Harry Lawrence returned Wednesday from a visit to Carmi and southern points in the state. He organized several clubs during his absence.

E. E. Fenn & Co. did a neat thing one day last week. As each patient came out of the treatment hall he was presented with a nice, large orange.

Dr. Broughton delivered a splendid lecture on "Morphine" at the club Wednesday morning. The club room was filled and much interest manifested.

There is a deaf and dumb young man in line now. He is very intelligent and full of fun. He wrote on a slip of paper the other day to one of the boys: "I made more noise than anybody when I used to get full."

The STAR AND HERALD is now prepared to print by-laws and constitutions for Keeley Leagues just as good and cheaper than any printing office in the United States. We have plates all ready except where there is reference to the local club. Send us an order for 500.

A Surprise:

Last Wednesday evening, the 6th inst., about twelve of the patients at the Keeley Institute who were especially assigned to the care and attention of Dr. Broughton, after receiving their last treatment at 8:30 p. m. for that day at the treatment hall, proceeded to Dr. Broughton's residence. There they were received by Mrs. Dr. Broughton, who assured them they were welcomed to the home of the doctor in question, in the gentle and lady-like manner for which she is noted. About 8:45 Dr. Broughton entered and at once beheld the faces which he but a few moments before met and gave treatment at the treatment hall. Mr. C. H. Williams having been selected by the patients to bestow upon the Doctor and his beloved family a small token of their regard for the Doctor's kind and untiring efforts to restore them each and all to a normal state of health through both the help of our Heavenly Father and the great Keeley cure, and once more return them to those dear ones at home many miles away. Mr. Williams arose and greeted the Doctor, and with a few feeling remarks upon the object of their presence in Dwight, and upon their good fortune in having been assigned to Dr. Broughton's care, complimenting the Doctor upon his most remarkable disposition, the interest he had manifested from day to day in each patient's case, had won for him not a mere feeling of regard but one of lasting love by the entire class for him, as a man and as a physician. Mr. Williams, in closing, said, that he believed when he said he had not in all his twenty years experience of misfortune and ill health, had never met Dr. Broughton's equal; that he universally spoke the true sentiment of ever member present. The offering was then presented, with the heartfelt wishes of every member present for Dr. Broughton and his family's future health and happiness and asking God to especially bless the Doctor in the noble work to which he had dedicated his whole mind and heart, and that his future may be one of brightness and joy.

Dr. Broughton arose and in a very feeling and eloquent manner accepted the offering in the same spirit as it was tendered. Then a good night was exchanged and the members departed for their various temporary homes, and Dr. Broughton proceeded to the Ladies Home upon his errand of mercy. M.
