We are indebted to Geo. L. Taylor for some fine butter milk, and lots of it. George, you are always welcome.
It has been recently discovered where Moses was when the light went out. He was in the "swearing room".
J. C. Lewis, the jeweler, book and stationery dealer, is still doing business in Dwight, this state, Livingston Co.
A fine line of holiday goods at Guardian's. Call and see them before you buy, as you can save money by doing so.
Mr. and Mrs. Alpha Baker returned home last week from a three months' visit in Nebraska, Iowa and Minnesota.
Hon. William Mooney, of Braidwood who is quite well known in Dwight, is a candidate for penitentiary commissioner.
What do you think would please your lady friends more than a watch or chain for a Christmas present? Guardian has them at very low prices.

Bargains in watches, jewelry, etc., can be had at McCauley's, the jeweler, at old bank building. First come gets the choice.
There are so many Dwight people away and back from school and other vocations that we cannot keep track of them all.
You may talk of your merchant carnival, your stand pipe system and all of that, but Buck still sells the Round Oak heaters.
A little stock in a first-class building association is a good way to save money. Inquire of W. G. Dustin, STAR AND HERALD office.
Leave your laundry at the Club Store where it will receive immediate attention. All work done by Dwight Artesian Laundry.
You will find only one price a Guardian's, and that is the lowest for jewelry and silver-plated ware for the holiday trade.
Kern Bros' meat market always has the best of meats of all kinds. Choice cuts for Sunday. Goods delivered at all times promptly.
J. C. Lewis was so busy last Saturday that he forgot to get shaved and had to go to Chicago Sunday to get his whiskers amputated.
J. C. Lewis, the jeweler, book and stationery man, has about $15,000 worth of goods left. Come and see us please, goods are going fast.
The Odd Fellows dance next Friday night bids fair to be largely attended. The W. R. C. will give the supper at Sons of Veterans' Hall.
You will find courteous and accommodating clerks at J. C. Lewis', who will show you fine goods cheaper than can be bought elsewhere.

Parties who left watches, etc., with McCauley the jeweler, will find him at the old bank building, west of post-office. Bargains in watches, jewelry, etc., if you call soon.
Call at the coal office of J. A. Webster, he has received a car load of Orleans County (New York state), apples, No. 1 Baldwins and Greenings. Will be sold at the lowest market price.
When you call on merchants to trade after reading the advertisements, please state that you saw the ad. in this paper. Some merchants have the gall to say advertising does no good. See?
Call around at E. E. Fenn's Club Store and shoot for prizes. 1st prize, fine black mare; 2d prize, fine smoking jacket; 3d prize, fine meerschaum pipe. To be decided New Year's night.
Myrtle Martin and Addie Baker are home from school in Ohio to spend their holiday vacations. They are very much pleased with their school, but more pleased to come home for a visit.
Those of our readers who wish papers printed in other languages besides English, would do well to call on us. We can supply them any periodical published in any country or in any language.
Kern Bros' grocery department is always supplied with all descriptions of fresh goods. Give them a call. bread every day hereafter. Leave your order and it will be delivered promptly.
L. B. Rake and family will shortly move to Iowa, near the home of Mrs. Rake's father, Thos. Glass. And thus Dwight township loses a first-class family. We join their many friends in wishing them success.

Having returned after eight weeks in the hospital, McCauley, the jeweler, is running off his stock of watches, jewelry, etc., regardless of profits. Call at old bank building; it will pay you.
At the last regular meeting of the G. A. R. the following officers were elected: W. B. Brown, Commander; Martin Sebert, S. V.; G. A. Seymour, J. V.; M. McLean, Chap.; M. Rinehart, Surg.; Jas. Williams, Chap.
The latest and prettiest song now being sung on the stage, is entitled "The Indian Summer Time". It is by the popular author, Will L. Thompson, of East Liverpool, Ohio. The price is 40 cents. Send the author half price, and you will receive a copy.
To-night will be rendered the cantata Frost Queen and Santa Claus by the Methodist Sunday school. It will be presented upon the stage with costumes in colors. We are informed that this is something above the average entertainment. The admission price, is very low.
Congregational church is prettily decorated with evergreen designs. Saturday night the Sunday school will render of music and recitations and of course will have a Santa Claus. Sunday morning the sermon will be on Christmas topics, and in the evening most of the service will be of a musical character.
The gospel temperance meeting at the Congregational church Sunday evening was addressed by Mrs. H. M. Cole, of Dwight, state superintendent of the Y. W. C. T. U. From first to last she held the attention of her audience very closely. For plain logic and charming diction, Mrs. Cole has few equals on the temperance platform.—Ocell Gazette and Reporter.
At the last regular meeting of the W. R. C. the following officers were elected: Pres., Mrs. Hattie A. Fox; S. V., Mrs. Kate A. Dustin; J. V., Mrs. Ella Wheatley; Treas., Mrs. Julia Bower; Con., Susan Fox; Asst. Con., Emma Bulliam; Guard, Edna Brown; Asst. Guard, Maggie Lockhart; Chap., Alice Howe.
The malt case was continued until next Tuesday morning. The number of witnesses subpoenaed seems to be about equal, and there seems to be a vast difference of opinion, as to whether "malt" is "malt" or "beer," or whether "beer" is "beer" or "malt." There seems to be no end of competent judges on both sides. There should be no mistakes about this matter. If the village authorities know that the law is being violated they should certainly prosecute to the full extent of the law. There should be no let up on law breakers. We believe that something is being used in our midst that causes more hilarity than the water from our water works would under ordinary circumstances. What it is will probably be brought out on the trial.
Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles through the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and in a short time he was breathing quite easy. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. For sale by Dr. C. H. Barr, Dwight, Ill., and W. H. H. Augustine & Son, Braceville, Illinois. Dec 3-1m

Blind Boone.
The entertainment last Tuesday evening by the blind pianist was up to the usual standard of his performances. The attendance was very good, and all present heartily enjoyed the program.
Bullock-O'Connor.
Mr. O'Connor, one of our first-class artists, and Miss Grace Bullock, one of Dwight's fair daughters, were united in marriage in Chicago by Rev. Bolten, Dec. 17th. Their many friends wish their happiness. They will reside in the city.
Faust and Marguerite.
This thrilling drama will be at the opera house in Dwight, Dec. 30. By the circulars they send out we should say it was a very fine spectacular drama. Their paper contains such startling display lines as "The Electric Duel," "The Decent into Hell," "The Broken Scene, a vision of future hell realized," "Paradise," "Mephisto's Defeat," "Among the Golden Clouds." In another part appears the following:
"An untrammelled and gorgeous imagination only can conceive this indistinguishable, psychological excursion into the realms of romance. But realistic realism and the supernatural will be outdone in this grand production of Goethe's Spectacular Lie."
Remember the date, Dec. 30. Get your tickets at Dr. Barr's drug store.
Reward.
A reward of $10 will be given to anyone who will give information as to who the party is that poisoned my dog.
E. A. ROWLEY.
