An interesting letter was read by the secretary Thursday, from Ex-President Will C. Davis of Chicago.

Jack C. Fisher, of Columbus, Ohio, who was very popular among the club members and patients, returned home Monday.

Ben Mason, the genial secretary of the Bloomington Keeley League, brought in a patient Monday and returned home on the "hummer."

Mrs. Eldredge, of Chicago, made the club a short address at the song service Sunday morning that was well received and applauded at its conclusion.

A. F. White, of Marion, Ill., will organize at once a Keeley League with sixteen charter members. Mr. White graduated in Dwight Nov. 14, 1891.

C. H. Jackson with the Troy, Mo., Free Press, an old graduate, revisited familiar scenes in Dwight this week returning home on the midnight train Tuesday.

D. J. Lawrie, of Milwaukee, Wis., a prominent member of the League while in Dwight, wrote an interesting letter to Secretary Dereen that was read to the club Monday.

Interesting and encouraging letters were read Saturday from ex-patients C. W. Dean, M. D., of Pittsburg, Penn., Chas. Pauli, of Joliet, and James W. Meiklejohn, of New London, Wis.

P. B. Greve completed his treatment Friday and returned to Chicago. Before leaving he was given a rising vote of thanks by the club for his services as pianist during his sojourn in Dwight.

Frank Grubb, of St. Louis, Mo., was elected vice-president of the club Monday to serve out the unexpired term of C. C. Dudley, of Boston, Mass., who finished his treatment and departed for Chicago Monday.

Ex-President Will C. Davis made an excellent farewell address to the club Saturday and returned to his home in Chicago. Mr. Davis made many friends among the patients who regretted to see him leave.

Blake E. Barrow, of Farmington, who graduated September 2d, arrived in Dwight Saturday with a patient. Mr. Barrow remained until Monday, visiting among friends whose acquaintance he made while he was a patient.

C. S. Clark, of the Evening Wisconsin, Milwaukee, did not address the club at the song service last Sunday morning as expected, but he wrote that he would be here Sunday November 20 instead, when he would be pleased to make them a talk.

The largest number of new members brought into the league during the week was by John H. Ruenzi, of Mexico, Mo., who is entitled to the club pin that was to be given to the member bringing in the largest number of new men during the week.

The Chicago limited was stopped here last Saturday afternoon to take on board Dr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Keeley who were bound for Cincinnati, Ohio, where Francis Murphy is conducting a series of temperance meetings under the auspices of the National Keeley League.

An excellent address was delivered to the club Tuesday morning by Colonel G. T. Thorne, of Clintonville, Wis., who had completed his treatment and was about to return home. At the conclusion of the Colonel's remarks he was tendered a rising vote of thanks by the league.

John D. Long, one of the best janitors that has ever been employed to take care of the club house, will finish his treatment and return to his home at M. Vernon, Ill., Sunday. Mr. Long made a friend of every frequenter of the club during his stay, and he will be greatly missed.

The Star and Herald office printed several thousand letter heads for the Bloomington Keeley League, No. 17, this week. Leagues throughout the country cannot do better in work or prices anywhere, and all jobs leaving this office are warranted to give entire satisfaction in every respect.

Dr. Will S. Mullins, of Henderson, Ky., arrived here Wednesday with the sheriff of his county, J. T. Hopkins. Dr. Mullins is a September '92 graduate and was an active member of the club while here as a patient. He made the club an eloquent address Wednesday morning before leaving for home. He expects to be in Louisville, Ky., where he will assist in the organization of a State Keeley League next Sunday.

At the meeting of the league Thursday morning, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing week. President, Dr. Alonzo Givenis, of New Orleans, La. Vice-president, Dr. Charles F. Sinclair, of Chicago. Both gentlemen made short addresses, thanking the members of the league for the honor, etc. The president appointed Ira Carpenter, of North Dakota, sergeant at arms.

President J. W. Connorton left for Chicago Wednesday afternoon having finished a four weeks' course of treatment. Prior to bidding the club farewell in a very humorous and characteristic speech in the morning he invested the vice-president, Mr. Frank Grubb, of St. Louis, with his badge of office. The remarks made by President Connorton were well received and loudly applauded, and his departure is regretted by every club member and patient now in Dwight, for he has been the life of the club during his four weeks sojourn here.

Harry Lawrence has had a force of carpenters, painters and paper hangers at work on the interior of the rooms occupied by him for several days and the interior has been so transformed that it is not recognizable anymore. He went to Chicago last week and purchased new counters, a large handsome showcase and a complete stock of gent's furnishing goods. An adjoining room has been fitted up and furnished comfortably for the benefit of the card players and smokers who desire to pass the time away in that manner.

Mr. Clark Will be There.

The following letter expresses itself: MILWAUKEE, WIS., Nov. 14, '92.

MESSES, ZIMMERMAN & DUSTIN, EDS. DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD.—DEAR SIRS:—I note with appreciation your kind reference to my expected and intended visit to Dwight on Sunday, and am sorry I was not on hand. A telegram from Dr. Keeley on Friday, however, told me he would not be at home until Saturday next, and as I wanted to see him I had to put off my visit one week. If nothing occurs to change my present plans I will surely be there next Saturday evening, and would be glad to be able to talk to the boys on Sunday next. I have experienced much in reference to the possibilities of a Keeley graduate and think I can present some things to the noble men now worshipping at the Keeley shrine of scientific sobriety that will dispel any fears any of them may have regarding the permanency of the cure. No man can have a reasonable excuse for falling again or for placing himself in jeopardy after leaving Dwight if he will take the proper stand and not try to conceal the fact of his having made the grandest effort of his life for escape from his thralldom.

Hoping to meet you both fraternally and otherwise on Sunday next, I am Yours respectfully,

C. S. CLARK.

P. S.—Will you kindly state in your next issue that I will be on hand Sunday—if my friend Charlton runs a train.

Notice.

All persons having any tools, barrows, horses, or anything else belonging to Contractor Jackson, of Joliet, are requested to leave them with, or notify Robt. Martin immediately.

Smokers Take Notice!

It makes no difference if Lewis did lose some cigars on the election of Algett, he still has the largest line of Key West and Domestic cigars at his book and stationary store.

Stray Notice.

A roan pony, blind in one eye, shed in front, came to my farm about ten days ago. Owner can call at my farm one and a half miles east of Dwight and pay charges and get pony. If not will be sold.

S. JOHNSON.

Must Settle.

Bills owing me while in the grocery business at the old stand must be settled before Dec. 1, 1892, or they will be left in the hands of a collector.
