We join their many friends in wishing them a pleasant and profitable school year. Miss Myrtle Martin and Miss Addie Baker leave next week for Oxford, Ohio to attend school. This will be their second year and they like it very much. Pleasant and successful school days, girls. There will be quite a Dwight colony at school at Oxford the coming year. Mr. and Mrs. J. Bayless, of Iowa, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fenn and family this week. Mrs. Bayless will be remembered by many of our readers as Miss Van Pelt, the estimable young lady who had charge of the trimming in Mrs. Fenn's millinery establishment last year. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Levy and the children will leave tomorrow for Chicago, where Mrs. Levy will visit relatives for a month and Gus will spend a week at the national Keeley convention as an alternate and also the great fair. They will reengage in housekeeping upon the return of Mrs. Levy and the children. Geo. S. Baker has sold his handsome residence to Joseph Burnham for $6,000 cash. The boom in Dwight has subsided, and there will never be another, but there is plenty of good healthy prosperity here as such sales indicate. Good prices for good property means permanent prosperity, and that is better than booms. Advertisers Letters, Dwight Post Office, Sept. 6.—Isaac J. Abbott, C. A. Baxter, Walter P. Erwin, Thos. Glenn, Peter Cassamar, Mrs. Francis Gordon, William Hange, Hattie Hunt, Rasmus Handwitz, Chas. Jones, R. L. James, Perry Knapp, Howard McCall. Mrs. Cassie Riley, Mr. Chas. Riley, Peter Schwamy, B. F. Underwood. It is said that W. H. Thomas, theatrical man who was in Dwight for some time, has made a contract with the Mexican orchestra for the season. If he does not use them any better or more honorable than he did several people in Dwight, the orchestra will be out of luck. We shall have more to say regarding his transactions here, next week. A report has been circulated by some malicious cuss to the effect that the Pennsylvania House did not keep a hotel any more. Mr. Sam. Lower says this is a lie. He has one of the best appointed houses in Dwight, and his table is not excelled by any and his terms are very reasonable. Mr. Lower is at all times prepared to do a general transient hotel business, or take weekly or day boarders at living rates. The W. F. M. S., of the M. E. church, met with Mrs. Jas. Brown last Saturday afternoon. It was the regular monthly meeting, and also the election of officers for the year. After the election of officers and a short literary program, Mrs. Brown invited the ladies (twenty-one in number) out to her dining room where she had served a most excellent supper. The afternoon was indeed enjoyable to all who were fortunate enough to be among the party. There will be a two days race meeting, Sept. 28 and 29, under the auspices of the Dwight Racing association, provided the business men of Dwight give the organization some encouragement. There will be a large crowd here over night and they are parties that will spend money. A committee will call on the business men and ask them to assist in raising a purse that will attract the attention of the owners of the best horses in the state. Dwight can just as well have good races as any place in the country. About a dozen young ladies hid themselves away to Geiger's grove last Friday, and maybe you think they didn't have a good time. They were all girls and they laid aside the restraints of society and made Rome howl for the time being. They talked, screamed, laughed and sang so much that Geiger's grove resounded with all kinds of echoes yet. They took with them hammocks, swings etc., and everything good to eat, including ice cream, cake, etc. The girls say they had "just more fun than anybody." Who said girls couldn't have a good time by themselves? It's not so, is it, girls? A Nice Sunday Dinner. The Sunday dinner scheme inaugurated by Mr. and Mrs. Kyle at the new Mazon Restaurant, has proved very popular and successful. Last Sunday they had a large patronage, of whom all spoke very highly of the service in every particular. The husband should give his wife a rest on the day of rest and take his family to the Mazon to dinner. Read the bill of fare in another column. To the Ladies. We have several fine fall wraps on hand which we will close out regardless of cost for the next 10 days, do not fail to look at them. Miller Bros.

Brown-Van Eman. The editor of the STAR AND HERALD is in receipt of the following announcement, which speaks for itself, and vouches for the fact that even Madame Rumor sometimes tells the truth: "Jas. L. Van Eman, Mary Olive Brown, Married, Wednesday, Sept. 6, 1893, Kewanee, Illinois. At Home, Dwight, Illinois, after Sept. 20, 1893." This is all we are informed of regarding the wedding, but know of course that everything passed off pleasantly. Mrs. Van Eman, nee Brown, is said by all who have met her, to be an excellent young lady, possessing those charms of character that endear her to all. Mr. Van Eman, or "Van," as he is familiarly known, is known by everyone in and near Dwight. He is a pleasant, honorable, christian gentleman, and no young man in this community is more highly and justly respected than he. The STAR AND HERALD takes great pleasure in joining the people of Dwight in congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Van Eman, and wishes them a prosperous and happy future. KYLE'S RESTAURANT.
