Any one in possession of 25 cents can go to the nearest dealer in medicines and procure a bottle of Salvation Oil and be cured at once of rheumatism, neuralgia, or any pain or ache.

THINGS ill acquired are as badly expended.—Plautus.

THE WAY OUT

of woman's troubles is with Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Safely and certainly, every delicate weakness, derangement, and disease peculiar to the sex is permanently cured.

Out of all the medicines for women, the "Favorite Prescription" is the only one that's guaranteed to do what is claimed for it. In all "female complaints" and irregularities, periodical pains, displacements, internal inflammation or ulceration, bearing-down sensations and kindred ailments, if it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

So certain to cure every case of Catarrh is Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy that its proprietors make you this offer: "If you can't be cured, permanently, we'll pay you $500 cash."

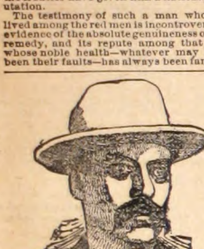
Proof From The Plains.

Story of a Government Scout and Interpreter.

Kickapoo Indian Sagwa, a Valuable Remedy Known to the Indians for Years and Highly Prized.

Many of our readers have probably heard of Capt. Frank D. Yates, whose exploits on the frontier have given him a national reputation.

The testimony of such a man who has lived among the red men is incontrovertible evidence of the absolute genuineness of this remedy, and its repute among that race whose noble health—whatever may have been their faults—has always been famous.



CAPT. FRANK D. YATES, GORDON, NEB.

His endorsement of it is still further proof of its effectiveness. Capt. Yates Writes as follows:—

GORDON, Nebraska, July 25.

I take great pleasure in recommending the Kickapoo Remedies, and have known of them among the Indians, as I have lived on the extreme western frontier for the past 30 years and am at present a Sioux Indian interpreter for the government.

My personal experience with Sagwa—which in Indian tongue means "THE BEST"—has been considerable, but one of the most wonderful effects from personal knowledge in my own case was the curing of Chronic Catarrh with which I became afflicted, owing to the great altitude of the country in which I had been living.

It did not at first occur to me to take Kickapoo Indian Sagwa for this trouble; and it was not until I had visited the Hot Springs, and I failed to obtain relief, and the disease had become so very alarming that I was afraid it would get the best of me and develope into consumption that I concluded to take Sagwa. I got one bottle of it and a bottle of Indian Oil. The effect was so marked that I immediately ordered twelve bottles of each, and now bless the day that the thought occurred to me, for I am entirely cured of that most disagreeable and distressing of all diseases.

I am satisfied I was cured owing to the perfect manner in which "Sagwa" purifies the blood; and I claim that Sagwa, taken in connection with Indian Oil, will positively cure the worst cases of catarrh ever known; and so far as the use of Kickapoo Indian Remedies as general family medicines are concerned, there is nothing on earth which can equal them.

FRANK D. YATES, Indian Interpreter.

CLOSE OF CONGRESS.

LONGEST DAY'S SESSION OF THE HOUSE.

Fight for World's Fair Grant the Chief Point of Interest—The Appropriations Passed After Being Greatly Reduced—Sunday Opening Dropped.

Time Lapsed Into History.

The last of the Fifty-second Congress is now history was of itself an interesting affair. Coming as it did with the death of one administration and the birth of another it was especially interesting. The last day's session was the longest of the two years. It began at 11 o'clock on Friday morning and ended twenty-five hours later at noon on Saturday. It was a long pull, but the members stood it well, and when at last the end came those of the House gave vent to a few cheers and then with the spirit of schoolboys rushed out of the chamber to secure advantageous places in the Senate chamber to view the swearing in of the new Vice President. From the time the session began on Friday until it ended the galleries were packed and jammed with as big and appreciative a crowd as ever looked down upon the face of Congress. Everything seemed to interest, and the good-natured Speaker exhausted his stock of threats in an endeavor to stop the applause which rewarded every oratorical effort and the laughter which greeted every bit of repartee. It may be said, parenthetically, that the laughter was not frequent. The members were tired of Congress, as was the country. Even Tom Reed permitted his political enemies to pepper him with verbal bullets without even stirring or glancing in the direction whence they came, and toward the end, when after asking for consent to take up a bill which he had been championing and which was of some public importance some insignificant member interposed an objection, Reed turned on his heel and went back to his seat without so much as seconding his friends, who were trying to induce the objector to withdraw his objection, then failed, and Reed turned and swapped a story with Bourke Cockran, who sat across the aisle, as usual twirling his keys around his thumb.

The discussion over the World's Fair was the chief point of interest during the session. As finally agreed to, the appropriations are as follows:

For Government exhibit, $150,750.

For commission, including $93,000 for Board of Lady Managers, $211,000.

For jurors, awards, etc., $570,880.

The last named appropriation is made, but it is also made a charge against the exposition, and the Government must be reimbursed by the 1st day of November next. Nothing was done or said about the Sunday opening amendment which O'Neil had intended to offer.

The vote of thanks was given to the Speaker just before the hands of the clock touched 12. The Speaker feelingly expressed his gratitude, and as the minute hands in the House and Senate lapped the hour hands the Vice President and Speaker raised their gavels, declared their respective chambers adjourned sine die, brought their gavels down upon their desks and the life of the Fifty-second Congress slipped into the past.

In the Senate Thursday the last amendment to the Indian bill, in relation to the Cherokee lands, was amended and agreed to. As amended it appropriates $8,595,000 to pay the Cherokees for the lands in question, of which $595,000 shall be payable immediately, and the remaining $8,000,000 shall be payable in five equal annual installments, commencing on March 4, 1894, and ending on March 4, 1898—the deferred payments to bear 4 per cent. interest. The bill was then passed. The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of the deficiency bill, and at 6 p. m. took a recess till 8 p. m. The Senate resumed its session at 8 p. m., and the reading of the deficiency bill was proceeded with, occupying about an hour. All the amendments reported from the committee on Appropriations were agreed to without question except the one to pay to the assignees of John Roach $28,160 for the labor and material furnished in completing the dispatch boat Dolphin. After discussion, the amendment was excluded on a point of order, and the bill was passed. The Senate, at 1:30 a. m., adjourned until Friday at 11 a. m. A fight was precipitated in the House when it reached those items of the sundry civil bill which appropriate about $1,000,000 for various branches of the Columbian Exposition. Originally the House had declined to include these items in the bill, but the Senate added them, and now they were before the House on the question of concurring in the Senate amendment. The conference committee had struggled over the disagreement, but were unable to secure a compromise, and they simply reported back to the House that there was no basis of agreement.

The conferees upon the sundry civil bill reached an agreement as to the World's Fair items, the only remaining points of dispute, at 3:40 a. m. Friday. The appropriations for that object are fixed as follows: For Government exhibits, $150,750; for the National Commission, including $93,000 for the Board of Lady Managers, $211,000. For jurors, awards, etc., the appropriation of $570,880 is made, but it is also made a charge against the Exposition, and the Government must be reimbursed by Nov. 1, next. The Senate adopted the conference report on the sundry civil bill. The McGarrahan bill was passed—yeas, 37; nays 12. In the House the chief matter in dispute was the Cherokee bill. The conference report was disagreed to by 57 to 93, and a further conference was ordered.

About Plants.

THE sweet olive was brought from China in 1771.

THE fly honeysuckle came from South Africa in 1752.

THE African sage came from South Africa in 1731.

THE dwarf magnolia came to Europe from China in 1786.

The gold plant was brought to Europe from Japan in 1783.

THE arctopus came from the Cape of Good Hope in 1774.

THE tea plant is Chinese; first seen by Europeans in 1768.

THE Cape olive came from the Cape of Good Hope in 1730.

ST. PETERSWORT is North America; first described in 1730.

COCOA grows wild in South America; taken to Europe in 1729.

THE golden bell flower came from the Madeira Islands in 1777.

HEATH is a South African plant, which came from Europe in 1774.

THE toothache tree is a South Carolinian; first noticed in 1739.

THE mountain tea is of North American origin; noticed in 1758.

THE snowdrop is indigenous to the Carolinas; described in 1765.

THE woolly leaved myrtle is from China; first described in 1776.

IT COSTS MORE to make Royal Baking Powder than any other, because its ingredients are more highly refined and expensive. But the Royal is correspondingly purer and higher in leavening strength, and of greater money value to the consumer. The difference in cost of Royal over the best of the others does not equal the difference in leavening strength, nor make good the inferior work of the cheaper powders, nor remove the impurities which such powders leave in the food.

Where the best food is required, the Royal Baking Powder only can be used.

His Charge for Securing a Pension.

In the old United States Court building in Boston about five years ago, General Butler was engaged in cross-examining witnesses in a very important case. He had examined a half-dozen with unusual severity, says the Boston Post.

A new witness was called. The right sleeve of his coat was empty and pinned up to the lapel, in which was the Grand Army button. General Butler's eye caught sight of it.

"Where did you serve, comrade?" he asked in a kindly way.

"I went out with the Eighth Massachusetts when you led us down through Baltimore, General," the old man answered in a shaky voice, "and served right through until I lost the arm at Fort Pike."

The General's face softened, and that soldier probably had the easiest examination that General Butler ever gave a witness. When the recess was taken Butler asked:

"How much pension do you get?"

"I don't get any," was the answer. "I tried for one, but the lawyer took what little money I had, and got nothing for me."

To make a long story short, the man had his claim put through and received a sum for back pay larger than any he had ever possessed. The morning that he got his money he thanked General Butler and said:

"General, will you take half of this?"

"Take half of it?" said the General. "Why, my friend, I have got a thousand times as much money as you have. Go back and put that in the bank. If you meet any more of the boys of the Eighth Massachusetts with whom life is going hard, and with whom Uncle Sam is not doing the right thing, tell them to come and see me."

The Ocean Depths.

The greatest known depth of the sea is in the South Atlantic Ocean, midway between the island of Tristan d'Acunha and the coast of Buenos Ayres la Plata. The bottom was there reached at a depth of 40,236 feet, or eight and three-quarters miles, exceeding by more than 17,000 feet the height of Mount Everest, the loftiest mountain in the world. In the North Atlantic Ocean, south of Newfoundland, soundings have been made to a depth of 4,680 fathoms, 27,480 feet, while depths equaling 34,000 feet, or six and a half miles, are reported south of the Bermuda islands. The average depth of the Pacific Ocean between Japan and California is a little over 2,000 fathoms; between Chili and the Sandwich Islands, 2,500 fathoms; and between Chili and New Zealand, 1,500 fathoms. The average depth of all the oceans is from 2,000 to 2,500 fathoms.

WHY continue the use of remedies that only relieve, when Ely's Cream Balm, pleasant of application and a sure cure for Catarrh and cold in head, can be had?

I HAD a severe attack of catarrh and became so deaf I could not hear common conversation. I suffered terribly from roaring in my head. I procured a bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and in three weeks could hear as well as ever, and now I can say to all who are afflicted with the worst of diseases, catarrh, take Ely's Cream Balm and be cured. It is worth $1,000 to any man, woman or child suffering from catarrh.—A. E. Newman, Grayling, Mich.

Too Smart.

A correspondent of the Youth's Companion vouches for a new story of Irish shrewdness.

A gentleman was sitting in the waiting-room of a station on the New York and New England Railroad, when an Irishman turned away from the ticket-office and came up to him.

"I have got the best of this cold corporation for once in me life," said he.

"How is that, Pat?"

"I have bought a round-trip ticket to New York and back, and"—in a whisper—"I ain't comin' back."
