

Entered at the Postoffice in Dwight, as second class mail matter.

A. R. ZIMMERMAN, Publishers. W. G. DUSTIN.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. BY MAIL—POSTAGE PAID. One year $1.25 Six months .75 Three months .50

Remember that the STAR AND HERALD clubs with every paper in the world of any importance, and we can get any paper for you cheaper than you can get it yourself.

DWIGHT LOCAL NEWS.

Swear off. Write it 1893. The Jingers Jan. 6. Vacation this week. Tokay grapes at Hagerty & Co's. School commences again Monday. Trimmed hats at Mrs. Fenn's for $1. Lard wanted at Sargent & Bassett's. Jno. Stack was in Pontiac Monday. We wish you all a Happy New Year. Fresh nuts at E. E. Fenn's Club Store. Sale bills printed promptly at this office. D. F. Chariton was in Chicago this week. Ralph Huey spent Christmas at home. Fresh bread every day at Sargent & Bassett's. Chas. Fenn is spending a few days at home. Candy by the bushel at Sargent & Bassett's. "Faust and Marguerite" was cancelled. Gold medal flour at Sargent & Bassett's. For a good meal go to the Pennsylvania House. Send your work to the Dwight Artesian Laundry. The best of accommodations at Pennsylvania House. Bananas 20 cents per dozen at Sargent & Bassett's. Will Hade, of Lacon, visited friends here Christmas. A fine line of canned goods at Sargent & Bassett's. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Oughton, Chicago visitors Tuesday. Constable Jenkins was in Odell on business Monday. A fine line of cigars and tobacco at Fenn's Club Store. C. C. Gilbert's lovely bread at Sargent & Bassett's; try it. Mr. W. J. Hagerty was a Chicago visitor Wednesday. B. A. Buck and family visited in Pontiac Christmas. Herman Hahn, of Chicago, spent the holidays in Dwight. For a good warm room go to the Pennsylvania House. Jim Cronin took Will Hagerty's place as yard master. Board by the day or week at the Pennsylvania House. Three pounds of raisins for 25 cents at Sargent & Bassett's. Mr. Murphy, Kern's baker, spent Christmas in Pontiac. Geo. Lower and Chet Gould spent the holidays at home. Miss McFee spent Christmas with her people in Chicago. Fresh home raised buckwheat flour at Sargent & Bassett's. The cold snap played havoc with the water pipes all over town. Hear the Jingers jingle at the opera house next Friday night. John Meyers, of Pontiac, spent Wednesday with friends. Miss Cora Baker spent the holidays with relatives in Chicago. Jake Peterson spent Christmas with his brother in Lincoln, Ill. Watch the old year out and the new year in—if you want to. Mr. and Mrs. Howlett will be at home in Dwight after Jan. 3rd. Dr. William Brown relieved Dr. Williams during his vacation. Military drill at Congregational church next Thursday night. Genuine Round Oak stoves are the best, for sale by B. A. Buck. Fresh home-made bread, 28 loaves in $2 dollar, at Geo. Kern's. Special sale of lamps and chinaware at Miller's Furniture Bazaar. Dr. Ripley Vickery spent the holidays with his family from his school duties. Gertie Ketcham visited friends in Chicago for the first of the week. As I market price of butter has advanced and so has the price of eggs, and is doing a little better, thinking of C. T. U. to her way of a disease. My That drunkenness is regarding the sole spoke at length Da

Eggs are scarce but Sargent & Bassett have them at 25 cents per dozen. Miss Bessie Ewing spent the holidays with relatives and friends in Chenoa. Subject of lecture at Congregational church Sunday night, "Charlemagne." Miss Mable Hill of Seneca spent the Christmas holidays with Mabel Huey. Charlie Adams and Clarence Rabe spent Sunday and Monday in Chicago. Mrs. Brown, of New York, has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Faulkner. Sixty different styles of pocket cutlery to choose from at Flagler & Potter's. Reserved seats for the Jingers, at Barr's drug store. They begin to go fast. A large line of silk and linen initial handkerchiefs; also mufflers, at Miller Bros. Misses Gussie and Faye Blaine visited friends in Chicago during the week. A good piano for sale cheap. Party going to move away. Inquire at this office. Dr. and Mrs. Ubellar visited friends in Chicago and Kankakee during the week. J. A. Webster has on hand a large assortment of sewer and connection pipes. Mrs. Koehler and children visited relatives and friends in Chicago this week. Five to 88 per week gets you the best board in Dwight, at the Pennsylvania House. The Columbus egg puzzle and all the new games at Baker's Furniture Bazaar. Prepare your preamble and good resolutions to commence at 12 o'clock tonight. Fred and Dick Mowbray spent Christmas with their parents in Streator. The thermometer was sixteen degrees below zero Monday morning at 4 o'clock. John Koehler is spending vacation at home from his study of medicine in Chicago. Charlie Simmons is home from medical college in Chicago for the holiday vacation. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Naffziger entertained relatives from Washington, Ill., this week. Finest line of pocket cutlery and shears to be found in the city at Flagler & Potter's. Don't forget to leave your order with J. A. Webster for your Braidwood coal and sewer pipe. Come and see our wagons and buggies, almost given away, at 216 East Mazon avenue. Miss Addie Brown is home for the holidays, from Chicago where she is attending school. We sell bran for less money than you can buy it at the mills, 216 East Mazon avenue. Dr. Ubellar, dentist, graduate of the Chicago College of Dental Surgery, in McWilliam's block. The colored jubilee singers are great people. Hear them at the opera house next Friday night. "The year of jubilee am a comin'," so are the jubilee singers, next Friday, Jan. 6, at opera house. For rent—A five room house with one half acre lot. Enquire of D. F. Chariton, at postoffice. J. A. Webster has just received a car of range and a car of chestnut hard coal. Give him a call. For meat or groceries Kern Bros. is the place to go. Everything delivered promptly—night or day. Mr. and Mrs. George Simmons and the little one spent Christmas with relatives and friends here. For Sale—160 acres land near Dixon, Ill.; 15 acres timber; will sell cheap. Inquire of H. T. McLane. J. A. Webster has constantly on hand the best grades of Pennsylvania coal, well screened. Try it. A large line of elegant pocket knives, your choice for 25 cents, at Flagler & Potter's. To see is to invest. Will Jones, of Gardner, nephew of S. T. Lockhart, had his hand smashed while braking on the railroad. Peter Gantzel visited friends here during the holidays. He is looking well and doing well in Chicago. Will Hagerty has resigned his position on the Alton road and will hereafter attend to his restaurant business. Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Bower attended a family reunion in La Salle Sunday and Monday, and enjoyed a grand time. A fine line of holiday goods at Guardian's. Call and see them before you buy, as you can save money by doing so. The all-around hustler for the STAR AND HERALD, Dick Thornton, did Christmas at his home in the county seat. Having returned after eight weeks in the hospital, McCauley, the jeweler, is running off his stock of watches, jewelry, etc., regardless of profits. Call at old bank building; it will pay

Col. Parsons received several shower baths at the fire, Thursday. When it comes to a fire the Colonel is "strictly in it." Bargains in watches, jewelry, etc., can be had at McCauley's, the jeweler, at old bank building. First come gets the choice. Miss Cora Eldridge who is a teacher in the public schools of St. Louis is spending her holiday vacation with home folks. C. Y. Trice came back from Kansas Monday night. He reports splendid sleighing and business good among the Jayhawkers. You may talk of your merchant carnival, your stand pipe system and all of that, but Buck still sells the Round Oak heaters. A little stock in a first-class building association is a good way to save money. Inquire of W. G. Dustin, STAR AND HERALD office. You will find only one price at Guardian's, and that is the lowest for jewelry and silver-plated ware for the holiday trade. Leave your laundry at the Club Store where it will receive immediate attention. All work done by Dwight Artesian Laundry. Mr. A. Kameleng and Marguerite Groll of Chicago and Miss Pauline Groll of Dwight spent the holidays with friends in Pontiac. Kern Bros' meat market always has the best of meats of all kinds. Choice cuts for Sunday. Goods delivered at all times promptly. It will cost you but 15 cents to witness the drill, and hear a good musical program at the Congregational church next Thursday night. Dr. Williams and wife spent the holidays with their many friends in Dwight. Dr. Williams has charge of the Keeley institute in Minneapolis. Supervisors Austin Gibbons, of Nevada, and Corbin, of Sunbury, were in Pontiac this week examining Excise Clerk Hoover's books. Miss Annie Dibbins, of Liverpool, Eng., niece of Mr. Geo. Burns, arrived here Saturday last, and will make her home in Dwight in the future. Mr. W. R. Wise has severed his engagement with W. J. Hagerty & Co. and will after a few days at home, go to Chicago his future home. Call at this office and get a copy of the Orange Judd Farmer. We give it with the STAR AND HERALD for $2 a year. Get a copy and look it over. The Jingers Colored Concert Co., Friday evening, Jan. 6. This entertainment is given under the auspices of the proposed Uniform Rank K. of P. There is no tariff on coal at the 3-I. W. H. Taylor is selling soft coal cheaper than any one, delivered promptly to any part of the city. Give him a call. The Jingers, the colored vocalists have the most enviable reputation of any concert company on the road. They will appear at the opera House Jan. 6. McCauley the Jeweler has returned and is open for business. Owing to sickness the jewelry must be sold, profit or no profit. At old bank building. We have knocked the bottom clean out of the flour trade. The best flour sold in Dwight at your own figures, at the Dwight Feed Mills, 216 East Mazon avenue. At Lexington every seat in the opera house for the Jinger Concert Company was sold a day ahead, and many holders sold out at an advance. Look out for the fun. Prof. Camp's cholera cure for poultry. Best in the market. Also hog cholera cure and condition powders for horses and cattle. For sale very cheap by Geo. Hart. Dr. and Mrs. Williams were in Dwight several days this and last week. They are residing in Minneapolis now, where the doctor is in charge of a Keeley Institute. A. W. Kern now has the agency for the Mississippi Valley Homestead and Loan Co. All assessments and dues should be paid to him promptly at Kern Bros. store. Mrs. C. M. Baker and Mrs. E. Adams gave a lunch at the residence of Mrs. C. Adams last Thursday afternoon to a number of friends. A good social time was enjoyed. Parties who left watches, etc., with McCauley the jeweler, will find him at the old bank building, west of post-office. Bargains in watches, jewelry, etc., if you call soon. Will Wykes has resigned as night marshal, and Freeman Spencer is now doing the duties. He will make a good marshal. Mr. Wykes has intended resigning for some time. Meetings will be held in Congregational church Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights of next week. Mrs. Cole will speak Monday night, other speakers announced later. We are in receipt of The Prairie Echo, Vol. 1, No. 1, published in our neighboring town of Gardner, Ill. Wm. Driscoll is the editor, and the first number is very creditable, editorially and typographically. It is a paper for general circulation, and is devoted to the betterment of the laboring masses.

Miss Laura A. Brown, of Kirkwood, Mo., is visiting her brother, Willard S. Brown. She is one of the teachers in the public schools at her home, and is a highly accomplished lady. Hon. Bailey Gower was in town Monday on his way to Iowa on a visit. He will be back, however, in time to go to Springfield to take his seat in the house of representatives. Harry Lawrence went to Bloomington Monday to attend the dedication of the new Keeley League hall in that place. He reports a splendid time, and knows whereof he speaks. Call at the coal office of J. A. Webster, he has received a carload of Orleans County (New York state) apples, No. 1 Baldwins and Greenings. Will be sold at the lowest market price. Call around at E. E. Fenn's Club Store and shoot for prizes. 1st prize, fine black mare; 2d prize, fine smoking jacket; 3d prize, fine meerschaum pipe. To be decided New Years night. Those of our readers who wish papers printed in other languages besides English, would do well to call on us. We can supply them any periodical published in any country or in any language. Kern Bros' grocery department is always supplied with all descriptions of fresh goods. Give them a call. Fresh bread every day hereafter. Leave your order and it will be delivered promptly. There were two masses held at the Catholic church Sunday morning at 7 and 8 o'clock, both being well attended. After saying mass here, Father Moore went to his Sunbury charge and held two services. Rev. and Mrs. Ed. George visited with Mr. and Mrs. Henry McLane during the week. Mrs. George is a sister of Mrs. McLane. Rev. George occupied the pulpit at the M. E. Church Sunday evening. Fred Lavercombe, the genial salesman for Butler Bros., of Chicago, was a welcome caller at this office Monday. He is still one of the gallant 95 per cent, and is always pleased to spend a few hours in Dwight. The Ladies Auxiliary Keeley League will give a reception to the members of the Keeley League this Saturday evening at the club Hall Admission ten cents which will include refreshments. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend. The agency for Booth's Steam Laundry has been changed from Harry Lawrence to E. A. Rowley, the Dwight reading and amusement rooms. Drop card to same place or call and your laundry will be called for and delivered without extra charge. A silver wedding was held at the residence of Louis Seegers, four miles north of Dwight, in their honor, Tuesday last. A large number of relatives and friends were present, and a good time enjoyed. There were a number of handsome gifts given Mr. and Mrs. Seeger. At the regular meeting of Livingston Lodge, 371, A. F. & A. M. which occurred Dec. 19, 1892, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Chas. H. Crandall, W. M.; Andrew Hansen, S. W.; Axel Bovik, J. W.; J. B. Parsons, Treas.; F. W. Ford, Sec'y. The John Dunlop we spoke of last week as having died suddenly was not our John, but a John Dunlap of Blackstone, who was attending school in Indiana. Our John was seen in Chicago Saturday and says that to the best of his knowledge and ability that he is not dead, but "out of sight." Merchants who do not advertise at any other season than during the holidays, insert their notices at that time because they believe that it will pay them. If an advertisement is a paying investment in December why is it not such in January or November. The merchant has goods for sale those months, and people buy those months. If it pays one time it does another. The moral of this is to advertise all the time. The man who does it makes the money. Fraternal Lodge No. 312, Knights of Pythias Ransom, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Robert Linfer, chancellor commander; M. E. Car, vice chancellor; Peter Richards, prelate; Aug. Berge, keeper of records and seals; W. B. Cummings, master of finance; Charles Tierney, master of exchequer; Jacob Yebber, master at arms; George Kissinger, trustee. Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles through the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and in a short time he was breathing quite easy. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. For sale by Dr. C. H. Barr, Dwight, Ill., and W. H. H. Augustine & Son, Braceville, Illinois. Dec 3-1m

NEW WATER WORKS. To the People of Dwight and Vicinity: Those who use Water must necessarily wear, BOOTS AND SHOES, the successful contractors are LEACH & REEB, who gave the lowest cash bids on the following line: GEO. E. KEITHS' Fine Gents' Shoes, REYNOLD BROS'. Fine Ladies' Shoes, and the finest line of Gents' Slippers for Holiday Presents sold in Livingston County, also Felt Boots, Over-shoes and Mitts. Before purchasing your Harness, Lap Robes or Blankets, call and see the largest and best stock in Dwight. Never Undersold. Respectfully, LEACH & REEB

Guilty of Murder AND SENTENCED TO BUY YOUR GOODS OF SARGENT & BASSETT, GOLD MEDAL FLOUR, One of the best brands of Flour. Try a Sack. Canned Goods, Vegetables, and Fruits in season, are our specialties. Market price paid for Butter and Eggs. Call and see us whether you want to buy or not. SARGENT & BASSETT.

TAKE NOTICE DR. C. H. BARR Has just received a line of Fine Holiday Goods, which will be sold at BED ROCK PRICES Also a new lot of BOOKS, including WOODBINE's Editions of Popular Poets. Hawthorne's Scarlet Letter, Et PURE DRUGS, PATENT MEDICINES, TOILET ARTICLES of all Kinds. New Keeley Block, West Street

"MUSIC IN THE AIR." That's all right, figurative speaking, but it's no comparison to the music in a GOOD ORGAN OR PIANO. Story & Clark and Newman Bros. Organs, New England Pianos. I am now prepared to furnish the best Musical Instrument made at a very reasonable figure and on almost any terms to suit. I will also take your old instrument in part payment for a new one, and you can pay the balance in Monthly Payments. John L. Simar Call at this office or address Dwight, Ill., and he will be immediately.