

THE FAMOUS ACTRESS OF SIXTY-SIX YEARS.

Odd Fellows, at the World's Fair—Death-Repentance of the Railroaders of No. 44—Five Days of Starvation and Sleeplessness.

Told in a Few Words.

It is just sixty-six years since Mrs. John Drew, the famous comedy actress, and later still more famous as the only woman theatrical manager for a continuous period of 35 years, made her first appearance on the American stage, and letters and telegrams of congratulation, to say nothing of personal calls, are pouring in on the venerable lady.

Her first husband was a general, and she was married to him in 1837. Her second husband was a general, and she was married to him in 1841. Her third husband was a general, and she was married to him in 1845.

CRIME AND CASUALTY.

The Crescent House and several dwellings damaged by fire last night. Loss $10,000. Fire originating in a wash and door factory did $150,000 damage at Red Wing, Minn. Railway traffic was stopped.

A lighted lamp thrown in a conflagration started a fire in New York, which resulted in the death of John Duffy.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Rev. S. R. Halliday, pastor of the Memorial Church and formerly assistant pastor to Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, was stricken with apoplexy in the parlors of Piquette street, Detroit, on Feb. 10. He is somewhat improved, and it is probable that he will recover.

Thomas Lynch, a Chicago millionaire, who made a notable fight against the whisky trust, died at his residence.

Miss Emma Vickers was married at Cincinnati to Dr. W. McKeaney, of Indianapolis.

FROM WASHINGTON. The federal election repeal bill has been reported to the House of Representatives by the committee on the subject.

Secretary Carlisle has just received $5,000, which the sender says is the balance of $20,000 to repay $10,000 which he stole from the government during the war.

MISCELLANEOUS. Emma Holland, the 12-year-old daughter of a Hollist, near Lyons, N. Y., is lying in a critical condition from the effects of fright.

Only three seamen were rescued from the wreck of the schooner Windermere. The other 100 were missing.

Dispatches from Buenos Aires say that meat is scarce in Rio Janeiro that the insurgents have been selling the live animals shipped from Buenos Aires to Rio.

Oliver P. Shanefelt, postmaster at Queenstown, Ohio, is missing. He is heavily in debt to the bank.

Flour output at Minneapolis, Minn., last week was the greatest in the history of the Northwest.

Prof. King, the world-famed aeronaut, and the late Mayor of Ames, Iowa, made a most sensational ascension in the balloon Eagle Eye from the World's Fair.

THE FIRE RECORD. Nearly the whole of Orlanville, Ky., was destroyed by fire. The total loss was $60,000, with insurance of about $30,000.
