Prof. Wilson and all his corps of teachers for another year. The schools are in excellent condition. O. C. Jensen has some bargains in improved farms in Iowa, Nebraska, and Southern Minnesota. Write or call and see him at No. 214 Waupun street, Dwight, Ill., if you want to go west.

There was a regular carouse in Walter Scott's cider joint last Saturday night, and the whole thing ended in a drunken fight. Scott's cider seems to be worse than the malt. The duty of the authorities is plain in this matter. Ed. Christian and A. Diefenbach will give a grand ball in Lyceum hall next Tuesday evening, the 25th. McFarland's orchestra, of Joliet, will furnish excellent music. Every lover of dancing is invited to be present. Tickets $1.

Stella Boniface, of the "Mr. Potter, of Texas" company, is a daughter of the well known actor, George C. Boniface. She was the last leading juvenile lady of Lester Wallack's Stock Company. At opera house next Saturday night. We have heard a number of people say that when Henry Fox was president of the village board before, that he caused some good work to be done on the main streets, especially West street. There is yet a splendid opening for his ability in that line.

Rev. E. F. Wright will preach at Congregational Church to-morrow at the usual time morning and evening. Mr. Wright is the first minister who has been sent to Dwight recently that has no charge, and he is at present open for an engagement. All interested in securing a pastor should be present tomorrow.

The company presenting "Mr. Potter, of Texas" this season includes such well known names as Henry Weaver, jr., Stella Boniface, J. B. Everham, Millie James, Georgia Busby, Stephen Wright, Hugh Gibson, Guy Nichols, Harry Brinsley and others, insuring a capital performance of "the greatest American play." At Dwight opera house the 29th, next Saturday.

A. C. Gunter, author of "Mr. Potter, of Texas," is one of the most widely known novelists of the day. His plays tell a story well, and his novels dramatize readily as his strength lies in rapid action, dramatic incidents and strong characters of familiar types. This celebrated play will be at the opera house in Dwight next Saturday night, the 29th of April.

W. S. Wray, of Kirkwood, Ill., representing Flanders, Fray & Clark, manufacturers of fine table cutlery and hardware, New Britain, Conn., was at the Livingston Wednesday with a fine lot of samples which he was showing to our dealers. While in Dwight Mr. Wray was the guest of his old townsman and friend, Willard S. Brown, of the Banner of Willard.

The ladies of Woman's Auxiliary Keeley League No. 1, are preparing a grand surprise for the Dwight public, in the shape of a very pretty entertainment, probably the finest home affair ever given here. One of the principal features will be a "Temperance Mother Goose." The entertainment will be given in about three weeks. The exact time and place will be announced later. Look out for it.

OPERA HOUSE. ONE NIGHT ONLY, SATURDAY, APRIL 29. "Mr. Potter of Texas." By A. C. GUNTHER, Author of "Mr. Barnes of New York."

Special Scenery and the New York Cast. POPULAR PRICES. This company having an off night, has filled it in here, and opens in Chicago, Sunday April 30th, for a run.
