There was preaching service but once last Sunday in Dwight, and that was by Rev. Fisher, in the morning at the Congregational church. The church was crowded and all were well pleased with the splendid sermon.
The English Hand-Bell Ringers at the Dwight Opera House Oct. 16, are under the agency of the Ridpath Lyceum Bureau which is guarantee of their excellency, as that bureau handle nothing but first-class companies.
Miss Rachel Hefner, who has been with her sister, Mrs. Wm Miller the past year, left for her home in Pennsylvania Sunday. She has made many friends in Dwight who join in wishing her a safe journey and pleasant future.
Isn't there brains enough in the village board to devise means to extend the water mains before cold weather and thus derive an income to the village. The cost would not be much and lots of people want water. Wake up, gentlemen.
Chicago Day at the world's fair, Oct. 9, the anniversary of the great Chicago fire, bids fair to be the largest attended of any day during the exposition. All business houses in Chicago will be closed all day. It will surely be a great day.
W. H. Taylor will accept all kinds of silver money for coal at his 3-1 yards. It makes no difference whether they are 16 to 1, 20 to 1, or any other kind of dollars. They all go for coal at a reasonable price and 2000 pounds to the ton every time.
Miss Susie Potter, of Hunt, Penn., and Miss Bert Hamlin, of Harrisburg, spent last week here with the former's uncle, A. G. Potter. The girls spent two weeks at the fair and returned home last Tuesday. They are two charming young ladies.
Rev. F. W. Merrill formerly of Dwight has been recalled to the First M. E. church of Rock Island. This is a fine charge, and speaks well for Mr. Merrill and also for the congregation. His many friends here are always pleased to hear of his prosperity.
There will be a special meeting of Dwight W. R. C. on Tuesday evening, Oct. 3d, for drill in the new hall, and another on Friday evening, Oct. 6th, for inspection, at which lunch will be served. A full attendance is desired by the President, Mrs. H. A. Fox.
Rev. Ayling and family are now located in the M. E. parsonage. His family consist of Mrs. Ayling and three children. Mr. Ayling was called to Normal Wednesday to preach a funeral sermon. He will occupy the pulpit in M. E. church Sunday—tomorrow.
We are indebted to Mr. G. B. Conant for a basket of delicious Michigan peaches. They were raised by our old townsman, Doc Ketcham, who is shipping lots of them to Mr. Conant for sale. Many thanks, Mr. Conant; and we might remark that "Doc" is all right, too.
A. G. Potter and Sam Stern, of Nevada, took in the world's fair and stock yards last week. It is the first time in thirty-five years for Sam. He says Chicago is larger than Nevada now, and the stock yards twice as large as Dwight yards. He wants to go to the fair again if some one don't carry it off.
We clip the following from the Streator Monitor just to let our readers know what other papers are doing: Hereafter all notices of festivals and other entertainments, resolutions of respect, notices of society meetings, etc., will be charged for at the rate of five cents a line each issue. Announcements of church services published free.
Harry Diefenbach, of Kansas, has been in Dwight the past ten days attending to his father's business during his absence. The latter was called east on account of his father receiving severe injuries from a fall from which his recovery is doubtful. Harry is looking well and hearty, and received a hearty welcome from his many Dwight friends.
Mr. John McIliduff, of O'Conor, Neb., has been visiting relatives at Dwight and Pontiac for the past ten days. Mr McIliduff is a cousin of James McIliduff of Dwight, and formerly taught school in New York City. He, however, acted upon Mr. Greeley's advice and is now growing up as a farmer in Nebraska. For neighbors he has a colony of former Livingston county people.—Pontiac P. T. & O.
A letter from A. L. Leach to a resident of Dwight recites many incidents of his trip to the Cherokee Strip, and life after he arrived, which has already been portrayed in most every newspaper in the land. Mr. Leach is the only boomer we have heard of from this immediate vicinity, and his luck seems to have been confined to securing two lots in a town site that has, like all western towns, bright prospects. Mr. L. will be home next week.

MILLER BROS.

We have the pleasure of announcing to our Customers that we have received the Greatest Stock of General Merchandise for Fall and Winter Use that has ever been shown in Dwight. We can, and will, save you Money on all your Fall Purchases, as we have bought our stock at less than Manufacturers' Prices; having been able to buy our goods for cash, and consequently got the Benefit of Hard Time Prices, which we are now willing to give to customers. Having so many different lines of goods in our large store rooms it is impossible for us to enumerate all Styles and Prices. We have desirable Styles in Dress Goods, such as Broadcloths, Serges, Henriettas in black and fancy colors. We will sell our Domestic as Low as any other House can offer you. We have a large Stock of Blankets and Shawls; Ladies' and Children's Underwear. Don't forget to look at our CLOAKS.
