"Ingomar" at the opera house tonight, by the Labadie-Rowell Co. There are ten people in the company and they are all said to be good. Get your tickets at Dr. Barr's.

We notice quite a number of our exchanges which had copied the misrepresenting stories about Dwight's indebtedness, etc., have made the proper retraction on the strength of the statements made by the Star and Herald last week. Every paper that has published the lying articles, and does not wish to mislead their readers, will do the same.

This (Saturday) evening the Francis Labadie theatrical company will produce "Ingomar" at the opera house. This is a fine play. Get your reserved seats at Dr. Barr's drug store.

Dwight never had a mayor that has looked after the interests of the city, or spent as much time gratuitously, as has Chas. L. Romberger. The present board is a good one throughout.

Call at the coal office of J. A. Webster, he has received a car load of Orleans County (New York state), apples, No. 1 Baldwins and Greenings. Will be sold at the lowest market price.

John Long, jr., living four miles south of Dwight, will sell at public sale on Tuesday, Feb. 28, at 10 o'clock, a. m., several horses, cattle, farming implements, etc. Jess. Slyder will cry the sale.

"Fatherland's Sweet Singer," "The Little Twin Sisters," "Master Daniel Webster" and "Frank Cumpton," all in "The Merry Cobbler," next Tuesday night at the opera house. Tickets on sale at Barr's.

The Misses Zimmerman, of Taylorville, Ill., who have been the guests of their brother, A. R. Zimmerman, and family, for the past three weeks, left for home yesterday, after having enjoyed a pleasant visit.

By the time the malt venders' fines get up to several hundred dollars, which they will if they continue to sell, responible people will get tired going on their appeal bonds. Their was some trouble experienced the last time.

The many friends of Wm. Christensen, who resides south of Dwight, would like to see him elected road commissioner at the coming town election. Mr. Christensen is a good man and would make a good officer.

We acknowledge an invitation to a social party to be given in Jones Hall in Gardner Friday evening, March 3, 1893. Prof. Abbates orchestra, of Chicago, will furnish the music. We understand several from Dwight will attend.

The lecture on Stanley in Africa by Rev. H. M. Cole, was given in the club room Thursday night to a crowded house. The lectures will be given for the benefit of the local club, the net proceeds of Thursday night amounting to $20.

We will have the largest and best selected stock of men's and boy's clothing this spring, ever shown in Dwight. Prices lower than ever before: children's suits from $1.50 up, men's suits fair quality, well made, from $5 up, at Miller Bros.

The house occupied by Jerry Shauck was burned in Fairbury recently. Jerry is well known all over Livingston county, and his many friends will be sorry to learn of his loss. Jerry is generally strictly in it, but was a little out of luck this time.

Mr. Martin, who is now employed by Mr. H. T. Loper in his fine restaurant at 227 S. Fifth St., Springfield, Ill., spent several days at home this week. He says Mr. Loper is doing a fine business and his many friends here are pleased to learn this.

We notice among the marriage licenses recently issued those of Wm. Schulle, of Reddick, and Maud M. Goodson, of Campus; also Wm. Gutel, of Nevada, and Margaret M. Laase, of Dwight. The Star and Herald extend congratulations.

Mrs. Ida B. Cole preached at the Congregational church in Chenoa last Sunday, and will occupy the pulpit there indefinitely. Mrs. Cole informs us that her congregation is quite large and a very agreeable field to work in, and that she is much pleased with her engagement.

Al. Haynes informs us that he intends to leave for his new home in Butler county, Kansas, as soon as his wife's health will permit. Mrs. Haynes has been very sick, but is improving rapidly at present. When Al. goes Round Grove will lose one of its best known and highly respected citizens.

Mrs. L. L. Snyder and family left for Kenesaw, Neb., last Monday, where they intend to make their future home. Again we lose a first-class citizen and a nice family. They have resided here for many years and have hosts of friends here who wish them prosperity and happiness in their new home.

Mr. Frank Reilly, father of Mr. M. F. Reilly, of Reddick, died at his home near Braidwood, the first of the week. Deceased was over seventy years of age, and had been ailing for a long time, and confined to his bed for about three months. He was a farmer and owned several farms, and was a highly respected and honorable citizen.

Some men know how to be real mean. A story is going round about a man whose wife had gone visiting and would not listen to his appeals to come home before her visit was out. He took a copy of his home paper and carefully clipped out just one item, then sent the paper to her. She wrote and asked what the item was about and he refused to tell her. The scheme worked admirably, and in less than a week she was at home to find out what had happened her husband did not want her to know about.

About May 1, next, when the roads are good, a message will be taken from Governor Altgeld, of Springfield to Governor Peck, at Madison, Wis, by relays of bicyclers stationed seven miles apart. H. Scoville, of Dixon, will have charge of the station from that city seven miles north, and other cyclists are being selected to take part in the race.

The question naturally arises as to why a man has to take out a government license to sell liquor that he claims does not intoxicate. The malt joint keepers know that what they sell will intoxicate, and they think they can beat the Village but dare not fool with the strong arm of Uncle Sam. They will find that the Village means business also.

Mr. E. H. Bailey, of the Normal Advocate, has severed his connection with that paper, and goes to Johnstown, Penn., and engages with his brother in the newspaper business. Mr. Bailey will be remembered as the gentleman who edited the North Star for a few weeks in Dwight. He is a very competent man in the profession and leaves a host of friends in Illinois.

"The Little Twin Sisters."

The "Merry Cobbler" at the Opera House last night played to a good sized audience. Mr. Cumpson, the German dialect comedian, is a whole show in himself. He is one of the finest and best on the American stage. Master Daniel Webster, who is only four years old brought down the house with his Hornpipe and Fancy Dances. He is the wonder of the world and a born actor. Harry McDonald, "the faithful negro" was immense. The "Twin Sisters", the Misses Athela and Blanche, were alone worth the price of admission. In fact all were good and the show was one of the best that has struck this town for many a day. It is clear of all vulgarity and a good place to take a family for an evening's entertainment.—Oakland, Ohio, Daily Times.

The above show will be at the opera house next Tuesday evening. Tickets now on sale at Dr. Barr's drug store.

Coming Attractions.

J. R. Cumpson's Co. Tuesday, Feb 28th, "The Merry Cobbler."

"Tis thus we let our tongues to prattle while young ears listen." Polydor proposes to Parthenia. The rich miser in anger. Myron (the father) siezed by the outlaws.

ACT II.—The robbers camp in forest. "Back, back, I say; but one more step, and I'll send you to the shades." The unwilling slave. Parthenia to the rescue. A brave girl. The ransom. Release of Myron. Fun for the outlaws. The Greek maiden is taken prisoner. Garlands. The flames. Ingomar thinks of his dead brother. Parthenia tells of the old love song.

ACT III.—The basket of berries. Parthenia siezed by the outlaws and dragged away. Ingomar to the rescue. The fight. The outlaws break up camp.

ACT IV.—Almost home. Meeting of the father, daughter and barbarian. His resolve. A trying position. His flight. His return. He is taken inside the city walls.

ACT V.—The old scold. The brave Ingomar. The daughter of old Myron's pleasure. Ingomar insulted and indignant. Gives himself up to save Parthenia from the miser. Indignantly refuses to betray his countryman. The Allemania made friends to the Greeks, and many beautiful actions with a fine ending.

Money Found.

Mr. Editor:—California is admitted to be the land of sunshine, flowers and wealth. Land is being given away free by the California Land and Water Exchange, of Dayton, O. Their plan is new and the idea originial. They will send you a free deed to one acre of land that will grow, if irrigated, oranges, figs, grapes, in fact anything that is produced in California by irrigation. All they ask you to do is to help pay to get water, which can be done in small payments. They plant and cultivate the land for five years; they paying for the trees, labor cultivation, taxes, assesments and guaranteeing to pay you a certain sum of profits every year. You can get full information if you address as above. R.
