We tried Ely's Cream Balm, and, much to our surprise, there was a marked improvement. We continued using the Balm, and in a short time the discharge was cured.—O. A. Cary, Corning, N. Y.

Mis-for-Tune.

She was bemoaning her fate and lamenting that all her luck was bad luck!

"No, but it isn't," argued her more hopeful companion.

"Yes, it is, too," she insisted. "Misfortune is mine at every turn and misfortune follows me everywhere."

"That's only because you think so. Did it ever occur to you, my dear, that misfortune is two-thirds fortune?"

It hadn't, but when she saw the point of the gag she laughed, and after that she made her philosophy out of it and felt two-thirds happier ever after.

Great mental agony is endured by parents who see their children suffering from diseases caused by impure blood, and for which there seems no cure. South America.

Germany is looking towards South America in order to find a new channel for her trade. This is the way commerce adjusts itself. It is constantly seeking new avenues for its products. The old ways are left for capital, the new ways are open to energy and enterprise. The chief requisite for these attempts to find new channels for trade is good health. The man who is sick lacks nervous force. He shrinks from the effort and is unable to make headway against obstacles. Many people suffer from indigestion to such an extent that they are incapacitated half of the time from work, and they suffer in secret without the world knowing the cause. This making a martyr of one's self is unnecessary. If they will get a box of the LAXATIVE GUM DROPS, and take them regularly, they will have no trouble. These Gum Drops are a mild and gentle laxative, pleasant and agreeable. They act upon the stomach and bowels with certainty and without causing griping. They are not a strong purgative and they are perfectly safe, but they will have the desired result if their use is persevered in. Get them of any dealer. The small box costs 10c; the large costs 25c.
