

CLARK CITY.
Ed. Doglos was on our streets Tuesday.
Geo. West was in Braceville Thursday.
This is the month for the three weeks pay.
The weather is getting cold for Florida people here.
W. H. Dunn made a business trip to Kankakee this week.
Miss Era Fredricks returned home from Cabery Saturday.
Geo. Shultz and Cressy Glass took in the hop in Essex Friday.
Miss Mary Barton and sister, Lula, were in our burg Saturday.
Andrew Adams and Lizzie Morgan took in the dance at Coal City.
Joe Cullen and wife attended the republican rally in Kankakee Monday.
O. P. Livingston left for Bonfield where he expects to work for some time.
The Braidwood Thistles are going to have a game of foot ball with our first eleven Sunday.
A little stranger called on Frank McDole halloween. It is a girl and she has come to stay.
Polace Eatore has leased the saloon of Marteen Carnele while the latter is doctoring for his eyes.
The six year old son of August Martinette died of diphtheria on Thursday. The deceased was buried in the Braidwood cemetery Saturday at 3 o'clock.
DIED—Mrs. Mary Jones, aged 60 years. Monday November 1st, after suffering for many months, she turned for the better, when on last Thursday she was taken suddenly ill and remained in a serious condition until Tuesday when death came to her relief. She leaves three sons all of whom are under 19 years of age. The remains were buried in the Braidwood cemetery Thursday at one o'clock.
One of the most pleasant events of the week was the wedding of Mr. Clem Shimmions to Miss Vivian Dunn Wednesday Nov. 2d. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents and was well attended by friends and relatives. Rev. Parron, of Gardner, officiated. Many useful presents were received by the young couple. We wish them a long life of happiness and prosperity. The following is the list of presents received:

Bedsprad, pillows and a pair of blankets by bride's parents; hanging lamp, Mr. and Mrs. Al-mater; pickle castor, Cressy Glass; pair of lace curtains, Lilla Brownsey; wash bowl and pitcher, Fred Olson; parlor lamp, J. D. Cokley and Miss Emma Reed; water set and tray, Miss Josie Hamilton; silver butter knife, Miss Maria Raferty; silver sugar shell, Miss Nellie Scroggins; one-half dozen tea spoons, James Savage; parlor lamp, Geo. Shultz; clock, Mr. and Mrs. Allison; silver butter knife, Miss Maggie Jenkins; set of knives and forks, Geo. Barton; tea spoons, Robert Kervin; parlor lamp, Chas Emery; one dozen linen napkins and table cloth, Mr. and Mrs. Glass; glass tea set, Miss Anna Hazleman; china tea pot, George Coundley; five dollars in gold, Ely Covey, broom, Elza Dunn; clothes wringer, M. G. Bates; fancy flat irons; Gertie Shimmions; clock, Mr. and Mrs. T. Shimmions; one-half dozen tea cups, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Shimmions; bed quilt pillow cases, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shimmions; set china plates, Elza Dunn and wife; unholstered chair, Nellie Shimmions; sauce dish, Mrs. Brownsey; pillows, Willie Dunn; cake stand, Clyde Dunn; book, entitled "Character Sketches," Miss Schofield.
CENTRAL CITY.
Mrs. Hannah Perry and daughter, of Carbon Hill, visited in our city Saturday.
Mrs. Samuel Williams, of La Salle, was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robsan Barron, at this writing.
A stranger arrived at the home of Anton Wassall the other day and applied for board and lodging. Mother and child are doing well.
The plurality and majority of votes cast at Mazonia at the recent national election were a tie of one vote as per official count "Ta ra ra boom de ay."
Report had it that our friend Edward Hardy had a sore foot at the time of this writing, caused by the effects of a sprain received while in Braceville several nights ago. As he did not mention it in his contributions to the TRIBUNE we are at a loss to verify it.

Ben Scott, late saloonist in our city, has moved his fixtures to Coal City where he will hold forth in the future, for a time at least. His family and household goods will follow later.
Two campaign meetings were held in town last Monday evening. The democrats held forth in Malcolm's hall with the Hon. William Mooney, of Braidwood, as speaker and William Grange as chairman. The republicans held forth in the opera house where Judge Jordan, of Morris, and J. C. Quinn, of Peoria, were expected to speak, but not putting in appearance D. R. Anderson and N. McBride, of Morris and a Mr. Young addressed the meeting. Both factions had a good turnout.
Married, in Morris Saturday November 5th, Miss Lillian Brooks, of our city, to William Spires, of Braceville. Upon their return from Morris the couple gave a reception in the evening at the residence of the bride's father, Adam Brooks, where a goodly number of friends of the bride and groom assembled and enjoyed themselves until midnight. The TRIBUNE man was in Braidwood in the TRIBUNE's interests. On reaching Central City was too late for his supper, but was well remembered with cake and wine. The contracting parties are from the best of our young people and while the TRIBUNE extends them its best of congratulation, it wishes them a long and happy life, health, wealth and prosperity.

If Not, Why not?
All annual subscribers to either the Saturday Blade or the Chicago Ledger W. D. Boyce's Big Weeklies, published at 113, 115 and 117 Fifth Avenue, Chicago receive certificates entitling them to feed, assistance in securing suitable stopping places in Chicago during the World's Fair, at whatever price they desire to pay. Are you a subscriber to either of these papers? If not, why not? Many people were victimized during Dedication Week with poor rooms at high prices, and many more will be in the same situation next year unless they receive competent assistance in the matter. This is what the "W. D. Boyce Bureau of World's Fair Information" will give you, and without one cent of cost for the service. Some trustworthy person will be sent with each certificate holder to the rooms selected, to see that they are comfortably and pleasantly located. The subscription price for either paper is $2.00 per year.

County Superintendent's Notice.
Examinations for second grade certificates will be held in my office on the third Friday and Saturday of each month except July. The candidate must pass a thorough examination in the structure and use of words, reading, penmanship, arithmetic, grammar, geography, history, physiology, Page's Theory and Practice and school law in so far as it refers to teachers, pupils and directors, and must also show a satisfactory knowledge of the course of study for this county.
For a first grade certificate, the candidate must be qualified in all that is required for the second grade and in addition must pass an elementary examination in the philosophy, zoology and botany.
Estimated in per cent the required average for the second grade will be so with a minimum of 70; for the first grade so with a minimum of 75.
Satisfactory evidence of a knowledge of methods of work will be required before a second grade certificate is issued, and conclusive evidence of the work on success in the work outlined for this county must be given, before a second certificate of any grade will be granted. Also of one dollar will be charged for each examination.
