

Call For Convention.

The Illinois Keeley leagues will meet in convention at Mecca Hotel, Monday, Sept. 11, at 2 p. m.

Vacancies in office to be filled, and other important matters.

The Entertainment.

The league entertainment Tuesday evening was very fine...

Mrs. Dr. Ubellar and Mr. Major then favored the audience with a very fine duet.

The Chinese specialties by Messrs. Baker and Kirk were very laughable and pleasing to the audience.

Johnnie Koehler gave an excellent piano solo and presided at the piano very ably.

Two vocal selections by little Masters and Misses Haise and Naffziger were loudly applauded.

Mr. Coddington gave two excellent readings, and Mr. Shanklin rendered a highly appreciated solo.

Mr. Tolty, however, caught the house with a lively topical song "Very Near It," in which he interspersed some funny local hits.

The Mendelssohn Quartette, successors to the great "Sextet" caught the house with a very nicely rendered song.

The entertainment closed with a chorus.

There was a very large crowd present and all enjoyed the evening.

ON A GOLD BASIS.

Mr. Carlson and Mr. Stout, two very pleasant gentlemen, were elected vice-presidents of the League Thursday morning.

The numbers of the new leagues in Chicago are 40 and 41.

Every graduate that possibly can should attend the great convention in Chicago.

The membership of the League for the month of August has been the largest for three months, which speaks well for the workers.

A letter to the STAR and HERALD from N. Lucius, Jr., of White Birch, Wis., enclosing "the price," says he graduated Dec. 27, 1891, and never has had the least desire for any kind of liquor and he never felt better in his life.

Please pay for your paper if you have not. You know the times are hard and we need your subscription.

Remember that ten per cent of all money paid for rooms or board at the Mecca goes toward paying convention expenses...

Keeley League No. 1, of Dwight, will establish headquarters at the Mecca in Chicago during the convention under the management of Secretary Willard S. Brown.

Chas. E. Banks, of the Banner of Gold, and J. J. Flinn, of Chicago, were present at the league Monday morning and made encouraging remarks.
