 If it is absolutely necessary to raise the rates for water to make our present system pay, let the village board raise them, and the village treasury get the benefit of it. The people of the village will stand a raise where the money goes into the village treasury with less kicking than they would for it to go into J. A. Spencer's or any other private party's pocket.

Those of our readers who wish papers printed in other languages besides English, would do well to call on us. We can supply them any periodical published in any country or in any language.
 Rev. F. W. McMillen, of Chicago, secretary of the Sunday-school society, will spend Sunday in Dwight and speak morning and evening at Congregational church. Services at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
 The water works have cost between thirteen and fourteen thousand dollars and they belong to the people, and should not be sold or transferred to anyone without every cent of that money paid back to them.
 Remember you can save 25 cents by paying your subscription in advance. If not paid within 30 days from expiration the price for the STAR AND HERALD will be $1.50 after Jan. 1, 1893. We wish all to understand it.
 Attention is called to the advertisement of John L. Simantel, for musical instruments. What would be nicer for a Christmas present than an organ or piano? Mr. Simantel will sell them as cheap as anyone and on terms to suit.

 "Man's religion," says Uncle Mose, shouldn't be worn like a cloak—all on de outside. It dorter be mo' like a porous plaster. De world may not see it, but de man knows it's dar, an' his family knows it's dar an' a doin' of him good."
 The people that claim that the Spencer water is better than the present city water say so against a $3000 analization by competent chemists. It cost the town $300 to find out which was the best water, and the best was chosen.
 Jos. Le Brandt, manager of "Is Marriage a Failure," at the opera house next Tuesday night, announces that all those not satisfied with the play after the first act, can call at the box office and get their money refunded. That's business.
 The edition of the STAR AND HERALD of December 17, will consist of 5,000 printed on tinted paper. There never was a better opportunity to advertise holiday goods. Be sure and give us or our agent your copy early. Commence to write now.
 Dwight may be well proud of a business house like J. C. Lewis', where the largest line of watches of all descriptions, diamond rings and studs of all sizes and prices and the largest, cheapest and best line of Christmas novelties to be found in Central Illinois.
 There is no place in this part of the state where the merchants deals fairer than they do in Dwight, but there is one thing the merchants should do and that is to let the people know what you have got. You can do that by advertising in the STAR AND HERALD.
 The regular house prices hereafter at the opera house will be 50, 35 and 25 cents. It should be understood by all that when "regular house prices" are mentioned the above is what is meant. Those prices are the ones for "Is Marriage a Failure," next Tuesday evening. Tickets on sale at Dr. Barr's.
 The military drill to be taken part in by sixteen young ladies, will be given in the opera house Friday evening Dec. 16th. It will be the prettiest home entertainment ever given in Dwight. The guns to be used are now in the possession of the girls and the drills are progressing finely.
 Tuesday, Dec. 6, at the opera house, will be given the laughable comedy "Is Marriage a Failure," by the Jas. Le Brandt comedy company. This company is an excellent one and the play is full of fun. No one should miss this opportunity to see a first-class play by a first-class company.
 The Schubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartette gave one of their concerts at the opera house on Saturday last to a crowded house. They gave a very pleasant entertainment in every particular. Mr. Purcell is a fine musician and the ladies are good singers. The whole programme is classic and refined and leaves a good impression in the minds of the listeners.—Blue Earth City Post, Minn., July 5, '92.
 The Chicago Herald published a list of the postmasters in Illinois that would have to take a walk the first year of the incoming administration, and published the date of commissions. The date of expiration of Col. Parson's commission is March 1, 1894, and he will probably serve his time out. The last two administrations have not removed Dwight's postmasters until the time was up, and "what's sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander."
 On the counters of J. E. Hutchinson will be found a most unique New York publication called The Doll's Dressmaker. This monthly magazine is a guide, companion and friend to little woman who love their dolls, and will serve to keep many little fingers out of mischief, and help mothers in their search for something new to occupy their little girls' mind. The low subscription price of $1 a year places it within the reach of all, and no more appropriate Christmas gift to a young girl could be selected.
