Parties were here this week to finish moving the remains of the old McPherson house, but the late storm caused them to again abandon their work. The probabilities are that it will remain there until spring. We go to press too early to give an account of the Falk organ concert at the Congregational church last night, but there is no doubt that the entertainment was the best of its kind ever given in Dwight. We will send "The Farmers Guide and Home Companion" and your home paper for one year for $1.50. The Farmers Guide contains forty columns of reading matter and is issued twice a month. This is an excellent chance to get an excellent agricultural paper cheap. The production of Damon and Pythias, by the Labadie-Kowell company, the 25th of Feb. will be under the auspices of Hebron Lodge, 175 of this place. Mr. Labadie is well known here, having visited Dwight several times before, and has earned a good reputation as an actor. He carries special scenery for this thrilling production. That dreadful disease, known as trichina, has made its way into two homes near Fairbury. This was brought about by eating fresh pork and sausage. Two deaths have occurred, and the consulting physicians say all those affected will die. Warning should be taken by all lovers of pork, and always have it thoroughly cooked before eating. Representative Straight of this county, has been placed on the following committees of the lower house of the General Assembly, canal, river improvements and commerce, penal and reformatory institutions, public charities, agriculture, soldiers home, and soldiers orphans home. Mr. Gower has a place on the following committees: mines and mining, public buildings and grounds, fish and game laws. A great many of our exchanges are full of the Dwight coal boom. The Mazou Register has the following to say: "The business men of Dwight are ever on the alert for some new enterprise to add to the business interests of the town. The funds have lately been raised to sink a coal well and if satisfactory results are obtained, a coal company of Streator will commence operations. If you desire to be enrolled as a student for the free course in the Mail Department of the Leavenworth Business College, but have not as yet sent in your application, you should do so at once. We understand the offer made elsewhere in this paper will be withdrawn in a few days. The L. B. C. is undeniably the largest and best College in the West, and to take a course with them means success. Hon. James A. Smith, democratic representative of the 18th senatorial district, in addition to being a member of the democratic steering committee, is chairman of the committee on Congressional Apportionment, the most important house committee of this session of the General Assembly, and also a member of the following important committees: education, insurance, enrolled and engaged bills, license county and township organization, bank and banking. At the Congregational church Sunday evening, the exercises were very interesting, it being the anniversary of the Y. P. S. C. E. Mr. F. Faulner gave a very comprehensive report of the organization from its birth to the present time. Mrs. Chubb read an interesting article on the work in China, and Miss Brown recited a very pretty poem, and the exercises closed with a few appropriate words by the pastor. The attendance was good and the music excellent. Joseph V. Dory, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but says none of them seemed to do him any good; but finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Dr. C. H. Barr, Dwight, Ill., and W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville, Ill. Mr. Albert Favorite, of Arkansas City, Kan., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me with a hacking cough which I thought I never would get rid of. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some fourteen years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one bottle my cough had left me, and I have not suffered with a cough or cold since. I have recommended it to others and all speak well of it." 50 cent bot-

les for sale by Dr. C. H. Barr, Dwight, Ill., and W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville, Ill. It is surprising to an editor sometimes to give a patron come into the office and give an item of news, and apologize as though his visit might be considered an intrusion. No man is more welcome than he who brings an item of news, even if it concerns himself. We naturally consider every man who furnishes us with an item to make our columns more newsy and interesting as a benefactor. We hope that none of our readers will feel the least hesitancy in visiting our office, or appearing before us on the street, with a request to publish such an item. The more interest we can cause you to have in the paper, the more its visits will be welcomed.—Star of the West. Great Replevin Sale of Clothing. Owing to the failure of a big western-clothing firm, the people of Dwight will have a chance of a life-time, in buying their clothing cheap. Now we wish to state right here, that we do not want anyone to come expecting to buy cheap shoddy stuff, for we have no cheap shoddy goods. These high-art tailor made goods, were made to suit the fine trade, and we are going to cut them right and left, and sell them at prices that you have heretofore been paying for cheap goods. If you want fine tailor-made goods for little money, come. If you want cheap shoddy goods, do not come to us, for we have not got them. This wonderful sale will begin to-day, Feb. 4, and last until Saturday, Feb. 11th. Don't fail to come or you will miss the opportunity of a life time. Notice. Mr. G. K. Dunlop, our collector, has received the tax books from the county seat, and is now ready to receive your money. His office will be found at the Water's Hardware store, Franklin St. OLANO, Fla., June 2nd, 1892. MESSRS. LOPMAN BROS. PROP. P. P. P. SAVANNAH, GA. GENTLEMEN: I feel it my duty to inform you of the cure your wonderful medicine P. P. P. wrought in my case. I have suffered for two years with Dyspepsia and Malaria in the worst form and was a daily sufferer from sick headache. My bowels did not act but twice a week and frequently only once a week. I could not retain but I ate and my stomach was always uncomfortably heavy; I tried pills, all kinds of medicines, but only found temporary relief in them; I was despondent and was hoping to soon find relief in death. Soft Water. Having secured a 15-barrel tank, I am now prepared to deliver soft water to all parts of the town. 48 W. JAS. GREGORY. For Rent. A good one-story cottage for rent cheap. Inquire at this office. Seeing your P. P. P. advertisement I decided to try it and requested Dr. Peak to get me a bottle, and after taking that bottle I felt one hundred per cent better. I have taken two bottles and will soon get another. I can now eat in peace and enjoy everything, and can sleep like a top. My headaches have ceased and my bowels are regular. I would advise all sufferers like myself to give P. P. P. a trial, and they will write you as I have, that P. P. P. beats any medicine on the market. Yours truly, CURT S. COLLYER, Artistic Painter.
