

DR. TALMAGE'S SERMON.

THE GLORIES OF THE RESURRECTION DESCRIBED.

The Earth and Sea Shall Give Up Their Dead, and the Dead Shall Rise. Such as No Imagination Can Picture—The Glorious Body.

At the Tabernacle.

The subject of Rev. Dr. Talmage's Easter morning sermon was "The Sleepers Awakened," the text chosen being from I Corinthians xv, 20, "Now is Christ risen from the dead and become the first fruits of them that sleep."

On this glorious Easter morning, amid the music and the flowers, give up your Russian salutation. This morning Russian meeting Russian on the streets of St. Petersburg hails him with the salutation, "Christ is risen!" and is answered by his friend in salutation, "He is risen indeed!"

color? Why, I—sing down another flower seed, comes there up a flower of this color? One flower white, another flower yellow, another flower crimson. Why the difference, when the seeds look to be very much alike—the blood vessels are canals taking the breadstuffs to all parts of the system. We must be reconstructed hour by hour, day by day. Sickness and death are all the time trying to get their prey under the treatment, or to push the body into the grave.

No malaria in the air, no cough, no neuralgia twinge, no rheumatic pang, no fluttering of the heart, no shortness of breath, no physical distress, no hospital, no invalid's chair, no spectacles to improve the dim vision.

We walk now eight or ten miles, and we are weary, but in the resurrection we will have a wild beast, and we must run or fly or climb or dodge because we are incompetent to meet it; we toil eight or ten hours vigorously, and then we are weary, but in the resurrection we will have a body that never gets tired.

Plenty of occupation in Heaven. I suppose Broadway, New York, in the busiest season of the year at noonday is not so busy as Heaven in all its times.

It is characteristic of the human body that it is mortal. It is not a glorified thing that will never get weary.

Oh, blessed resurrection! Speak out, sweet flowers, beautiful flowers, while you tell of a risen Christ and tell of the righteous who shall rise.
