

HER LONG BROUGHT AT LAST BROKEN.

to Hill Dalton at Work Again?—McKinley and Jackson at Work—Coffin Will Not Run—Pennsylvania Town Is Offered at Auction.

—Until Tuesday night the memory of the last shower at Chicago was but a dream. The just and the unjust were dry as the Congressional Record.

—A whole town for sale, lands, houses, hotels, post-offices, factories, everything in the place looking for the lots for salting sheep, and the surrounding prairie yawning with crevasses cavernous in depth and appalling in width.

—The weather bureau announced that there would be no rain until October, and this descended, the floods came, and the parched citizens' faces absorbed moisture enough to wear a smile rivaling that of a simian.

—Bill Dalton is said to have been in Chicago recently, and the police are inclined to think he engineered the Lake Shore robbery.

—The Ohio Republican State campaign was inaugurated at Akron with a speech by Governor McKinley.

—L. S. Coffin, nominated for Governor by the Prohibitionists, is said to have been in Chicago recently, and the police are inclined to think he engineered the Lake Shore robbery.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

CRIME AND CASUALTY.

—At Minneapolis, Cashier M. J. Hofford of the Bank of Minneapolis, committed suicide in a park in a house that he took his life because of sensitive nerves over the absconding of Paying Teller Phil M. Fehlig Saturday with $15,000 of the bank's money.

—Cashier Blackley, of a Delta, Col. bank, was killed by robbers. Two of the highway-men were killed by a resident.

—J. A. Jenkins, the defaulting Treasurer of Clarke County, Indiana, has been arrested at Louisville. Jenkins' shortage amounts to $23,000.

—Three men held up a St. Louis and San Francisco express near Pacific, Mo., and blew open the door of the express car with dynamite.

—Mike Kellett shot and killed Will Kelley at Louisville, Ky., at Ramon's pipe shop. The shooting was the result of an accident, and the police say at two shots were fired it certainly must have been murder.

—Trinidad, Col. dispatch: Henry Grillo, a Frenchman, was surrounded by the Mexicans on the Vermijo, came in Thursday night and reported that he and one other of the five escaped to Catskill, whence he came to ask Sheriff Kreger for help to relieve his three companions.

—Louis Sherwood, an railroad contractor at Yankton, S. D., while in delirium told of having choked Mrs. Minnie C. Sawyer to death, and the finding of property where he claimed to have deposited it substantiates his story.

—Mrs. Wilson Berry was shot and fatally wounded by a neighbor woman, Mrs. John Scott, and young Berry was shot and killed by the Scott woman's son.

—At Warren, Ark., John Powell was shot and instantly killed by some one in ambush. Suspicion points to Bill Beavers as the perpetrator of the deed, as he and Powell had been on bad terms.

—Walter Halston, better known as "Rattlesnake Halston," a snake charmer, was killed by a large rattlesnake Sunday. Halston was preparing to go into the big show window in front of the museum, where he gives his performances.

—The House of Representatives at Washington has adopted the new code of rules and is ready to proceed to the consideration of general business.

—The second child of the President will not be named Grover Cleveland second. It is said to be Ruth.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

lumber docks were saved. The mill was burned in 1866, rebuilt in 1873, and had a capacity of 28,000,000 feet. Loss, $100,000; insurance, $25,000.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Hamilton Fish, Secretary of State in the Cabinet of General Grant, died on Thursday morning at his country home at Garrison, N. Y.

—Obituary: At Boston, John S. Dwight, the musical critic, aged 80.—At Cleveland, Ohio, Vice President of the North Ohio Agent of the Lake Shore Railroad, aged 55.—At Baltimore, Adam Tzetz, Jr., the musician and composer.—At Montreal, Mrs. Elizabeth McNeil, aged 110.

—Richard M. Hooley, the veteran Chicago theatrical manager, is dead. Surrounded by his family he passed quietly on Friday afternoon at his home, 200 West Washington Street.

—The National League hold the positions shown below in the race for the pennant:

Table with 2 columns: Team Name and Win-Loss Record.

—The Colorado Republican State Committee has decided to act with the Republican party organization in all matters save the silver question.

—Massachusetts Populists have nominated the following State ticket: Governor, Joseph H. Harris, Haverhill; Secretary of State, Isaac W. Skinner, Waltham; Treasurer and Receiver General, Thomas Watson, Braintree; Attorney General, Charles F. Johnson, Boston.

—The Treasury balance, which on Sept. 1, including the gold reserve, was $107,000,000, has declined to $103,500,000.

—The House of Representatives at Washington has adopted the new code of rules and is ready to proceed to the consideration of general business.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made an open race for the round-trip from Missouri points to the World's Fair and return.

She broke her piston rod when 400 miles out. —Troops have been sent against the striking miners in Northumberland and Yorkshire.

MISCELLANEOUS.

—The national convention of brewers' employes at Milwaukee has passed a resolution barring members of national guards from membership in brewers' unions.

—The Scranton (Pa.) Choral Union was awarded first prize of $5,000 in the competition of the Welsh Eisteddfod.

—The St. Clair County, Missouri, judges now in jail at Kansas City for contempt of court will ask the Supreme Court to release them on a writ of habeas corpus.

—The Buck Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis, resumed work after a stoppage of several weeks.

—The Buck Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis, resumed work after a stoppage of several weeks.

—The Buck Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis, resumed work after a stoppage of several weeks.

—The Buck Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis, resumed work after a stoppage of several weeks.

—The Buck Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis, resumed work after a stoppage of several weeks.

—The Buck Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis, resumed work after a stoppage of several weeks.

—The Buck Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis, resumed work after a stoppage of several weeks.

—The Buck Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis, resumed work after a stoppage of several weeks.

—The Buck Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis, resumed work after a stoppage of several weeks.

—The Buck Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis, resumed work after a stoppage of several weeks.

—The Buck Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis, resumed work after a stoppage of several weeks.

—The Buck Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis, resumed work after a stoppage of several weeks.

—The Buck Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis, resumed work after a stoppage of several weeks.

HUGHES IS GUILTY.

VERDICT OF THE TOPEKA, KAS., COURT MARTIAL.

Robbers Hold Up an Express Train Near Valparaiso, Ind.—Big Blaze at Pullman—Mexico's Foreign Debt—Return of a Wandering Knight.

—The Hughes court-martial handed down a verdict of "guilty" at Topeka, Kas., and Colonel Hughes is dishonorably discharged from the military service of the State.

—Twenty masked men held up a Lake Shore train 140 miles from Chicago near Valparaiso, Ind., and after wounding the engineer blew up the safe in the express car and stole its contents.

—A fire which destroyed the lumber yards of the Pullman Company at Pullman, Ill., did $275,000 damage and threatened disaster to the town.

—Some time ago the Bleichroeders, of Berlin, arranged to pay the October 1st of the interest on the Mexican foreign debt, and also signified their willingness to pay if necessary the three following quarterly coupons.

—John K. Shaw, the prominent Knight of Pythias who disappeared from St. Paul nearly a year ago, has returned to his home in Duluth.

—Chris Buckley, the blind political boss of California, has arrived at Boston on his way home from Europe.

—The body of E. R. Burdick, an Omaha banker who disappeared from the Mexican frontier in 1891, has been found.

—A combination of iron men in opposition to the Rockefeller-Wetmore syndicate is said to be in process of formation.

—One killed and five injured in the result of a collision at Leipsic, Ohio, on the Nickel Plate Railroad.

—The bank robbers killed at Delta, Col., have been identified as Tom and Fred McCarthy. The escaped robber is Billy McCarthy.

—A negro dance at Faulconer's Station, Ky., a row started over women, and in the fight that followed Bud Leech was shot in the stomach.

—Samuel Clayton, son of Judge Clayton, of Media, Pa., who was recently divorced from Miss Paddock, of Chicago, and more recently was used for breach of promise of marriage by Miss Alice Goodley, has eloped with her.

—Prince Bismarck's condition is again reported to be serious. He is suffering from catarrh, induced by exposure while receiving deputations.

—Charles Robinson, of New York, one of the editors of the North American Review, is said to be related to Assistant Secretary Quinn of the State Department.

—Justice McCarthy has called an appeal to the President of the Irish National League asking continued financial support.

NO VOTE FOR WEEKS.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND REJECTS A COMPROMISE.

Silver Senators Will Delay the Vote as Long as Possible—Majority of the Body Will Not Attempt to Limit the Debate—Senators Seek Rest.

—The Senate will not vote on the silver question until after the recess, which will last for two weeks.

—The Senate will not vote on the silver question until after the recess, which will last for two weeks.

—The Senate will not vote on the silver question until after the recess, which will last for two weeks.

—The Senate will not vote on the silver question until after the recess, which will last for two weeks.

—The Senate will not vote on the silver question until after the recess, which will last for two weeks.

—The Senate will not vote on the silver question until after the recess, which will last for two weeks.

—The Senate will not vote on the silver question until after the recess, which will last for two weeks.

—The Senate will not vote on the silver question until after the recess, which will last for two weeks.

—The Senate will not vote on the silver question until after the recess, which will last for two weeks.

—The Senate will not vote on the silver question until after the recess, which will last for two weeks.

—The Senate will not vote on the silver question until after the recess, which will last for two weeks.

—The Senate will not vote on the silver question until after the recess, which will last for two weeks.

—The Senate will not vote on the silver question until after the recess, which will last for two weeks.

—The Senate will not vote on the silver question until after the recess, which will last for two weeks.

—The Senate will not vote on the silver question until after the recess, which will last for two weeks.