Morgan and son, we are in possession of a handsome pamphlet containing the recent report made by the Colonel upon what would be just and equitable rates of freights and fares for the railroads of California. A Piece of Surgery.
Mr. S. Goodspeed had a close call for his life suffering with a malignant carbuncle. Dr. Conway hopes to pull him through. The Doctor performed a piece of surgery this week not undertaken before in this vicinity. The carbuncle had left a space six inches in diameter, devoid of skin. Several parties volunteered to furnish Mr. Goodspeed with a portion of their cuticle. The doctor grafted some twenty-five grafts on the denuded surface and hopes in a few weeks to have the surface healed over with sound skin.

We beg to call the attention of our readers to the "ad" of the Leavenworth Business College which appears elsewhere in this paper. The fact that they offer to give instruction free to introduce their College shows that they have faith in their ability. We would advise our young people to investigate the matter and to profit by it.
Remember that all subscriptions to the STAR AND HERALD that are now due must be paid in advance this month or the price is $1.50 per year. The $1.25 rate is only good for those that pay within thirty days from date of expiration. Please don't tell us that you didn't understand this, for the paper has been full of it for the past month.
Messrs. Fender, Newell and two other gentlemen, from Peoria, were in town Tuesday on coal business. These gentlemen are old, experienced miners and have just sold a shaft and are thinking of locating here, and we understand have an option on the Payne farm south of town. If coal is found here in paying quantities we are liable to have two shafts at least right away.
The superintendent of the Streator Star Coal company made this office a pleasant call Wednesday. He was here to look into the matter of prospecting for coal. The company he represents will go right to work sinking a shaft if a good vein of coal is struck, and the company does not ask for any help from the citizens of Dwight. Mr. Baer is a very pleasant gentleman.

The STAR AND HERALD is out of luck. We had no more than got located in our new home when our boiler sprung a leak and at the present writing we are getting power from a threshing machine engine. We, however, have purchased a 15-horse power horizontal boiler which will be placed in position right away, and we trust that our serious troubles will end for a time. These things, as we have previously remarked, cost lots of money, and we haven't got much.

Pontiac Puffs.

The state reformatory will take water from the city water works. This will be quite a source of revenue for the city. The pumping will probably commence in a few days.
The democratic representative from this district, Jas. A. Smith, is chairman of the important committee on reapportioning the state. James is a good democrat and a worker for the party.
County Treasurer Baker went to Springfield to attend the inaugural ceremonies of Gov. Altgeld and other democratic state officials. He was taken sick while there and had to remain several days. His many friends hope that he will soon be at his post of duty.
L. H. Tuttle, the irrepresible candidate for the legislature, has purchased a farm in Clay county, and will soon move there. We hope "Link" will in it there more than he was here. "Link" is familiarly called, but we wish it distinctly understood that it doesn't mean the missing "Link."
The municipal election will probably be a question of $1000 license for saloons. It seems to be the opinion of many citizens that most anything is better than the present arrangement. The amount levied by taxes will not run the town and some people think it better to make saloon keepers pay than to let them sell anyway and a net pay. It's a puzzler.
One of our merchants recently sent a dunning letter to a young man in Dwight, and incidentally remarked that "the children were hungry and there was no soap in the house." The dun was respectfully and promptly returned, also a 5 cent cake of soap and the following appended: "Will send a sack of flour as soon as possible. Be sure and wash the children."
The "postoffice" or who will be the next postmaster, is an important item at Dwight. The present postmaster's commission does not expire until 1893; but how hungry they are, and no doubt Mr. Parsons will have to vacate soon after March 4th. Mr. John C. George was allowed to serve out his time under Mr. Harrison, as did also Mr. Kenyon under Mr. Cleveland. The anxious ones are John Thompson, William Kellagher, B. A. Buck and L. J. Trunnell.—Pontiac Sentinel.

A quiet wedding occurred at the M. E. parsonage, Thursday evening, presided over by Rev. Conrad. The contracting parties were Mr. Wm. LIGGITT-GREGORY.
Brilliant Wedding of Two Prominent Young People.
The marriage last Thursday evening of Miss Grace Gregory, of this city, to Mr. Frederick Liggitt, of Dwight, Ill. was one of the most charming and notable society events that has occurred in this community for some time. The ceremony took place in the presence of numerous relatives and friends at the home of the bride's father, Mr. John Gregory of North Main street, the marriage knot was tied in a solemn and impressive manner by Rev. A. P. Cobb, of Springfield, formerly pastor of the First Christian church of Normal, assisted by Rev. G. A. Miller. The happy couple entered the bridal chamber at 8 o'clock to the tune of Wagner's Lohengrin wedding march, played by Prof. Skinner, of Bloomington, and halted under a beautiful wedding bell draped in smilax. Following the final ceremonies came showers of congratulations, after which the guests sat down to an elegant supper prepared by Mrs. Cooper.
The bride is the young and charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory, one of the wealthiest families in McLean county. She was a former student at the I. S. N. U., possesses many charming traits of character and is a talented musician. The bride wore a costume of white crystal silk and carried a bouquet of white tea roses. The groom wore the conventional black. He is the son of Mr. Thomas Liggitt, of Normal, but for several years has been a prosperous merchant of Dwight. About sixty guests were present, consisting of the relatives and a few intimate friends of the couple. Those from abroad were Mr. and Mrs. Hall, of Chicago, and Mr. Robert Liggitt, of Dwight. A number of those who expected to attend from abroad were unable to be present on account of the bad weather and sent their regrets by telegraph at the last moment. The large and elegant parlors were beautifully decorated with smilax and potted plants. Many elegant and costly presents were received. The couple have departed for a short wedding tour, after which they go to Dwight, their future home. They carry the best wishes of their host of friends for a long and happy life.—Bloomington Bulletin.
Mr. and Mrs. Liggitt arrived in Dwight, their future home, Thursday afternoon. A number of the groom's friends had gathered at the depot to give the newly married couple a hearty welcome, but Fred with his usual modesty managed to evade this demonstration by alighting from the opposite side of the train. Mr. and Mrs. Liggitt are cordially welcomed home, and hearty good wishes of prosperity and happiness is extended by their numerous friends and the STAR AND HERALD.
A State Organizer.
Mr. Harry Lawrence who is so well and favorably known to the many thousands of patients who have taken treatment at Dwight, went to Kansas City, Mo., last Saturday night to attend a state convention in that city of the Keeley League, and for the next two months he expects to devote all of his time to the formation of new leagues through Missouri and the western and southern portion of Illinois. He has been appointed by the National League as a state organizer. The National League could have made no better selection for a state organizer. During his absence from Dwight his business will be conducted by Mr. D. T. Crockier, of Atlanta, Ill., who has been clerking for him several weeks.
