Has "The New Life" died?

The league members are at present a lively set of men.

A large number of the patients will attend the Congregational church in a body to-morrow morning.

Mr. C. E. Calkins came out from Chicago Wednesday evening, and was present at the Thursday morning meeting.

The Dwight Auxiliary gave another of their pleasant sociables Thursday evening in the club room, and we understand realized quite an amount which will be applied to the good cause.

The advent of Eugene Field for a week's stay, created considerable excitement among the visitors. Mr. Field's literary ability is second to none in this country.

Mr. McClurg, of Chicago, is creating a very favorable impression among patents and Dwight people. He represents one of the largest musical houses in this country, and is a splendid performer on the piano.

Mr. C. E. Calkins left Monday for Chicago, where he will remain for some time prior to leaving for his home in Kansas. The league looses one of its working members, and the boys were all sorry to have him leave.

The league cleared over forty dollars from the entertainment Tuesday evening. This will be applied to a fund to pay membership fees for those that cannot afford to join the league. This is only one of the many thoughtful acts of kindness being inaugurated here by the enthusiastic club members. An entertainment will be given once a month for this purpose.

We are in receipt of the Lampases, Texas, Dispatch, published and edited by Arnold & McAffe. The paper contains about three columns of matter devoted to the Kealey cure and the League, edited by W. S. Arnold, the genial judge. Also miscellaneous matter and the news of the world. A handsome portrait of Dr. Keeley adorns the head of the Keeley League department. The Dispatch is well edited and printed and should be successful.

Poetry for the Doctor.

From The New Life.

The following request was handed to Doctor * * * * * by a patient in line the evening of the second day.

A REQUEST.

Not for the skill that guides the knife
Along the shrinking nerves,
And just evades the springs of life
With hand that never swerves.

Not for the scientific art
That finished culture shows,
To warm the faintly fluttering heart
Where lifeblood feebly flows.

Not for the strangely mingled draught
Of drugs from foreign lands,
Compounded with the subtle craft
That speaks of practiced hands.

But merely for the simple juice
That emanates from rye,
A fluid whose peculiar use
I feel inclined to try.

A four ounce bottle would suffice
For all my modest need,
And you by giving some that's nice,
Would prove a friend indeed.

RED RIBBON.

February 7, '93. F. S.

We will add that the Red Ribbon got the bottle—but was surprised to find he really did not want it after all. He therefore sealed it up and decorated it with ribbon and will keep it as a trophy of conquest over the universal enemy.

The World's Thought.

From The New Life.

Colton says in his much read "Lacon:" "Those who have finished by making all others think with them have usually been those who began by daring to think for themselves." Over one hundred thousand Keeley graduates are to-day scattered broadcast over the United States, daring to think for themselves. For thousands of years people thought as they were forced to think, by the ipse dixit of the doctors; that inebriety was a vice, or a disgraceful, immoral habit, which only the pulpit, the law court or the prison cell could reach. These men were taught that heredity had fixed its fangs upon them and claimed them as his own. There was no use to fight against that heredity which had them in its grasp and would inevitably force them into a drunkard's grave. First, the world had to be awakened to the fact that drunkenness was not a vice, not a sin, but was a disease—a disease as easily curable as any other in the calandar. Second, that there was no heredity in drunkenness, that alcohol was a poison which caused the disease of drunkenness, but that no other drug could or would cause it. Hence, that unless the child born of inebriate parents drank alcohol in sufficient and continuous quantities to produce the disease, he would not be a drunkard. Only one drug causes the disease of inebriety. That drug is alcohol. Other poisons will cause other diseases, but only alcohol can cause inebriety. This thought now permeates the world like a leaven, and with this fact established, no doubt that people in the next decade will look upon drunkenness as a crime and punish it by more severe laws than they do to-day; as they will then regard it properly as crime because of its easy curability.

Rheumatism Quickly Cured.

Three days is a very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism; but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adopted, as will be seen by the following from James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ill.: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right to-day; and would insist on every one who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Champerlain's Pain Palm and get well at once." 50 cent bottes for sale by Dr. C. H. Barr, Dwight; W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville, Druggists.

The only Double Extract Sarsaparilla is Manners. It's the best because it cures. Take no other. 50cts.

Money Found.

MR. EDITOR:—California is admitted to be the land of sunshine, flowers and wealth. Land is being given away free by the CALIFORNIA LAND AND WATER EXCHANGE, of Dayton, O. Their plan is new and the idea original. They will send you a free deed to one acre of land that will grow, if irrigated, oranges, figs, grapes, in fact anything that is produced in California by irrigation. All they ask you to do is to help pay to get water, which can be done in small payments. They plant and cultivate the land for five years; they paying for the trees, labor cultivation, taxes, assesments and guaranteeing to pay you a certain sum of profits every year. You can get full information if you address as above. R.

Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at Dr. C. H. Barr, Dwight, W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville, Druggists. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

Mothers' Recommendation

We are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house for a good many times its cost, and are recommending it every day. From personal experience we can say that it has broken up bad colds for our children.—Centreville, South Dakota Citizen. 50 cent bottles for sale by Dr. C. H. Barr, Dwight; W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville, Druggists.

If you want to get cured take Manners Double Extract Sarsaparilla. It's the best. Try it. 50 cents.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklens Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well or that have given such universal satisfaction, We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their own merits. Dr. C. H. Barr, Dwight, W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville, Druggists.

BENTON, ARK. May 20, 1892.

MESSRS LIPPMAN BROS., SAVANNAH GA.—GENTLEMEN. I have had Rheumatism about two months during last winter, was confined to my room most of the time: I saw an advertisement in the Saline Courier recommending P. P. P., as a cure for rheumatism; I bought three bottles, but before I got through with the third bottle I was cured and have not felt the least effect of Rheumatism since: It is undoubtedly the best remedy for Rheumatism I ever tried. I can cheerfully recommend it to the public. Yours truly,

D. M. CUNNINGHAM.

Cholerine in Pennsylvania.

Swickley, Penn.: We had an epidemic of cholerine, as our physicians called it, in this place lately and I made a great hit with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I sold four dozen bottles of it in one week and have since sold nearly a gross. This Remedy did the work and was a big advertisement for me. Several persons who had been troubled with diarrhoea for two or three weeks were cured by a few doses of this medicine.

Manners Sarsaparilla Co., Binghamton, N. Y.:
Gentlemen—I was told that Manners Double Extract Sarsaparilla would cure indigestion. I was skeptical, but tried one bottle and found such relief that I continued using it until cured. It cost me $2 only to rid myself of what I would willingly have paid $50 to be free from. Yours truly,
