

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Picked up at the Club Rooms and Various Parts of the City.

Fred Bowman, of Peoria, a graduate of last August, visited the club last Sunday.

E. Van Arman, of St. Paul, Minn., made his farewell address to the club Monday.

Colonel Nate A. Reed, Jr., editor of the Banner of Gold, Chicago, was a Dwight visitor election day.

Mrs. Hattie Allen enjoyed a very pleasant visit with friends in Chicago last week. She is the agent in Dwight for the Golden News.

W. C. Parker, of Bloomington, finished his treatment here and returned home Wednesday. He will be greatly missed by all of the club players.

Harry L. Fielder came down from Chicago Sunday to visit the club—and some one else. Dwight possesses many charms for the ex-patients besides the club attractions.

A prize of a Keeley League badge is to be given by the club to the member who brings in the greatest number of new members to the club between Thursday last and next Thursday.

Ex-President Ed. W. Wood, of Chicago, was a club visitor Monday and made the boys one of his old-time talks. Everyone was pleased to see him whether they knew him or not.

Ex-President Wm. Halleck Jones, of Edwardsville, Ill., one of the best attorneys in his part of the state, finished his treatment here Wednesday and departed Thursday for home.

Since a stove has been put up in Secretary Dereen's front room at the club house his rooms are very comfortable. A stove has also been placed in the writing room up stairs for the convenience of the writers.

Mr. J. H. Kelly, of DeWitt, Iowa departed for his home Friday evening after a stay of four weeks under Dr. Blaine's watchful eye. Mr. Kelly will be missed by his many friends, especially the fair six, with whom he was very popular. Mr. Wikes loses a star boarder. Au revoir.

While in Chicago the writer had the pleasure of meeting the genial Fred P. Morrill, who was in line with him here in the class of November, 1891, and whom many of the citizens of Dwight will recall with pleasure. Mr. Morrill is O. K. and is a firm believer in the efficacy of the Leslie E. Keeley treatment. Mr. Morrill is with the Surban Mineral Spring company at 157 Wabash avenue, where he is doing well. He expects to visit Dwight in the near future.

S. C. Clark, city editor of the Evening Wisconsin, Milwaukee, will be in Dwight over Sunday and will address the club at the song service Sunday morning. It will be the first anniversary of Mr. Clark's cure at Dwight and he desires to speak to the club and give them some views that he thinks will be quite a benefit to all who are in the line for treatment. Mr. Clark is the author of a book on Dwight and the Keeley treatment, a copy of which is presented to every graduate when he finishes his treatment. Mr. Clark will arrive from Chicago on the evening train Saturday and it is to be hoped that the club room will be crowded at the meeting Sunday morning.

J. W. Connerton, or "Honest John," as he is familiarly called by his numerous friends and admirers in Chicago has certainly been the life of the club ever since his advent in Dwight. He is brimful of fun and makes it a constant study to amuse and entertain the patients in every possible way. Every man here is his friend and when he leaves Dwight he will be sadly missed by everyone, and all will unite with the writer in wishing him unbounded success in life, for a more popular man never took the treatment than "Honest John" and it will be a pleasure to every patient now here when he has left Dwight and returned home to recall to mind the pleasant features of J. W. Connerton.

The election for club officers Thursday morning was an exciting one. J. W. Connerton, C. C. Dudley and Dr. Alonzo Givens were placed in nomination for the office of president. After the ballot had been taken and counted it was found that J. W. Connerton had received the highest number of votes cast and he was duly declared elected president of the Dwight Keeley League for the ensuing week. C. C. Dudley was elected vice-president and Henry La Pla, of Joliet, was appointed sergeant at arms by President Connerton. The election of the above named officers gives universal satisfaction to the members of the League and a prosperous week with many new accessions to membership of the club is confidently predicted.

During the past week interesting letters full of encouragement have been received and read from the following ex-patients: Messrs. J. M. Fitzpatrick and D. M. McCaul, of Chicago; John Burroughs, of Grafton, North Dakota; James P. Titsworth, Mt. Vernon, Ill.; J. R. Woodruff, Quincy, Ill., and C. W. Lindner, South Chicago. Miss Essie Elliott, of Toronto, Canada, who was recently made an honorary member of Dwight Keeley League No. 1 and presented with the club badge, wrote a very nice letter of thanks that was read to the club by Secretary Dereen. Miss Elliott appreciates very highly the honors that have been bestowed upon her by the members of the Dwight club.

The meetings for the past week, under the administration of President W. C. Davis and Vice-President J. W. Connerton, were unusually interesting, a musical and literary program being one of the features of the exercises each morning. Among those taking part were Mr. Aldrich, an excellent solo violinist. Mr. Grubb, of St. Louis, favored the members with an interesting reading from Mark Twain, entitled "The Tramp Abroad." Chas. F. Sinclair, M. D., of Chicago, read an original poem, entitled "John Barleycorn," which was received with great applause. All in all the meetings have been full of interest to everyone during the past week and the attendance has been unusually large each morning.

While in Chicago Tuesday the STAR AND HERALD club reporter called on Ex-President T. Alfred Quaila at the office of the Credit Review in the Pontiac Building, 358 Dearborn street. Mr. Quaila was full of business but was pleased to drop it for a time and chat about Dwight and the numerous friends made by him during his sojourn here. Four of the men employed on the Credit Review have taken the treatment here and as a matter of course everyone in the office is an enthusiastic admirer of Dr. Keeley and a firm believer in his most wonderful cure. The employees of the Credit Review, especially the talented Miss Smith, were highly amused by reading the account in the STAR AND HERALD of C. C. Dudley, the wonderful drum soloist, inasmuch as they were not aware that they had in their midst a star of such magnitude.

Bound to Vote Anyway.

The members of Dwight Keeley League No. 1 had an immense amount of fun out of the mock election held at the club room Tuesday afternoon. Everything was carried out just the same as if the election had been for blood. Printed ballots bearing the names of the candidates for president and vice-president on the democrat and republican tickets were used. Judges and clerks were appointed and everyone who voted was required to register in advance at Harry Lawrence's. J. W. Connerton officiated as chairman of the election board, and J. McAndrews, Lewis Lyons, Mr. Fisher and C. C. Dudley (not blocks of five) judges and clerks. The total number of votes polled was 167, of which Cleveland and Stevenson received 97 and Harrison and Reid 70. Several arrests were made for illegal voting during the day by Marshal La Pla, of Joliet, who fulfilled the trying duties of his office with great credit to himself. It is needless to say that no ill feelings were caused by anything that occurred during the day.

The Entertainment.

Another very pleasant entertainment was given at the club house Wednesday evening by the members of the Keeley League and that everyone who attended it was pleased at the excellent manner in which the program was rendered goes without saying. Although several of the performers were afflicted with severe colds yet all acquitted themselves creditably and every number was applauded by the very appreciative audience and several of the performers were honored with encores. The entertainment concluded with a very laughable sketch, entitled "How to Run a Hotel in Dwight," W. C. Davis taking the character of landlord and J. W. Connerton officiating as clerk and wearing the regular hotel diamonds. Other characters were taken by the company. The farce was a very amusing one and caused a great deal of amusement to the audience by the many local hits made. The entire program given is as follows:

- FIRST PART. Overture... Orchestra. Vocal Solo, "My Old Kentucky Home"... Dr. Givens. Solo, "The Tramp"... Mr. Charleson. Vocal Selection... Mr. Morse and Company. Orchestral selection... Orchestra. SECOND PART. Musical Melange... Orchestra. Guitar, Banjo and harp... Robert and Platte. Vocal Selection... Morse and Platte. Vocal Solo, "The Hour"... Dr. Givens. Musical... Dr. Givens. Finale, "How to Run a Hotel in Dwight"... Characters by the entire Company.

A $3 Magazine for $1.

The Postmaster-General writes to the editor of Arthur's New Home Magazine of Philadelphia: "As your magazine gets thicker it gets brighter. I congratulate you on doing what no one else has done in putting out two copies at the price others charge for one—it is half the price of other and no better magazines."

This was written when the price was $1.50, but the circulation has grown so large that we can afford to make it $1 and have made it larger and better at the same time.

It has long been said that it was "the best magazine in the English language for the money," and it is better to-day than ever.

Every subscriber gets $3 worth of McCalls' Glove Fitting Patterns free.

Full particulars and sample copy (including a pattern order worth 25 cents sent free for five two-cent stamps).
