Shepard's Dream. Horace W. Shepard, well known in Dwight, through connection with the STAR AND HERALD, is located at Holden, Mo. At Tuesday morning's meeting of the club an article written by him, entitled "Keelyites' Dream," was read by Secretary Daren, and elicited much applause. Among the many good things written by Horace we quote: "He dreamed of a city far away on the prairies of Illinois; where he has had suffered the pangs of remorse, and afterwards life's greatest joys. He dreamed of the beautiful city of Dwight.

"And here's the DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD too, the same old paper of old; with Editor Dustin still at the helm—he's worth his weight in gold. And Richard Thornton is local man. Well, Dick's a good fellow too. He's got the way we used to have; you bet he's got all he can do.

"I wonder if the boys go after their mail with same regularity of yore? I'll bet they do if those two young ladies still clerk in the postoffice store. "His eye fell on the banner of Gold, and he picked it up as he said: 'I'll find out the news for them. I wonder if anyone's dead. Here's the column headed 'Doings at Dwight,' run by my old friend Brown. That man is an artist clear out of sight, and has more friends of renown than any man in the country, but he doesn't know every one, and I hope he'll make ten million more. He's the best fellow under the sun."

The success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in effecting a speedy cure of colds, croup and whooping cough has brought it into great demand. Messrs. Pontius & Son, of Cameron, Ohio, say that it has gained a reputation second to none in that vicinity. Jas. M. Queen, of Johnston, W. Va., says it is the best he ever used. B. F. Jones, druggist, Winona, Miss., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is perfectly reliable. I have always warranted it and it never failed to give the most perfect satisfaction." 50 cent bottles for sale by Dr. C. H. Barr, Dwight, Ill., and W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville, Ill.

We will send "The Farmers Guide and Home Companion" and your home paper for one year for $1.00. The Farmers Guide contains forty columns of reading matter and is issued twice a month. This is an excellent chance to get an excellent agricultural paper cheap.

For pains in the chest there is nothing better than a flannel cloth saturated with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It will produce a counter irritation without blistering, and is not so disagreeable as mustard; in fact is much superior to any plaster on account of its pain-relieving qualities. If used in time it will prevent pneumonia. 50 cent bottles for sale by Dr. C. H. Barr, Dwight, Ill., and W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville, Ill.

Covered Carriage Given Away. The proprietors of the STAR AND HERALD will present any one with a fine covered single carriage, costing $75, who will get us one hundred new subscribers between now and Jan. 1, 1893, paid in advance, at $1.25 per year. DO YOU WANT TO ADOPT A BABY? Maybe you think this is a new business, sending out babies on application; it has been done before, however, but never have those furnished been so near the original sample as this one. Everyone will exclaim "What that's the sweetest baby I ever saw!" This little black-and-white engraving can give you but a faint idea of the exquisite original.

"I'M A DAISY." which we propose to send to you, transportation paid. The little darling rests against a pillow, and is in the act of drawing off its tiny sock, the mate of which has been pulled off and hung aside with a triumphant coo. The fresh hints are perfect, and the eyes follow you, no matter where you stand. The exquisite reproductions of this greatest painting of Ida Waugh (the most celebrated of modern painters of baby life) are to be given to those who subscribe to Demorest's Family Magazine for 1893. The reproductions cannot be told from the original, which cost $400, and are the same size (17x22 inches). The baby is life size, and absolutely lifelike. We have also in preparation, to present to our subscribers during 1893, other great pictures by such artists as Percy Moran, Maud Humphrey, Louis Deschamps, and others of world-wide renown. Take only two examples of what we did during the past year: "A Yard of Paradise," and "A White House Child" by the wife of President Harrison, and you will see what our promises mean.

Those who subscribe for Demorest's Family Magazine for 1893 will possess a gallery of exquisite works of art of great value, besides a Magazine that cannot be equaled by any in the world for its beautiful illustrations and subject-matter that will keep everyone interested on all the topics of the day, and all the fads and different items of interest about the household, besides furnishing interesting reading matter, both grave and gay, for the whole family; and while Demorest's is not a fashion magazine, its fashion pages are perfect, and we give you, free of cost, all the patterns you wish to use during the year, and in any size you choose. Send in your subscription at once, only $2, and you will really get over $25 in value. Address the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th St., New York.
