Straw hats at twenty-five percent off and more, to move them, at E. T. Miller's. J. A. Webster has just received a car load of hard coal direct from Pennsylvania. The finest musical ever offered in Dwight will be here next Saturday night. Miss Lulu Cole returned home from Lockport Tuesday. Her health is very poor. Mrs. Thompson, of Joliet, is visiting this week with her mother, Mrs. Longe. Bruce Reierick and George Donagan were visitors to the world's fair city Sunday. Leach & Reeb have the exclusive sale of the celebrated Snag Proof rubber boots. Mrs. Blaine and Misses Gussie and Faye, visited Chicago the first of the week. The minstrel show at the opera house Thursday night had some excellent features and some that were not. There was a large audience and by the noise they made the inference would be drawn that they enjoyed the show. The street parade was witnessed by a large crowd. The best place to get your watch repairing done at reasonable prices, is at Guardianer's. Wanted—A piano at a moderate rental, and a furnished room. Address Jeltneth, Dwight. It is quietly intimated that it will not require an injunction to stop paving the streets. The rain Wednesday cooled the air and mankind some, but they are both hot again now. Don't forget to leave your order with J. A. Webster for your Braidwood coal and sewer pipe. Mr. and Mrs. Alex McKay, of Pontiac, spent Sunday with their son James and family. For rent.—A 160 acre farm, three miles north of Dwight. Cash rent with good security. Mrs. W. M. Weese went to Joliet Monday last, and will visit several weeks with relatives. "Now you see me and now you don't," show at the opera house next Wednesday evening, Aug. 23. The paving ordinance seems to have been pigeonholed until congress makes some kind of money. The fire laddies experimented with the hose Tuesday evening, and cleaned out several hydrants. Mrs. Dr. L. E. Keeley is entertaining niece, Miss Florence Dow, of Lexington, Mass., this week. Dr. White is now the only veterinary in Dwight, Dr. Conway having gone to Ohio to medical school. Dr. and Mrs. Barr have been entertaining Lloyd Barr, the doctor's brother, for a few days. Mrs. A. G. Haven and son George, of Langerfield, N. Y., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Faulkner. Thos. Weldon was in Chicago visiting Mrs. Weldon Sunday. She is under medical treatment there. Mr. Anson Riggs left Monday evening for Chicago, and from there will return to Brooklyn, N. Y. Produce checks from the Star Grocery taken in exchange for goods at Baker's Furniture Bazaar. Miss Clara M. Breese, of Bradford, Pa., is the pleasant guest of her cousin Mrs. Mae Faulkner-Brown. A little child of Mr. Morris in the country, broke her arm one day last week, falling from a fence. Miss Marie Koehlein left for Chicago Sunday, where she will visit her relatives and visit the fair for three weeks. Mrs. S. W. Bartholomew, of Cazenovia, N. Y., is spending the summer with her daughter, Mrs. F. P. Faulkner. Prof. Delmar, prestidigitator, will be at the opera house Aug. 23, next Wednesday evening. He comes highly recommended. Be sure and read the advertisement of the Mexican National Orchestra, probably the finest musical aggregation in this country. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Levi entertained Mrs. Mrs. Levi's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cohen, of Chicago, the first of the week. A team hitched to a new threshing machine became frightened the other day and came near running away, on Chippewa street. Conrad continues to keep a little lumber on hand all the time. Tell him what you want and he will find it in his yard all right. Quite a number of our grand army men and their wives will go to Indianapolis in September to attend the G. A. R. national reunion. Last Tuesday, the 15th, was "Lady Day" and services were held in the Catholic church in Dwight, and generally over the country. There is no tariff on coal at the 3-I. W. H. Taylor is selling soft coal cheaper than any one, delivered promptly to any part of the city. Give him a call. $2.75 per ton for good soft coal delivered is cheap, but $2.50 on the cars is cheaper. That's what you get at Conrad's. See him about your winter supply right away. A Chicago & Alton mail car was robbed at Springfield Saturday night. One of the sacks was pulled through an open door while the train was standing at the depot. Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Van Horn, Mr. James Riggs and Miss Sadie Riggs attended the wedding of their cousin Miss Sadie Clarkson, returning home Monday evening. Mrs. B. A. Buck returned home from an extended visit east last week. She was called to Pontiac almost immediately, however, on account of the serious illness of her father. The Modern Woodman order is the cheapest of any insurance organization, costing only about $1 a month for a $2,000 policy. For particulars inquire of any Woodman or at this office. One of the Chicago papers tells a pretty hard story on the ladies, while speaking of the quarrels of the lady managers at the world's fair meeting. It goes about this way: A preacher in Indiana said in one of his prayers: "The Lord made the world in six days and rested; on the seventh he made man and rested; on the next he made a woman and no one has had a rest since." Eyer Bros. have constantly on hand all kinds of plumber supplies, etc., and are always prepared to do the best work possible. Give them a call at their place of business on Mazon Avenue. Look at the date on the slip on your paper, and if your subscription is not paid, don't put it off, but pay immediately. It's no pleasure to us to dun but we must have our money to pay our debts. A person does not need much soft coal to keep warm this weather, but when you can get it for $2.75 per ton it is the time to lay in a winter's supply. Call on Conrad, the veteran lumber and coal dealer. The secretary of the Dwight Driving Park Association, has lots of letters from horse men, and there is sure to be a large number of horses at the races next Thursday afternoon. The tickets are only 25 cents. A little daughter of Theo. Lesser fell from a gate post last Friday and broke both bones of right arm below the elbow. She was taken to the office of the C. & A. surgeon, Dr. Conway and was made comfortable. Don't forget the Harvest Excursion to all points in the northwest, west, Southwest and south next Tuesday, Aug. 22nd and again Sept. 12th and Oct. 10th. Inquire at C. & A. ticket office for particulars. Harvest Excursions to all points in northwest, west, southwest and south, August 22nd, Sept. 12th and Oct. 10th. One fare plus two dollars for the round trip. For full particulars call at C. & A. ticket office. The rain we are having to-day is accounted for. Rainmaker Tryce, of Dwight was in the city over night, and the way he "fumed" at missing his train last evening caused the heavens to weep.—Streator Free Press. Yes, it is a fact that you will find the largest and finest assortment of wall papers, borders and decorations in Dwight. Our stock is larger than all others combined. We meet prices.—BAKER'S FURNITURE BAZAAR. Round trip, Chicago to World's Fair grounds, Jackson Park, 25 cents. These tickets are good on Illinois Central trains or boats either way or both ways at option of holder, and are now on sale at the C. & A. ticket office, Dwight. You can get the best home made bread at Geo. Kern's. Cakes, pies, etc., everything always fresh and nice. Also headquarters for nice, cooling temperance drinks, candy, nuts, and fruits of all kinds. Next to treatment hall. The fare to St. Paul and Minneapolis is now down to $7.50 from Dwight, via the C. & A. and Chicago. All points in Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, the Dakotas and the Pacific Coast correspondingly low rates. Now is the time to go west. For good World's Fair accommodations, stop at the Clarkdale, one half block from main entrance to the grounds. Everything new and first-class, rates reasonable. E. F. Bell, Chicago, Ill., 60th street, near Edgerton Avenue. Dr. J. E. Blaine is taking a week or ten days vacation somewhere. The doctor proposes to have a much needed genuine rest and is not going to let his "right hand know what his left is doing" for a week or ten days. A pleasant vacation is our wish, Doctor. Charlie Webster, an old Dwight boy, whose father was station agent here years ago, now of Buffalo, New York, is spending a week among friends, and enjoying himself immensely. He has only been here once in thirteen years and of course notices quite a change. Will Morris' big team took a dash west on Mazon avenue with the heavy sprinkler wagon, Tuesday. Horses are chumps to run away with threshing machines and sprinkler wagons this hot weather. The next thing we expect to hear of is that Dick Roe's team has run off with a house. Prof. Delmar in his wonderful sleight of hand business, Kentucky Bros., champion fancy acrobatic rifle shots of the world, Melville, the human snake, singers, dancers and comedians Alice and Daisy Hastings in songs and fancy dancing at the opera house next Wednesday evening, the 23d. Miss Lottie Thompson a former resident of Dwight has rented a flat at No. 550, 63rd St. Englewood, and has a limited number of very pleasant rooms at reasonable rates for her friends who wish to be conveniently located to the world's fair and who wish to secure pleasant quarters in advance. Mr. John Pettett and daughter, entertained a sister of Mrs. Pettett's, Mrs. Ann Hopper, from New Jersey, recently for several weeks. This is their first visit since the death of Mrs. Pettett, nineteen years ago, at the home of the lady in New Jersey, and was highly appreciated all around. We received a circular letter last week from J. S. Saul, editor of the Pontiac Leader and Bert Baker, deputy county clerk, announcing the fact that they were about to compile a Livingston county directory, containing the names of every tax payer in the county.

This will certainly be a valuable book, and contain much information. It is proposed to issue the work about October 15, and it should be in every library in the county. The English Bell Ringers are booked for the Dwight opera house, Oct. 16 1893. This is a splendid musical organization, and is under the management of the Redpath Lyceum Bureau, which is a surity of the good character of the company. The manager, Melton Gunckel, made us a pleasant call Tuesday. Runaways seem to be the order of the week. Sam McLane we understand was driving near Oak Lawn this week, and his team became frightened at a threshing machine, and while trying to manage them one of his children and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McLane were thrown out and quite seriously injured. The people of Dwight are indebted to Mr. W. H. Thomas and Chas. L. Romberger for booking the Mexican National Orchestra for Dwight, Saturday evening, Aug. 26. This musical organization is supported by President Diaz's wife, who sent them to the world's fair, and are not to be excelled by anything in the world. The prices are very reasonable. Some people think it strange that newspapers are always dunning subscribers. There is nothing strange about it. Anyone with ordinary sense ought to know that they wouldn't do it if they didn't need their money, and subscribers would pay up promptly. The amount is so small that it is a great deal of trouble and work to send bills to each, and so the newspaper man uses his paper for the purpose. We have bills that in all decency should be paid and cannot pay them because delinquents do not come to the front as they should. The W. F. M. society of the M. E. church gave an elegant "Missionary Tea" in the honor of the ladies Mission society, of Congregational church, Thursday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. Fenn. It was announced to be held at Mrs. I. Baker's, but the sickness of that lady prevented. There were a large number present and a very agreeable and pleasant afternoon was spent, and lots of good things were served to eat. This is the second time these societies have met together, the first tea having been served at Mrs. Adams' residence, and were both productive, of much good, and we hope to see them continue. The following program was rendered and elicited much applause: Singing, "Far and Near the Fields;" Scripture Reading; Prayer; Quartette, "The Roll Call;" Reading, Miss Addie Fenn; Solo, Miss Barnum; Instrumental Duet, Mrs. Haise and Mrs. Naffziger; Essay, Mrs. Miller; quartette, "The Rusty Sickle," Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Haise, Miss Addie Fenn. Mexican National Orchestra. The Mexican National orchestra, which is playing a week's engagement at the Grand Opera house, has proved itself in the two concerts so far given one of the best musical organizations that ever appeared in Kansas City says the Times. It's music is delightful and refined, and the effect novel and pleasing. There is not the volume of sound usually expected in orchestral music, but the results are not marred by this and classic music is robbed of its heaviness with destroying the artistic form. The instrumentation numbers only ten pieces—six strings, two reeds and two brass. Ten brass instruments are a cornet and an alto horn. The members of the orchestra wear the pictureave uniform of the Mexican military, and a bright scarf over the left shoulder. During the performance all except the harpist and the cellist, stand. Their high-topped brigandish looking hats rest, on the floor beside the music racks. Senor Alverdo, the leader, in his solos exhibits a technical skill of high degree. He wields a singularly light bow, and is a violinist of ability. Mr. E. N. Knight, the basso, has made a reputation in grand opera. He was formerly one of the leaders of the Emma Juch Opera Company. Last night he gave two songs "Anchored" and "Thursday." By special request the following programme was repeated: Mazocha—"Un Salud a Chicago".....Alvarado Waltz—"Jaria".....Ardita Overture—"Gullerimo Tell".....Rosini Danza—"Lotos del".....Alvarado Solo—"Anchored".....Mr. E. N. Knight Polka—"Brisas".....Alvarado Overture—"El Postay y el Aidauro".....Suppe Cancion....."Variada para Violin".....Lohger Solo—"La Golorina".....E. N. Knight Waltz—"Lupo".....Alvarado Moving South. Convenient markets, good soil, pure water and excellent climate are advantages to be considered when looking up a home, business location, farm, etc. Maryland and the Virginias afford these, with many more advantages.
