

Dwight Star and Herald.

Published at the Postoffice in Dwight, as second class mail matter.

A. R. ZIMMERMAN, Publisher.
W. G. DUSTIN.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
BY MAIL—POSTAGE PAID.
One year $1.50
If paid in advance 1.25
Six months .75
Three months .45

DWIGHT LOCAL NEWS.

"Rip Van Winkle" the 15th.
$4 hats for $2 at Mrs. Fenn's.
Look out for Easter goods at Mrs. Fenn's.
A printers union has been formed in Streator.
Fresh bread every day at Sargent & Bassett's.
Thirty cars were wrecked on the 3-I Thursday.
Good piano for sale or rent. Inquire at this office.
Send your work to the Dwight Artesian Laundry.
Egg, hogs and potatoes are "strictly in it" just now.
Mr. Jones, of Chenoa, was a Dwight visitor Monday.
Fish for the lenten season at Liggett & Liggett's.
Oranges 20 cents per dozen at Sargent & Bassett's.
Canned pumpkins 10 cents, at Sargent & Bassett's.
John R. Oughton was in Chicago on business Monday.
Miss Sadie Clarkson visited friends in Chicago Sunday.
Elegant new top buggy for sale cheap. Enquire at this office.
Floor oil cloth, 25 cents a square yard at E. T. Miller's.
Who wouldn't be a hog now days. There's money in 'em.
The best corsets in town for the money at E. T. Miller's.
Genuine Round Oak stoves are the best, for sale by H. A. Buck.
Fresh home-made bread, 28 loaves or one dollar, at Geo. Kern's.
Butterick Patterns are now for sale at Kelagher's Bargain Store.
Miss Carrie Baker returned to her home in Nebraska, Thursday.
The Bargain Store headquarters for all the latest styles in patterns.
Canned peas $1 per dozen, or 9 cents per can at Sargent & Bassett's.
Addie and Ella Fenn will return from their visit the first of the week.
Evidently the safest place to throw snow-balls is at the "corner post."
What gentleman would like to be mayor? Don't all answer at once.
Call and see our new patterns in queenware at Liggett & Liggett's.
We received a pleasant call from Mr. L. Hollmeyer, of Campus, Saturday.
Jim and Sadie Riggs, of Lockport, visited friends in Dwight this week.
A full and complete line of Butterick patterns at Kelagher's Bargain Store.
E. T. Miller's spring opening on the evening of March 1, was well attended.
Squire Wilkinson was in Chicago this week receiving medical treatment.
Mrs. Frank Bell has been very sick, but we are pleased to state, is improving.
"Watch the professor," is what the schoolboys do when they throw snow balls.
J. A. Webster has on hand a large assortment of sewer and connection pipes.
New and exceedingly attractive spring gingham, 12 1/2 cents at E. T. Miller's.
Just received a fine lot of mackerel and herring extra fine.—Sargent & Bassett.
We have the best coffee for 25 cents that was ever sold in the city.—Sargent & Bassett.
The best place to get your watch repaired done at reasonable prices, is at Guardenier's.
The principle topic of discussion in the public schools this week seems to be "suspended."
We don't sell malt, but we do sell Hart's Diamond Crown flour.—Sargent & Bassett.
World's fair hats with fair ticket included, for $2.50 Hat alone worth $3.—E. T. Miller's.
Don't forget to leave your order with J. A. Webster for your Braidwood coal and sewer pipe.
Leave orders for cut flowers for Wednesday, at Lewis' jewelry store.—Thos. J. Brown.
Miss Berger desire all those indebted to her on account to call and settle as soon as possible.
Dr. Ubellar, dentist, graduate of the Chicago College of Dental Surgery, in McWilliam's block.
The art of snow balling does not seem to be one of the pet hobbies of our school principal.
James Carroll will sell at public auction next Tuesday, the 17th, 11 head of horses, calves, farming implements, and other articles. The sale will take place on the Payne farm, one mile southwest of Dwight.

J. A. Webster has just received a car of range and a car of chestnut hard coal. Give him a call.
Miss Jessie Funk, of Plainfield, Ill., has been visiting Mrs. Riggs and friends the past week.
For meat or groceries Kern Bros. is the place to go. Everything delivered promptly—night or day.
Mohair suiting dress goods, 54 inches wide, 30 cents a yard. Special sale next week only.—E. T. Miller's.
For carpet weaving see Karl Horn, at 440 Delaware street. The best of work done, every job guaranteed.
J. A. Webster has constantly on hand the best grades of Pennsylvania coal, well screened. Try it.
Go to Dr. Barr's drug store and see the two beautiful metal chairs given away by the Sulphurine Co.
Miss Sadie Clarkson gave a card party in honor of Miss Jessie Funk, an enjoyable time was had by all.
Get some of our dried beef, chipped so fine it doesn't require chewing. Very nice.—Sargent & Bassett.
Rev. Cole preached in Chenoa last Sunday, and Mrs. Cole preached at the Congregational church in Dwight.
Squire McElvain has been confined to the house for the past two weeks. He is not, however, confined to his bed.
County Superintendent of Schools Foster, was in Dwight on business this week. He made a pleasant call at this office.
Ben Bell is a very sick man. His many friends hope he may yet master his sickness and be able to be out again.
Leave orders for chop feed; corn and oats ground, at Baker's Star Grocery, $1.10 per cwt. delivered.—A. B. COLEMAN.
Mr. Bell, of Henry, Ill., brother of Ben and Frank, was here several days recently, and made this office a pleasant call.
Mr. and Mrs. James Burkhardt and little ones of Allegheny City, Pa., are visiting with their uncle David Rilling and family.
A new arrival at the house of H. F. Boyer is a bright little ten pound boy. Mother and son doing nicely. He arrived Monday.
A little stock in a first-class building association is a good way to save money. Inquire of W. G. Dustin, STAR AND HERALD office.
Kern Bros' meat market always has the best of meats of all kinds. Choice cuts for Sunday. Goods delivered at all times promptly.
The movement of our school board resembles a great deal that bird called an elephant crossing a bridge, but they get there just the same.
Carl Miller is in Chicago this week buying the largest stock of spring goods to be found in this part of state. Look for bargains next week.
Edward D. Conley, editor of the Signal, Joliet, Ill., was in Dwight on business Wednesday. He made this office a pleasant fraternal call.
To get your boots and shoes repaired you should go to Karl Schmitt's shoe shop, 205 Prairie avenue, near treatment hall. He is the man to do it.
There is no tariff on coal at the 3-I. W. H. Taylor is selling soft coal cheaper than any one, delivered promptly to any part of the city. Give him a call.
Hand made farm harness, good leather, well made, for $25, $26 and $27. Also halters, extra straps, collars, etc. Come and see. H. T. McLANE, 48-6W
Save 25 cents. The price of the STAR AND HERALD is now $1.50 per year, but when the year is paid in advance $1.25 pays it. Examine the slip on your paper.
Kern Bros' grocery department is always supplied with all descriptions of fresh goods. Give them a call. Leave your order and it will be delivered promptly.
Call at the coal office of J. A. Webster, he has received a car load of Orleans County (New York state), apples, No. 1 Baldwins and Greenings. Will be sold at the lowest market price.
Attorney W. H. Ketcham left for Kansas, Thursday, to argue a case in court. He will also spend a day in the state capitol, a take a look at the dual houses of representatives.
The choir at the Congregational church will have charge of the services next Sunday evening. The exercises are sure to be very pleasing. Everybody invited to attend.
Marshal P. Wilder, the funniest man on earth, at the opera house, March 24th. He has the following companion entertainers with him: Miss Cecilia A. Woolsey, Miss Carlotta Gilman, and Mr. Edwin E. Kendall.
The horrid man who writes for the Quincy Journal says: "We hope that every woman who buys a hoop-skirt will be obliged to carry it home and have the squirmly thing break out of the package in the street car."
The Fair Dealer, the new prohibition paper, published in Fairbury and edited by C. A. Windle, copies our notice of that paper published two weeks ago, with the following as an introduction: "THE DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD, the best local newspaper in Illinois, and other articles. The sale will take place on the Payne farm, one mile southwest of Dwight.

J. A. Webster has just received a car of range and a car of chestnut hard coal. Give him a call.
Miss Jessie Funk, of Plainfield, Ill., has been visiting Mrs. Riggs and friends the past week.
For meat or groceries Kern Bros. is the place to go. Everything delivered promptly—night or day.
Mohair suiting dress goods, 54 inches wide, 30 cents a yard. Special sale next week only.—E. T. Miller's.
For carpet weaving see Karl Horn, at 440 Delaware street. The best of work done, every job guaranteed.
J. A. Webster has constantly on hand the best grades of Pennsylvania coal, well screened. Try it.
Go to Dr. Barr's drug store and see the two beautiful metal chairs given away by the Sulphurine Co.
Miss Sadie Clarkson gave a card party in honor of Miss Jessie Funk, an enjoyable time was had by all.
Get some of our dried beef, chipped so fine it doesn't require chewing. Very nice.—Sargent & Bassett.
Rev. Cole preached in Chenoa last Sunday, and Mrs. Cole preached at the Congregational church in Dwight.
Squire McElvain has been confined to the house for the past two weeks. He is not, however, confined to his bed.
County Superintendent of Schools Foster, was in Dwight on business this week. He made a pleasant call at this office.
Ben Bell is a very sick man. His many friends hope he may yet master his sickness and be able to be out again.
Leave orders for chop feed; corn and oats ground, at Baker's Star Grocery, $1.10 per cwt. delivered.—A. B. COLEMAN.
Mr. Bell, of Henry, Ill., brother of Ben and Frank, was here several days recently, and made this office a pleasant call.
Mr. and Mrs. James Burkhardt and little ones of Allegheny City, Pa., are visiting with their uncle David Rilling and family.
A new arrival at the house of H. F. Boyer is a bright little ten pound boy. Mother and son doing nicely. He arrived Monday.
A little stock in a first-class building association is a good way to save money. Inquire of W. G. Dustin, STAR AND HERALD office.
Kern Bros' meat market always has the best of meats of all kinds. Choice cuts for Sunday. Goods delivered at all times promptly.
The movement of our school board resembles a great deal that bird called an elephant crossing a bridge, but they get there just the same.
Carl Miller is in Chicago this week buying the largest stock of spring goods to be found in this part of state. Look for bargains next week.
Edward D. Conley, editor of the Signal, Joliet, Ill., was in Dwight on business Wednesday. He made this office a pleasant fraternal call.
To get your boots and shoes repaired you should go to Karl Schmitt's shoe shop, 205 Prairie avenue, near treatment hall. He is the man to do it.
There is no tariff on coal at the 3-I. W. H. Taylor is selling soft coal cheaper than any one, delivered promptly to any part of the city. Give him a call.
Hand made farm harness, good leather, well made, for $25, $26 and $27. Also halters, extra straps, collars, etc. Come and see. H. T. McLANE, 48-6W
Save 25 cents. The price of the STAR AND HERALD is now $1.50 per year, but when the year is paid in advance $1.25 pays it. Examine the slip on your paper.
Kern Bros' grocery department is always supplied with all descriptions of fresh goods. Give them a call. Leave your order and it will be delivered promptly.
Call at the coal office of J. A. Webster, he has received a car load of Orleans County (New York state), apples, No. 1 Baldwins and Greenings. Will be sold at the lowest market price.
Attorney W. H. Ketcham left for Kansas, Thursday, to argue a case in court. He will also spend a day in the state capitol, a take a look at the dual houses of representatives.
The choir at the Congregational church will have charge of the services next Sunday evening. The exercises are sure to be very pleasing. Everybody invited to attend.
Marshal P. Wilder, the funniest man on earth, at the opera house, March 24th. He has the following companion entertainers with him: Miss Cecilia A. Woolsey, Miss Carlotta Gilman, and Mr. Edwin E. Kendall.
The horrid man who writes for the Quincy Journal says: "We hope that every woman who buys a hoop-skirt will be obliged to carry it home and have the squirmly thing break out of the package in the street car."
The Fair Dealer, the new prohibition paper, published in Fairbury and edited by C. A. Windle, copies our notice of that paper published two weeks ago, with the following as an introduction: "THE DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD, the best local newspaper in Illinois, and other articles. The sale will take place on the Payne farm, one mile southwest of Dwight.

J. A. Webster has just received a car of range and a car of chestnut hard coal. Give him a call.
Miss Jessie Funk, of Plainfield, Ill., has been visiting Mrs. Riggs and friends the past week.
For meat or groceries Kern Bros. is the place to go. Everything delivered promptly—night or day.
Mohair suiting dress goods, 54 inches wide, 30 cents a yard. Special sale next week only.—E. T. Miller's.
For carpet weaving see Karl Horn, at 440 Delaware street. The best of work done, every job guaranteed.
J. A. Webster has constantly on hand the best grades of Pennsylvania coal, well screened. Try it.
Go to Dr. Barr's drug store and see the two beautiful metal chairs given away by the Sulphurine Co.
Miss Sadie Clarkson gave a card party in honor of Miss Jessie Funk, an enjoyable time was had by all.
Get some of our dried beef, chipped so fine it doesn't require chewing. Very nice.—Sargent & Bassett.
Rev. Cole preached in Chenoa last Sunday, and Mrs. Cole preached at the Congregational church in Dwight.
Squire McElvain has been confined to the house for the past two weeks. He is not, however, confined to his bed.
County Superintendent of Schools Foster, was in Dwight on business this week. He made a pleasant call at this office.
Ben Bell is a very sick man. His many friends hope he may yet master his sickness and be able to be out again.
Leave orders for chop feed; corn and oats ground, at Baker's Star Grocery, $1.10 per cwt. delivered.—A. B. COLEMAN.
Mr. Bell, of Henry, Ill., brother of Ben and Frank, was here several days recently, and made this office a pleasant call.
Mr. and Mrs. James Burkhardt and little ones of Allegheny City, Pa., are visiting with their uncle David Rilling and family.
A new arrival at the house of H. F. Boyer is a bright little ten pound boy. Mother and son doing nicely. He arrived Monday.
A little stock in a first-class building association is a good way to save money. Inquire of W. G. Dustin, STAR AND HERALD office.
Kern Bros' meat market always has the best of meats of all kinds. Choice cuts for Sunday. Goods delivered at all times promptly.
The movement of our school board resembles a great deal that bird called an elephant crossing a bridge, but they get there just the same.
Carl Miller is in Chicago this week buying the largest stock of spring goods to be found in this part of state. Look for bargains next week.
Edward D. Conley, editor of the Signal, Joliet, Ill., was in Dwight on business Wednesday. He made this office a pleasant fraternal call.
To get your boots and shoes repaired you should go to Karl Schmitt's shoe shop, 205 Prairie avenue, near treatment hall. He is the man to do it.
There is no tariff on coal at the 3-I. W. H. Taylor is selling soft coal cheaper than any one, delivered promptly to any part of the city. Give him a call.
Hand made farm harness, good leather, well made, for $25, $26 and $27. Also halters, extra straps, collars, etc. Come and see. H. T. McLANE, 48-6W
Save 25 cents. The price of the STAR AND HERALD is now $1.50 per year, but when the year is paid in advance $1.25 pays it. Examine the slip on your paper.
Kern Bros' grocery department is always supplied with all descriptions of fresh goods. Give them a call. Leave your order and it will be delivered promptly.
Call at the coal office of J. A. Webster, he has received a car load of Orleans County (New York state), apples, No. 1 Baldwins and Greenings. Will be sold at the lowest market price.
Attorney W. H. Ketcham left for Kansas, Thursday, to argue a case in court. He will also spend a day in the state capitol, a take a look at the dual houses of representatives.
The choir at the Congregational church will have charge of the services next Sunday evening. The exercises are sure to be very pleasing. Everybody invited to attend.
Marshal P. Wilder, the funniest man on earth, at the opera house, March 24th. He has the following companion entertainers with him: Miss Cecilia A. Woolsey, Miss Carlotta Gilman, and Mr. Edwin E. Kendall.
The horrid man who writes for the Quincy Journal says: "We hope that every woman who buys a hoop-skirt will be obliged to carry it home and have the squirmly thing break out of the package in the street car."
The Fair Dealer, the new prohibition paper, published in Fairbury and edited by C. A. Windle, copies our notice of that paper published two weeks ago, with the following as an introduction: "THE DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD, the best local newspaper in Illinois, and other articles. The sale will take place on the Payne farm, one mile southwest of Dwight.

J. A. Webster has just received a car of range and a car of chestnut hard coal. Give him a call.
Miss Jessie Funk, of Plainfield, Ill., has been visiting Mrs. Riggs and friends the past week.
For meat or groceries Kern Bros. is the place to go. Everything delivered promptly—night or day.
Mohair suiting dress goods, 54 inches wide, 30 cents a yard. Special sale next week only.—E. T. Miller's.
For carpet weaving see Karl Horn, at 440 Delaware street. The best of work done, every job guaranteed.
J. A. Webster has constantly on hand the best grades of Pennsylvania coal, well screened. Try it.
Go to Dr. Barr's drug store and see the two beautiful metal chairs given away by the Sulphurine Co.
Miss Sadie Clarkson gave a card party in honor of Miss Jessie Funk, an enjoyable time was had by all.
Get some of our dried beef, chipped so fine it doesn't require chewing. Very nice.—Sargent & Bassett.
Rev. Cole preached in Chenoa last Sunday, and Mrs. Cole preached at the Congregational church in Dwight.
Squire McElvain has been confined to the house for the past two weeks. He is not, however, confined to his bed.
County Superintendent of Schools Foster, was in Dwight on business this week. He made a pleasant call at this office.
Ben Bell is a very sick man. His many friends hope he may yet master his sickness and be able to be out again.
Leave orders for chop feed; corn and oats ground, at Baker's Star Grocery, $1.10 per cwt. delivered.—A. B. COLEMAN.
Mr. Bell, of Henry, Ill., brother of Ben and Frank, was here several days recently, and made this office a pleasant call.
Mr. and Mrs. James Burkhardt and little ones of Allegheny City, Pa., are visiting with their uncle David Rilling and family.
A new arrival at the house of H. F. Boyer is a bright little ten pound boy. Mother and son doing nicely. He arrived Monday.
A little stock in a first-class building association is a good way to save money. Inquire of W. G. Dustin, STAR AND HERALD office.
Kern Bros' meat market always has the best of meats of all kinds. Choice cuts for Sunday. Goods delivered at all times promptly.
The movement of our school board resembles a great deal that bird called an elephant crossing a bridge, but they get there just the same.
Carl Miller is in Chicago this week buying the largest stock of spring goods to be found in this part of state. Look for bargains next week.
Edward D. Conley, editor of the Signal, Joliet, Ill., was in Dwight on business Wednesday. He made this office a pleasant fraternal call.
To get your boots and shoes repaired you should go to Karl Schmitt's shoe shop, 205 Prairie avenue, near treatment hall. He is the man to do it.
There is no tariff on coal at the 3-I. W. H. Taylor is selling soft coal cheaper than any one, delivered promptly to any part of the city. Give him a call.
Hand made farm harness, good leather, well made, for $25, $26 and $27. Also halters, extra straps, collars, etc. Come and see. H. T. McLANE, 48-6W
Save 25 cents. The price of the STAR AND HERALD is now $1.50 per year, but when the year is paid in advance $1.25 pays it. Examine the slip on your paper.
Kern Bros' grocery department is always supplied with all descriptions of fresh goods. Give them a call. Leave your order and it will be delivered promptly.
Call at the coal office of J. A. Webster, he has received a car load of Orleans County (New York state), apples, No. 1 Baldwins and Greenings. Will be sold at the lowest market price.
Attorney W. H. Ketcham left for Kansas, Thursday, to argue a case in court. He will also spend a day in the state capitol, a take a look at the dual houses of representatives.
The choir at the Congregational church will have charge of the services next Sunday evening. The exercises are sure to be very pleasing. Everybody invited to attend.
Marshal P. Wilder, the funniest man on earth, at the opera house, March 24th. He has the following companion entertainers with him: Miss Cecilia A. Woolsey, Miss Carlotta Gilman, and Mr. Edwin E. Kendall.
The horrid man who writes for the Quincy Journal says: "We hope that every woman who buys a hoop-skirt will be obliged to carry it home and have the squirmly thing break out of the package in the street car."
The Fair Dealer, the new prohibition paper, published in Fairbury and edited by C. A. Windle, copies our notice of that paper published two weeks ago, with the following as an introduction: "THE DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD, the best local newspaper in Illinois, and other articles. The sale will take place on the Payne farm, one mile southwest of Dwight.

J. A. Webster has just received a car of range and a car of chestnut hard coal. Give him a call.
Miss Jessie Funk, of Plainfield, Ill., has been visiting Mrs. Riggs and friends the past week.
For meat or groceries Kern Bros. is the place to go. Everything delivered promptly—night or day.
Mohair suiting dress goods, 54 inches wide, 30 cents a yard. Special sale next week only.—E. T. Miller's.
For carpet weaving see Karl Horn, at 440 Delaware street. The best of work done, every job guaranteed.
J. A. Webster has constantly on hand the best grades of Pennsylvania coal, well screened. Try it.
Go to Dr. Barr's drug store and see the two beautiful metal chairs given away by the Sulphurine Co.
Miss Sadie Clarkson gave a card party in honor of Miss Jessie Funk, an enjoyable time was had by all.
Get some of our dried beef, chipped so fine it doesn't require chewing. Very nice.—Sargent & Bassett.
Rev. Cole preached in Chenoa last Sunday, and Mrs. Cole preached at the Congregational church in Dwight.
Squire McElvain has been confined to the house for the past two weeks. He is not, however, confined to his bed.
County Superintendent of Schools Foster, was in Dwight on business this week. He made a pleasant call at this office.
Ben Bell is a very sick man. His many friends hope he may yet master his sickness and be able to be out again.
Leave orders for chop feed; corn and oats ground, at Baker's Star Grocery, $1.10 per cwt. delivered.—A. B. COLEMAN.
Mr. Bell, of Henry, Ill., brother of Ben and Frank, was here several days recently, and made this office a pleasant call.
Mr. and Mrs. James Burkhardt and little ones of Allegheny City, Pa., are visiting with their uncle David Rilling and family.
A new arrival at the house of H. F. Boyer is a bright little ten pound boy. Mother and son doing nicely. He arrived Monday.
A little stock in a first-class building association is a good way to save money. Inquire of W. G. Dustin, STAR AND HERALD office.
Kern Bros' meat market always has the best of meats of all kinds. Choice cuts for Sunday. Goods delivered at all times promptly.
The movement of our school board resembles a great deal that bird called an elephant crossing a bridge, but they get there just the same.
Carl Miller is in Chicago this week buying the largest stock of spring goods to be found in this part of state. Look for bargains next week.
Edward D. Conley, editor of the Signal, Joliet, Ill., was in Dwight on business Wednesday. He made this office a pleasant fraternal call.
To get your boots and shoes repaired you should go to Karl Schmitt's shoe shop, 205 Prairie avenue, near treatment hall. He is the man to do it.
There is no tariff on coal at the 3-I. W. H. Taylor is selling soft coal cheaper than any one, delivered promptly to any part of the city. Give him a call.
Hand made farm harness, good leather, well made, for $25, $26 and $27. Also halters, extra straps, collars, etc. Come and see. H. T. McLANE, 48-6W
Save 25 cents. The price of the STAR AND HERALD is now $1.50 per year, but when the year is paid in advance $1.25 pays it. Examine the slip on your paper.
Kern Bros' grocery department is always supplied with all descriptions of fresh goods. Give them a call. Leave your order and it will be delivered promptly.
Call at the coal office of J. A. Webster, he has received a car load of Orleans County (New York state), apples, No. 1 Baldwins and Greenings. Will be sold at the lowest market price.
Attorney W. H. Ketcham left for Kansas, Thursday, to argue a case in court. He will also spend a day in the state capitol, a take a look at the dual houses of representatives.
The choir at the Congregational church will have charge of the services next Sunday evening. The exercises are sure to be very pleasing. Everybody invited to attend.
Marshal P. Wilder, the funniest man on earth, at the opera house, March 24th. He has the following companion entertainers with him: Miss Cecilia A. Woolsey, Miss Carlotta Gilman, and Mr. Edwin E. Kendall.
The horrid man who writes for the Quincy Journal says: "We hope that every woman who buys a hoop-skirt will be obliged to carry it home and have the squirmly thing break out of the package in the street car."
The Fair Dealer, the new prohibition paper, published in Fairbury and edited by C. A. Windle, copies our notice of that paper published two weeks ago, with the following as an introduction: "THE DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD, the best local newspaper in Illinois,