Keep your lights well trimmed and your vessels filled with oil, and the place to get your oil is from Mr. Howe, who will call on you with his wagon. Miller Bros. will sell their new stock of goods as low as any firm in Chicago. There is no use for anyone to go to the city for bargains. Don't forget this. There is no tariff on coal at the 3-1. W. H. Taylor is selling soft coal cheaper than any one, delivered promptly to any part of the city. Give him a call. A son of Mr. Moyer, six miles north-west of Dwight, fell and broke his arm through the elbow joint, producing a serious fracture. He was brought to Dr. Conway's office and the fracture reduced. Since Dr. Conway has been in our town he has gained an enviable reputation as a careful surgeon. J. H. Smith lost forty-five tons and Wm. Waring eighteen tons of hay near Pontiac last week by fire. It caught from a spark from a Wabash locomotive. Miss Bertha Brown and Miss Sadie Sadler, who have been visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. Weese, left for Joliet Thursday morning, after a pleasant visit. There will be a meeting of the stock holders of the Dwight Driving Park Association at John Thompson's office next Wednesday evening. Every member must be present. Mr. Lower, of Kansas, brother of Sam, visited here this and last week. He was enroute to the G. A. R. encampment at Indianapolis. He says crops are fair in Kansas. There is no time when a good live advertisement will be read with as much interest as when money is scarce. People want to get all they can for what they have. John Smith, of Kansas, brother of Frank, has been visiting here for some days. He has been teaching school in Kansas for some years and looks well and hearty. Lieutenant Colonel J. B. Parsons will go to Chicago Monday and go to Indianapolis on the Illinois Department headquarter train to the national encampment. Chas. L. Romberger's announcement this week should be read by all. Next week he will present his real estate lists and there are sure to be some choice bargains offered. Presiding Elder Haney preached a very interesting sermon at M. E. church Sunday morning last, the occasion being the regular quarterly meeting. The attendance was large. The paving ordinance was chloroformed at the last meeting of the village board. If the board will also chloroform the mud when it comes and lay it away, it will be all right. Quite a number of entries have already been made for the races next Thursday. The association will make better arrangements for the next races. The last ones were the first of the season. Miss Callie Brackett, of Chicago, formerly a resident of Dwight, visited friends here this week. She was at one time in the employ of the DWIGHT STAR in the palmy days of Charles Palmer. Mr. and Mrs. James Pringle and daughter, of Eddyville, Iowa, are guests of Mrs. Archie Dunlap. They are old residents of Dwight and are renewing old acquaintances and forming new ones. Geo. Herivaneck killed Stephen Teplicki with a club at No. 3 shaft near Streator, last Sunday. The shaft is in Livingston county, and the murderer is jail in Pontiac. Whiskey was the cause. Eyer Bros. have constantly on hand all kinds of plumber supplies, etc., and are always prepared to do the best work possible. Give them a call at their place of business on Mazon Avenue. Look at the date on the slip on your paper, and if your subscription is not paid, don't put it off, but pay immediately. It's no pleasure to us to dun but we must have our money to pay our debts. The old settlers picnic at Lacon last Thursday was attended by several from Dwight and vicinity. Will Hagerty went over. Will is not a very old settler, but he settled here about as long ago as he could. Ed. McWilliams returned Tuesday from an extended visit to Michigan and northern points. He has a good healthy color and is feeling well and enjoyed his vacation, and tells very reasonable fish stories. The Ladies' Quartette, consisting of Mrs. Howlett, the Misses Lower, Winkler and Huey, have been invited to sing at an entertainment to be given in Central Music Hall on Sept. 14, by Keeley League. We take it for granted that everyone is in favor of increasing the circulating medium at present. If any such owe us anything please pay and we will guarantee that it will be kept in circulation. We owe a man. Miller Bros. have been in Chicago this week purchasing a large stock of goods of every grade for cash. They will arrive during next week and will sold for hard time prices for cash. Be sure and see them. Prof. J. H. Meneely, late principal of the Kinnmund, Ill., schools arrived in Dwight last week. He has been employed as principal of the East Side school. He is a pleasant gentleman and comes highly recommended. Harvest Excursions to all points in northwest, west, southwest and south, August 22nd, Sept. 12th and Oct. 10th. One fare plus two dollars for the round trip. For full particulars call at C. & A. ticket office. David McLane has gone and done it, much to the surprise of his friends. He was married last July to a lady in Valentine, Nebraska. The lady was a widow with three children, so it will be seen that Dave has a good start in life. He visited here last week looking well and hearty. He was enroute from Springfield, Ill., where he had been to pass examination to teach in an Indian school near his new home. The real estate business seems to be looming up. Ketcham & Smith have been doing a large business the past few weeks. This proves that there is nothing like hustling, advertising and giving good bargains. The quilt club of Chenoa has petitioned the city council to erect an electric light over their grounds so they can pitch quilts until nine o'clock. Our quilt ground is quite well illuminated at Johnnie Guardian's corner. Round trip, Chicago to World's Fair grounds, Jackson Park, 25 cents. These tickets are good on Illinois Central trains or boats either way or both ways at option of holder, and are now on sale at the C. & A. ticket office, Dwight. I want 12 good men to go out to Iowa with me on Sept. 12 to buy some of the 47 farms I have for sale, from $10 to $50 per acre. Round trip ticket is only $11.96. Call and see me at 214 Waupansa street or write to me, Box 522, O. C. Jensen. You can get the best home made bread at Geo. Kern's. Cakes, pies, etc., everything always fresh and nice. Also headquarters for nice, cooling temperance drinks, candy, nuts, and fruits of all kinds. Next to treatment hall. The fare to St. Paul and Minneapolis is now down to $7.50 from Dwight, via the C. & A. and Chicago. All points in Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, the Dakotas and the Pacific Coast correspondingly low rates. Now is the time to go west. For good World's Fair accommodations, stop at the Clarkdale, one half block from main entrance to the grounds. Everything new and first-class, rates reasonable. E. F. Bell, Chicago, Ill., 60th street, near Edgewater Avenue. The proprietors of the STAR and HERALD and all newspaper proprietors in the west, have been notified by Chicago supply houses that they must pay cash. All bills and subscriptions due this office MUST be paid promptly from this time on. When money is tight people are always looking for bargains, and they look the STAR AND HERALD through for them. Mr. Merchant, if you sell goods cheap, say so and benefit the people, yourself and lastly, your home newspaper. Mr. and Mrs. E. Harrison and family have been the guests of Mrs. Harrison's parents, and brother Frank and wife, this week. They left the children here and visited the world's fair. Mr. Harrison says business is dull in Streator. A. R. Zimmerman has purchased a printing plant at Lemont, Ill., and took possession yesterday. There is a good opening there and Al will undoubtedly do well. He will live in Dwight for the present on account of the scarcity of empty houses in Lemont. Charlie Crandall and Ed Reeb will give a grand harvest ball at Lyceum hall the night after the races—Thursday of next week, the 7th. Good music and lots of fun. Come to Dwight to the races and then shake your foot at the ball. It's a good thing. We see by the Chicago papers that John McWilliams has captured several premiums at the great stock show at the world's fair. Wednesday he was awarded third prize among a large number for the finest coach stallion between two and three years old. A. R. Zimmerman's interest in the Dwight Star and Herald has been sold to J. F. Wassell. The publishers are now Dustin & Wassell. The Star and Herald is an excellent paper, and The Leader wishes it renewed energy under its new management.—Pontiac Leader. Rey, and Mrs. Fisher returned Tuesday from a weeks outing near Wilmington. They had a very pleasant vacation but we are sorry to state, Mr. Fisher's health is not much improved. He will finish his vacation at home and his many friends hope he will improve in health rapidly. Dr. McLaughlin, of the Keeley Institute at North Adams, Mass., visited Dwight this week, while on his vacation. The genial doctor reports lots of patients in the east and perfect success with the cure. He also visited his old home in Rockford and goes to Brooklyn before his return. The Modern Woodman Camp of Dwight is in receipt of an invitation to attend a basket picnic and log rolling at Wilmington, Ill., Tuesday, Sept. 12. We understand all camps along the line of the Alton road near here have been invited. They will undoubtedly have lots of fun. KYLE'S RESTAURANT. Dinner, Sunday, Sept. 3, 1893. Oyster Soup. Slaw.
