

Love Feast.

A regular love feast was enjoyed at the League meeting Sunday morning. (Chaplain Mrs. Clardy, Dr. and Mrs. Ridge, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, Major and Miss Alliger, of Kansas City, and several prominent gentlemen from all over the country, who had attended the recent convention in Chicago, and had come to Dwight, some because they had been here before, and some because they had not, were present at the meeting. Mr. Horth, the president, first introduced Mrs. Clardy, who has but recently been elected chaplain of the Ladies' Auxiliary, who made some splendid remarks.

The next introduction was that of Mr. Lionel Adams, a prominent attorney of New Orleans, a former president of the Dwight League. Mr. Adams is an able orator, and his speech was a magnificent one, and will long be remembered by those present.

Maj. Alliger, another past president, also favored the League with a few well placed and eloquent remarks.

Mrs. Dr. Ridge, an accomplished musician, kindly favored the meeting with a vocal selection. Mrs. Ridge is a very brilliant lady, and one of the leaders in Kansas City.

Dr. Blaine was present and announced that Mr. Wilson, the "Quiet Observer" of the Pittsburg Commercial, was present, and all would like to hear from him. Mr. Wilson responded in a pleasant manner, and brought out some fine points and smiles. He said he thought there was no use of any man going to drinking again after taking this treatment. Metaphorically speaking, the man was all cleaned up, and his boots shined when he left Dwight, and there would be just as much sense in going out and rolling in the mud as there would in going to drinking again. He thought the question of temptation was all bosh. He never saw a barkeeper pulling anyone into a saloon. All a man had to do was to simply go by and to attend to his own business; that he could go by a saloon just as easy as he could a meeting house.

Dr. Ridge gave an excellent talk of a few minutes.

The exercises then closed with singing.

A New Emerson Piano.

If there was one thing more than another that League No. 1, of Dwight, was in need of it was a new piano. The old one has seen its best days, and needed tuning every day, and would then be of sound before the next. It was the first thing saved during the late fire, and it looked as if it would stay by the League forever. At the time Fred L. Miller was in Dwight there was a crowd that made up their minds that they would make an effort to get a new piano. When Mr. Miller left he immediately went to John W. Northrop, manager of the Emerson Piano Co., 215 Wabash Avenue, Chicago, and told his "tale of woe." In Mr. Northrop Mr. Miller found a gentleman who is always willing to lend a helping hand and assist any benevolent organization as far as lies in his power, and through his kindness and consideration an exchange was made whereby the old piano was taken in almost full payment for an elegant Emerson instrument, and now the Dwight League has one of the finest pianos made. The Leslie E. Keeley Co., always ready to assist, kindly pay the expense of the transfer. Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon Mr. John W. Northrop for his generosity in this matter, and the STAR AND HERALD, in behalf of the League, wishes to return sincere thanks to that gentleman, and through him to the Emerson Piano Co., and also to the Leslie E. Keeley Co., and to Mr. Fred L. Miller and all parties who have been instrumental in the trade.

Mr. Carpenter, a graduate from Massachusetts, was here Saturday.

Mr. Lane, an old graduate of two years ago, was here Sunday accompanied by his wife.

The different League committees held a meeting Saturday at the Livingston and laid out a line of action, with the assistance of Secretary Brown. It brought forth fruit, and should be repeated each week.

Little Hattie May Morris, "Daughter of the League," was received by the convention in Chicago last week with cheers. She recited a pretty poem entitled "What will the Keeley Cure Do," and received an ovation.

The chairman of the executive board of Illinois Keeley League sent in his resignation last week as requested by the State officers. Davis, we are pleased to announce, has nothing to do with the Keeley League in any way, shape or manner.

Mr. Walter Coddington, of Delevan, returned home from Dwight on Wednesday of last week, where he had been taking a course of treatment at the Keeley institute at that place. Walter looks well and feels well. Here is our motto; may you always keep in the right path and be one of the 35 per cent. We welcome you as one of us.—Hopedale Review.

The procession Keeley Day at the world's fair was over a mile in length, and they were a fine looking body of men who composed it. There were over 5,000 graduates on the grounds. Dr. Leslie E. Keeley was visibly affected by the grand ovation awarded him. The writer was informed by a world's fair official that no man had ever received such an ovation since the fair opened.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administered it to her own offspring and always with the best results. For sale by Dr. Barr, Dwight, and W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand.
From the Troy (Kansas) Chief.
Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus, and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhoea, etc., we become nervous. I have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to straighten me out in such cases, and always keep it about me. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial, but to let our readers know what is a good thing to keep handy in the house. For sale by Dr. C. H. Barr, Dwight, and W. H. H. Augustine, Braceville.
