The candidates in Odell for president of the board are, John McWilliams, no-license, and Chas. Axt on a platform favoring the licensing of two $1000 saloons. It will be a fight to a finish, with McWilliams almost a sure winner.

Miss Florence E. Thompson, D. D. S., has opened an office in room 32, in Keplinger Block, in Dwight, where she is prepared to do all kinds of dentistry work. Miss Thompson is well known in this community, and is the daughter of John Thompson. Her many friends wish her unbounded success.

Fred Mowbray had the misfortune to have the finger nail on the first finger on his right hand tore completely off while playing ball the first of the week. As that is the particular finger he uses in feeding presses and setting type, he will be unable to work for some time. He visited his home in Streator the first of the week.

Gray Staunton, proprietor of the Dwight Art Co., has sold out to N. N. Mickleson. Mr. Staunton will remain in Dwight for some time and fill previous orders, etc. We have not heard where he intends to locate. Mr. and Mrs. Staunton have made many friends in Dwight who will be sorry to have them leave. Mr. Evans has concluded to enter into the viewing business exclusively, and he and Charlie Crandall will soon start out fully equipped.

The retiring members of the village board, Messrs. John Leach and W. H. Taylor, have indeed put in two years of hard work and have done their work well. Since they went on the board all the improvements have been made, and were new to them, and they have got along remarkably well, and certainly deserve the thanks of the community. They both feel very thankful to be relieved from their duties to the village.

S. T. K. Prime, who for the past six weeks has been on a western trip, returned home last week. During his absence he has been under the tender mercies of several capitalists representing millions of dollars and has been all over the west and came east on an inspection tour over the Southern Pacific railroad direct to New Orleans. He had a splendid trip and is healthy and happy. Mr. Prime brought back with him several fine moments of his trip which are very valuable.

The Ensor Cure.

James Kelagher has a letter in his possession from the secretary of the Ensor cure institute at Peoria, requesting him to lease a store in Keplinger block, and that they will move here and open business about May 1. Mr. Kelagher says he has leased the store for the company for $50 a month.
