Next to treatment hall. The fare to St. Paul and Minneapolis is now down to $7.50 from Dwight, via the C. & A. and Chicago. All points in Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, the Dakotas and the Pacific Coast correspondingly low rates. Now is the time to go west. For good World's Fair accommodations, stop at the Clarkdale, one half block from main entrance to the grounds. Everything new and first-class, rates reasonable. E. F. Bell, Chicago, Ill., 60th street, near Edgerton Avenue. The writer was in Chicago Thursday and made business calls on several large houses, and in answer to direct questions as to the financial situation, all answered that the situation was a little easier. They all appeared more cheerful, and thought the outlook brighter. Judge Arnold, manager of the Keeley Institute at Lampasas, Tex., is in Dwight this week on business with The Leslie E. Keeley Co., and giving the Texas grip to his many friends. The Judge will be a conspicuous figure at the national convention in Chicago next month. Col. J. B. Parsons is an aid-de-camp on the staff of Gen. Blodgett, commander of the Illinois Department G.A.R., and the Colonel and Major C. J. Judd will go to the national encampment at Minneapolis on the headquarters train from Chicago on Monday, Sept. 4th. Quite a number of the other veterans from Dwight will attend. Rev. Fisher has been granted a vacation from his labors in the Congregational church. This was much needed by that gentleman, as he is an indefatigable worker, and needed the rest. Mr. Fisher is doing a grand work in Dwight, and has the friendship and good will of all who have become acquainted with him. Their many friends wish Rev. and Mrs. Fisher a pleasant and healthful vacation. The M. E. Conference will meet in about two weeks, when the usual changes will take place. Rev. A. M. Conard has been in Dwight for the past two years, and during his stay he and his excellent wife have endeared themselves to his congregation and all others of our citizens who became acquainted with them. Mr. Conard is an excellent christian gentleman, and whether he should come back to Dwight, or be assigned elsewhere, he will have the best wishes of the people of Dwight, regardless of denominations.

Miss Madge Owens is visiting her uncle's people in Henry, Ill. Miss Mable visited in Chicago this week. Miss Bertha Brown, of Los Angeles, Cal., and Miss Sadie Saddler, of Joliet, are guests of Mrs. W. M. Weese this week. Byron Gregory, of Normal, stopped at Dwight to visit his sister, Mrs. F. W. Liggett, while on his way to the world's fair city. Mrs. Gould, who went east with Mrs. B. A. Buck, returned this week from a pleasant visit, and will resume her duties in school next week. A person does not need much soft coal to keep warm this weather, but when you can get it for $2.75 per ton it is the time to lay in a winter's supply. Call on Conrad, the veteran lumber and coal dealer. Mrs. Lou Berry, of St. Joseph, La, formerly Miss Lou Baker, of Dwight, accompanied by her sister, Miss Gertrude Baker, is the guest of Mrs. Geo. F. Pettett. It has been eighteen years since Mrs. Baker left our city. Fred Mowbray, secretary of the Woodmen, is visiting his home in Streator. During his absence all assessments should be paid to Mr. Bower at the express office. The assessment must be paid before the first or members will be suspended. Mrs. Jesse Hubbard and two boys, Willie and Wiley, visited friends over Sunday. Mrs. Hubbard will be remembered as the wife of Prof. J. Hubbard who was for several years Supt. of our public schools. Prof. H. is now located at Menominee, Mich. Master Arthur Heise gave a party Monday afternoon to which 25 little folks were invited. A delightful time was enjoyed by all present. Refreshments were served and the little folks all went home wishing they could attend a birthday party every week. Among those we noticed on the early morning train Illinois day were Mr. Vickery, J. J. Hahn, E. T. Miller, A. R. Zimmerman, J. Webster, Bruce Rearick, Fred Steffen, Dan Hurlay. There were so many we could not catch all of them and some we didn't know their names. The excursion rates from Dwight to Indianapolis, on account of the Nation al Encampment G. A. R., will be $7.25 for the round trip. Tickets will be sold August 30th and September 1st, 2d and 3d, return limit thirty days. Stop over privileges at Chicago, going and returning. Mrs. Chas. Britsch started Wednesday morning for her home in Ida Grove, Iowa, after spending two months here with her sister, Mrs. E. A. Radcliff and other relatives. Previous to coming here she and husband spent two months in Harrisburg, Pa., being called there to the burial of Mr. Britsch's father. We notice in the Pontiac papers that a license to wed was issued to Miss Anna Martin and J. W. Kelly, both of Dwight. These young people were quietly joined in wedlock one day last week by Rev. Fisher at his residence. Mr. Kelly is employed at the Livingstone. We join the happy couple's friends in extending congratulations, and wish them joy and prosperity. Prof. Delmar and his aggregation have come and gone. The Kentucky Brothers, with the Wild West hair and general cow boy appearance, attracted considerable attention, but the show did not draw. It was a fair performance. The small patronage was probably on account of the high class entertainment to be given to-night. Notice. I hereby notify all parties that if any goods are sold to H. A. Moyer for the firm of Heppner & Moyer, threshermen, of Nevada, Ill., that I will not in any way be responsible for the payment of the same. HENRY HEPPNER. A Very Nice Restaurant. Nothing pleases the average man better than to have nice things to eat, and nice, neat places to eat in. The place in Dwight of that kind, and the most talked of at present, is Kyle's restaurant in Mazon block. The restaurant is handsome, neat, roomy and cool in summer and warm in winter. Mr. and Mrs. Kyle have had long experience in restaurant and hotel work, and are perfectly competent to supply the inner man with anything demanded. They have been in Dwight about one year, and have many friends. They conducted the restaurant on East street for some time, and last week leased the handsome store rooms on the first floor of the Mazon. Mr. Kyle will pay particular attention to the wants of all customers, and especially so to Sunday dinners. Families, private parties or individuals may make their wants known Saturday or earlier in the week, and Mr. and Mrs. Kyle will see to it that everything is secured that is ordered, and in first-class shape. This is certainly a great accommodation this hot weather, and will be taken advantage of by those who wish to give their wives a rest from their labors, and can afford it. Mr. Kyle's rates will be reasonable and in just proportion to what is ordered. Lunches and meals served night or day. Choice brands of cigars constantly on sale. Mr. and Mrs. Kyle are very clever people to do business with, and we take pleasure in recommending them.

If You Are Going To THE WORLD'S FAIR you should begin at once to inform yourself on the subject, so that you may use your time there to the best advantage. You will not be able to see everything—you may see what you are specially interested in if you go there informed at the beginning. If You Are Not Going To THE WORLD'S FAIR you should do the next best thing—know as much as possible about it. If you can't see it you can at least read about it. In either event you imperatively need a daily paper from the World's-Fair city—you need a Chicago daily, and

The Chicago Record Will meet your need.
