It will be the handsomest sheet ever published in Livingston county. Get your ads ready.

Mrs. R. C. Adams returned home from a pleasant visit east among relatives and friends, Sunday night. Miss Cora Adams returned Wednesday evening, also from the east. Call at the coal office of J. A. Webster, he has received a car load of Orleans County (New York state) apples, No. 1 Baldwins and Greenings. Will be sold at the lowest market price. The Farmers' Guide, semi monthly forty columns, and this paper one whole year for $1.50 paid in advance. To new or old subscribers. Call at this office and see a copy of the Guide. The liars association met in Dwight the other night and the member that carried off the prize for the biggest liar was the one that said, that he had heard of a republican majority some where. Mr. J. S. White, of Toronto, Canada, a highly recommended veterinary surgeon, has located in Dwight, and will make his headquarters for the present at Thomas Reel's livery and feed stable. Those of our readers who wish papers printed in other languages besides English, would do well to call on us. We can supply them any periodical published in any country or in any language. There will be a dance at Kepplinger's hall next Tuesday evening, the 23d. It is the intention of the manager, Mr. Owen, to give away a fine ladies pony to one of those that purchase tickets to the dance. The girls who are to drill with gun are requested to meet from 9:30 to 10:30 this (Saturday) morning, and from 3 to 4:30 this afternoon at the Congregational church. The guns are here and will be given out this morning. J. C. Lewis always has a fine display of everything, pertaining to a first class jewelry, book, stationery and music store, but from now on during the holidays his store will be a grand sight. Call and see the display. Judge A. T. Morrison, of Jacksonville, a graduate of last January, a genial and pleasant gentleman, called at this office Friday. He is traveling auditor of a railroad company and meets hundreds of graduates throughout the country. The Y's are going to hold a fair some time in December. The young ladies are going to make all manner of Christmas presents for sale cheap. Anyone not having time to make Christmas presents should remember and call on the Y's. The date will be announced soon. James Kelagher was out with a petition for postmaster of Dwight early last Saturday morning, and before night he had a long string of names. Jim is a hustler. Understand there are several others after the same thing, and the contest is liable to be interesting. Don't crowd, gentlemen. Last Friday evening occurred a very pleasant surprise. About 7 o'clock twenty little boys and girls gathered at the home of Bessie Lockhart, and she was indeed surprised. The evening was spent in children's play until half past eight o'clock, when they were served with a fine lunch, then went their way homeward all having enjoyed the evening pleasantly. The newly elected officers of Epworth League are as follows: President, W. F. Wilson, 1st vice-president, Mr. Natfziger, 2d, Miss Thompson, 3d, Miss Nellie McWilliams, 4th, Mrs. D. B. Stevens, 5th, Miss Lillie Conrad, 6th, J. P. McWilliams. The league is now in splendid working order, and will commence to give some of their popular entertainments soon. Mr. J. A. McCaully, the jeweler, who recently moved his stock into the old bank building, was compelled to go to St. Joseph's hospital, Bloomington, on Saturday to be treated for the rheumatism. He writes that he is improving and hopes to be able to return to Dwight in a short time and take charge of his business again. He has recently added quite largely to his stock, and on his return will offer it for sale at about Chicago wholesale jewelers prices. Mrs. Elizabeth Strawn, mother of Mrs. Judge Wallace, of this city, died at her home in Ottawa on Thursday morning. Judge Wallace and a daughter went over there the same day. Mrs. Wallace was with her mother at the time of her death. Mrs. Strawn was about seventy-five year of age and had been in poor health the past year. She took a severe cold not long since which developed into pneumonia and hastened her death.—Pontiac Free Trader and Observer. This month the new money postal order will go into use. The system has been so simplified that there is little or no complication, and at the same time is a good way to send money. A sheet calling for amounts from one-cent to $3 has been prepared which on payment of one cent, will be torn off about the same as an express order. There will be no writing on it of any sort by the postmaster, the sender endorsing the check or draft. The government guarantees its safe transportation. It is thought that the new system will be used extensively by the senders of small amounts. The reading and amusement rooms recently opened by Mr. E. A. Rowley over Kern Bros. store, has proved a grand success and is a popular resort. Every day and evening the pleasant rooms are occupied by a large number of people seeking innocent amusement. There are dominoes, checkers, cribbage and other games. Mr. Rowley always has a fine stock of cigars on hand, the latest newspapers, and his rooms are a pleasant place to pass away the time—far better than being about the streets. The coin machines have proven quite popular. Everybody is invited to call and inspect the new reading rooms.

Auction Sales. Al Haynes will sell at public auction at his home in Round Grove, four miles east and one mile south of Dwight, on Tuesday, Nov. 29, horses, cattle, hogs, farming utensils, etc. This is a good opportunity to stock up. Jas. Ferguson will sell on the Brewster farm, three miles west of Campus Wednesday, Nov. 23, horses, cows, shoats, hay and farming implements. This is another good opportunity to buy stock, etc.

Holiday Number. It is the intention of the proprietors of the STAR AND HERALD to publish a fine holiday number about the middle of December. It will be printed on tinted paper and will be composed of at least twelve pages and maybe sixteen, and the edition will number at least 5000 copies. This will prove a perfect medium for holiday announcements and a splendid advertisement for our beautiful little city. During the past year the STAR AND HERALD has issued several large editions which have added materially to the prosperity of Dwight, or at least have advertised our city all over the United States. The number we shall issue in December will eclipse them all, and hundreds of copies will be sent in every direction. There should not be a business house in Dwight not represented in the paper, as it will practically be a directory to the business interests. Our canvasser, Dick Thornton will call on every business man in Dwight and we hope you will all be prepared to give him copy for a write-up or display advertisement.

School Notes. The teachers are taking half holidays to visit and inspect the work in the other departments. They find this method of co-operation very helpful to one another. Mrs. Fisk spent two days visiting schools at Foreston and Pontiac. Miss Painter and Mrs. Gould visited the East Side last week and Miss Hule told her turn last Wednesday. The high school has enrolled one more pupil so far this year than has ever been enrolled in one year in its history. The number now is sixty-four. It is very much desired by the teachers in all the grades, that parents and friends of the children spend a half-day in the school and see what is being accomplished, especially in the high school. A great deal of new apparatus was purchased at the close of last year which makes the work in the "one day" studies very interesting and attractive as well as profitable. The young ladies of the high school are all very anxious for the five dollars to be given to the one who reads, recites, some business house at the carnival to be given soon for the benefit of the high school library. The entertainment will be one of very amusing scenes. Each business house dresses the girl in the most appropriate costume to advertise their business. No doubt the young ladies, about thirty in number, will be very attractively attired. In addition to this part of the entertainment will be music and recitations by the best talent in Dwight—male and female quartets, duets, solos, instrumental music, recitations by high school pupils, etc. Everybody attending will receive a musical treat in addition to a "Jolly, good, hearty laugh." The date will be announced later.

Round Grove. Most of our farmers will finish husking this week. There was a surprise party at Lewis Pfeifferman's last Tuesday evening it being his birthday. Dancing and eating oysters were the order of the evening. School will commence in District No. 5 next Monday for the winter term. There is nothing left of Ben Thompson since the 8th of Nov. He has laughed himself all away. George Pfeifferman has moved from Campus to the farm of Philip Clover. Round Grove polled 217 votes the 8th and the voters understood how to put the cross in the circle in good shape, there being but few split tickets voted.

Campus. A light snow Friday gave us a gentle reminder that summer is no longer with us. Our new hardware store is being pushed right along and will soon be ready for stock. T. Feehery was in Chicago on business Monday and Tuesday. There have been more new houses built and old ones removed in Campus this fall than in any other year before. We hope yet to rival Keeley Town. Miss Maggie McGrath went to Odell this week to work at dress making. Mike Walsh was in Chicago on business Wednesday. Mrs. Robey Ross and sister, Mammie, were in town shopping Thursday. Mrs. Joe. Watts visited friends in Eminston last Sunday. The dance in Feehery's hall Friday night was a grand success. All had a pleasant time. Fred Ahern shipped a car load of hogs Wednesday night.

For Sale. A good Jersey cow for sale. Inquire of JOHN LEACH. Lost. A coach pup. Liberal reward for return of same to Austin's Meat Market. Attention Woodmen! There will be no regular meeting of the Dwight Camp No. 177, until Tuesday, Nov. 22, when every member is particularly requested to be present. C. V. BOWER, C. W. G. DUSTIN, V. C.

EDUCATIONAL COLUMN.

The Round Table Association of this county has re-organized and the programs will soon be out for a meeting to be held Dec. 2 and 3. The invitations this year will include all Superintendents, Assistants and Eight Grade teachers of this and adjoining counties. One of the topics of consideration will be Ways and Means in Relation to the World's Fair. It is probable that the two days institute will be held the middle of December. All teachers are requested to be ready to report on the Reading Circle in their vicinity as well as on the general conditions of the gradation and application of the manual. The series of township institutes for this winter were begun by meetings in Waldo and Pike on Nov. 3 and 4 respectively. Many directors were out at both places and many questions of interest to all were discussed. Schools were dismissed for the half day and all gathered at the center school house of the township. The interest manifested by all was pleasing to those having the meeting in charge. The following teachers were present from Waldo: LaJune Howard, Ida Parsons, Tille Mette, Kate Kennedy, Gertrude Michel, F. B. Bamber, D. N. Clandon, Jno. Grinbell, From Pike were V. E. Wade, Nellie Clooney, Junnie Hower, Cenia Bush, Kate Power, J. D. Murphy, Isabel Phillips. It is proposed to hold other meetings in these townships after the schools have been visited to commence the work of the different schools and see what needs to be done for them. Other townships will soon be notified of meetings to be held at some of which the graduating exercises of the pupils who received county diplomas this year, will occur.

About the middle of October, registers for recording the examination grades were sent to the treasurers of the various townships. They were to be distributed at once, and since there was no correct list of either teachers or directors in this office, it was thought that the surest way to reach all was through the treasurers. Though nearly a month has passed, teachers and directors are still complaining that the books did not reach them. It seems as if school officers might do promptly the little things on which the progress of our schools so much depend, without being urged all the time. Call on your treasurer if your book has not come to hand, unless the directors get their mail in Pontiac when it will be found at this office. Remember that all required examinations are provided for in the manual. If you choose to give other written reviews, do so, but you are not obliged to report them to us. At the close of the term make out your report to your successor carefully. Let us say for the twentieth time, do not try to force a pupil into even grade, if he does not properly belong there. If a boy can do fourth grade reading and geography and only third year language and arithmetic, put him in the classes where he can do the work and encourage him to even up his grades by extra work. Many pupils in the county are doing this and are proud of the degree of success that crowns their efforts already.

If you find a pupil who positively can not do the work in the grade he is in, take your report book and the child studies and go over and see his parents. Show them the grade and have the child read or recite in their presence. Of course it would be better if they would come to the school house but in nine cases out of ten they will not come if you ask them. Show them that it would be to your interest to have the boy show progress in his studies and that it is only because you feel that it is best for him that you wish to put him back in the grade. Sometimes you can manage by having him recite with both grades, till the work is made up. HENRY A. FOSTER, Co. Supt.
