A motion was made and seconded that a committee of three be appointed to wait on the board of control to inquire into the financial condition of the club and its workings, also an understanding as to what is embodied in the by-laws and constitution of the club.

The regular election of officers took place at the Thursday morning meeting, and it resulted in Mr. Hadaway, of Chicago, in being elected president, and C. E. Calkins, of Emporia, Kansas, as vice-president. The appointment of sergeant-at-arms, was deferred until the Friday morning meeting. Both the above named gentlemen thanked the club for honors conferred.

The STAR AND HERALD has received and read the third and greatly improved edition of C. S. Clark's remarkable book, "The Wonderful Story of Keeley and Dwight." The work is a neatly bound volume of nearly 200 pages, and much of value and interest has been added by the author since it first appeared, more than a year ago. The price has been reduced to 30 cents, sent to any address by mail, or 25 cents retail on train or of agents. The book has been placed on sale at the store of J. C. Lewis, in Dwight. Have a copy sent to your friend who needs the cure, and send one home.

"Quiet Music."

The above is the name of a handsome little volume of poems recently issued by the publishing house of F. J. Shultz & Co., of Chicago and edited by Charles Eugene Banks, an old newspaper man, and now one of the editor's of the Banner of Gold. It contains but 100 pages, but its value must not be measured by its size, as it is certainly quite a gem. The author is quite well-known in Dwight, and we bespeak for his work a large sale in this vicinity.
