

ON A GOLD BASIS.

We sent out several notices last week notifying subscribers of the expiration of the time the STAR AND HERALD is paid for. Please respond immediately. We need our money.

Subscription papers were circulated by some of the club members the first of the week to help the family of a needy patient. It was responded to with the usual generosity of the men here for treatment and the citizens generally.

The State Convention.

What place in the state of Illinois is more appropriate for the state convention of the Keeley League to be held in than Dwight. Almost all of the graduates of this state have been to Dwight and there is not one of them but likes to come back here. Dwight has a nice opera house for the convention to be held in; is the headquarters of No. 1, with almost 6000 graduates; the home of No. 1, W. A. K. L., and there are now nearly half a hundred resident graduates who would be glad to welcome the delegates.

The national convention will be held in Chicago in September and that will give all a chance to visit the world's fair, so there is no excuse for taking the state convention to the city. There is no place in the state for the convention to be held that would give as much general satisfaction as Dwight. Every graduate from the "mecca" has made some friends among the residents of Dwight, especially the physicians, whom they would be glad to meet again. If the convention goes elsewhere the delegates will be comparatively strangers, but if they come to Dwight they will all be "at home." Come to Dwight. We bid you welcome.

Tuesday's Entertainment.

The entertainment given Tuesday evening at treatment hall was well attended, and a good program was rendered. President Doherty opened the meeting by announcing that a collection would be taken up to assist the family of a worthy brother, and that ex-President Kraus, who has charge of the amusements, would preside. The collection was taken up about the middle of the performance and amounted to about $10. This, with what was raised previously, amounted to a little over $60, and will be a great help to a worthy man. There is no place on earth where a worthy cause for charity will meet with a heartier response than right in Dwight.

The following is the well rendered program: Opening. . . . . Everybody Recitation "The Cow and the Bishop" . . . . . Mrs. Brown Solo, "Oh Promise Me." . . . . Mable Huey Irish Character Song "McNally's Flats" . . . . . Oliver James Instrumental Duet . . . . . Messrs. C. Pabler and Chas. Hansen Character Sketch "Mrs. Brown at the Play" . . . . . Mr. Tyson Vocal Solo "One heart Divine" . . . . . Miss Adams Recitation "Coming to the fair" . . . . . Addie Fenn Solo and Chorus "When Mother Puts the Little Ones to Sleep" . . . . . Miss Winkler, Huey, Kraus and Manning

We'd like to tear aside the veil that hides futurity. And see what Rockford will be like in 1993. Will license rule the city then, or will the human race Be shot so full of Keeley's gold that rum will have no place. —Rockford Register.

Excursions will not be run frequently although this Columbian year is to be a great one for traveling and sight-seeing. The railroads are all preparing for the largest business in the history of the railroad in America. This extraordinary pressure on the railroad and steamboat lines will give the lines —both rail and water—a pretty stiff backbone and they will below in making excursion rates except for times and places where they are certain of doing a very large amount of business. There is one day, however, that everybody will have an excursion and that will be when the Adam Forepaugh Shows exhibit at Kankakee on June 3. Excursions will be run on all lines of travel and any information desired about them may be had from the nearest station. This will be good news for everybody who will want to see these great shows. That means everybody who has any idea of their extraordinary magnitude and merit. Nothing like them has ever been seen in this or any other country before, for besides the usual and standard features of circus, hippodrome, museum and menagerie, they contain this year a magnificent representation of the Scenes and Battles of 1776—the Revolutionary War. This is not an ordinary drama or panorama or spectacle. It is a combination of all kinds and forms of entertainment on a grand scale. Nearly 1,000 men, women and children take part, all of them correctly costumed in the uniforms and dresses worn by our ancestors at the time of the revolutionary war; cannons, guns, swords and all the accoutrements of war are used exactly as they were then; superb special scenery showing the celebrated scenes of the great events of the revolution; and with all this magnificent equipment the story of how the glorious heritage of freedom was won is told in living illustrations. The shows are replete with other novelties. The trained animal exhibition is something far beyond anything ever attempted. Then there is the famous trotting dog, Earl, with a fast record to a sulky; the bowing kangaroo; Jack; and a host of other entirely new features that are exhibited for the first time in America. Thus it will be seen that all will have extraordinary inducements to go to Kankakee on the Great Forepaugh excursions.
