

ON A GOLD BASIS.

Quite a number of new members were received during the week.

Secretary Brown is getting familiar with his duties, and is making friends and assists in getting new members.

Examine the date on the wrapper of your STAR AND HERALD. The price is $1.25 in advance. We do not wish to stop paper until notified, so please attend to the matter.

Every patient should join the League. The time will pass more pleasantly and agreeable acquaintances will be formed and the time spent here will be remembered as long as life lasts.

We have sent out several notices this week notifying subscribers of the expiration of the time the STAR AND HERALD is paid for. Please respond immediately. We need our money.

All members of the Keeley League are invited to call at headquarters of League No. 12, at 259 Dearborn st., room 200, Chicago, while in the city. There will be a bureau of information there and any information desired will be given regarding the World's Fair.

Editor Garlick of the Hopedale Review, made us a pleasant call Tuesday. He is a graduate of over a year's standing and is one of the faithful, and runs a good paper and is making and saving money, which he says is more than he could do before he visited Dwight for four weeks. The same old story.

The exercises Sunday morning were quite interesting, although the attendance was not what it should be. Quite a number were called upon for remarks. The music was excellent, and Miss Stella Flager presided at the piano. President Kraus made a few very nice remarks on the theme of the song sung "We Love to Tell the Story."

For valuable services rendered the Keeley League of Dwight at various times since its organization the following well known ladies of Dwight were made honorary members of the League at the Thursday morning meeting: Mrs. Jennie H. Ubellar, Mrs. Fred Faulkner, Mrs. May Faulkner-Brown, Misses Cora Adams, Lizzie Winkler, Minnie Lower, Minnie Barr, Ada Fenn, Mabel Huey, Mrs. Mildred Howlett.

We clip the following from the Gladstone, Mich., Delta, edited and published by H. L. Bushnell, a graduate of about a year ago:

The papers throughout the country are full of despatches announcing the cure, by Dr. Keeley, of his secret for the cure of inebriety. Dr. Keeley will do no such thing, of that the public can rest assured. An eastern syndicate has made overtures to get into the business and enlarge its scope, but should that be done the present company will retain control of the business and Dr. Keeley's formula will remain with its present holders "in trust for the wives and mothers of the world."

Pay a Fine or Take the Cure.

The senate of the state of Michigan is the first state representative body of law makers that has acknowledged Dr. Keeley's idea that the inebriate is a sick man. That body this week passed a bill providing that anyone arrested for habitual drunkenness should have the chance of imprisonment and paying a fine or going to a gold cure institute and receive treatment for the disease of inebriety. As Dr. Keeley is the first man to publicly announce and prove beyond a reasonable doubt that inebriety is a disease, the action of the Michigan senate shows how his views and the great work for practical temperance being accomplished by his cure, is being acknowledged throughout the world.

There is a fair prospect, the Chicago Tribune infers, for the bill to become a law. This action is only a forerunner of what is sure to take place in every state in the union in time. The bill does not discriminate, of course, as to what cure the patient shall take, but as the Keeley cure is the only one that has stood the tests under all circumstances, and never fails to accomplish its objects, the bill means, practically, if it becomes a law, that the Keeley cure will be adopted.

Indeed, it seems more and more, that Dr. Leslie E. Keeley has solved the great problem of temperance.

Tuesday's Entertainment.

One of the best entertainments ever given by Keeley League No. 1, was that of Tuesday evening at the treatment hall. The hall was completely filled with interested spectators. President J. J. Kraus presided in an able manner.

The entertainment was gotten up especially for a charitable purpose, and although no admittance was charged, the collection taken up when the entertainment was about half over, amounted to over $18.81, which was excellent and again demonstrated the generosity of the gentlemen here for treatment and also our town people who take an interest in charitable objects. The program was selected with care under the supervision of President Kraus and the amusement committee. Every selection received hearty applause.

Following is the program: Opening Hymn..... Audience Recitation..... Mrs. Brown Soprano Solo..... Mrs. Howlett Character Song..... Dr. Barnes Club Swinging..... Mr. Faulkner Collection..... C. H. Andrus Baritone Solo..... C. H. Andrus Recitation..... Dr. Barnes Soprano Solo..... Mrs. Faulkner Character Scene..... Prof. Wm. Fyson Solo..... J. J. Kraus Song..... "We wish to meet again."

[We wish to state that the family for which the collection was taken up, feel very thankful to all concerned, and their only wish is that they may be able to return the kindness shown them in some manner hereafter.—Ed.]
