Webster has just received a carload of genuine Lehigh Valley Range coal. This is a fine product and those in need should leave their orders immediately. Carl Miller made a business trip to Chicago Monday and Tuesday and purchased lots of new goods. Look out for their ad. in the STAR AND HERALD next week. The sewers smell to the clouds. How is it they are not regularly flushed? The city has the necessary hose to reach to the ends of all sewers and they should be used regularly. Mr. C. V. Bower has moved into the house lately vacated by Dr. Barr. Mr. Rounds soon expects to move in the Koehler house from which Mr. Bower just moved. Momenie is in Inck. The Brazil car wheel works have moved there, and fifty men put to work immediately. Dwight might get something of that kind with half an effort. We received a very pleasant call from Rev. Ayling, of the M. E. church Wednesday. He is a very pleasant gentleman, indeed, and will always be welcome in our sanctuary. Dr. Palm, of Wilmington, has rented the Gould house on Chippewa street, and will locate in Dwight once more. The doctor and his family have many friends in Dwight. Kyle's Restaurant was closed last Sunday, but is opened again better than ever. An elegant Sunday dinner there to-morrow for only 35 cents—cheaper than you can get it at home. New changes are talked of on the Alton, among the train crews. All trains on the Alton must be fifteen minutes apart in clear weather and a station apart in cloudy weather. Eyer Bros. have constantly on hand all kinds of plumber supplies, etc., and are always prepared to do the best work possible. Give them a call at their place of business on Mazon Avenue. L. E. Franklin, of Lafayette, Ind., who is visiting his father here, accompanied his sister, Mrs. Shayne, to Pontiac where he will spend a few days visiting friends and then return to Indiana. Dave Riling and family and Miss Susan Turnbaugh visited the fair last week. We understand that Mr. Riling was the victim of a pickpocket, but only lost about $1. The experience is worth that. Capt. Jack Crawford, "the poet scout," will speak to Keeley League, No. 1, and their friends to-night. He is very interesting and tells many funny stories and recites some of his soul inspiring poems. Mr. S. T. Prime and Mr. C. J. Judd and son Arthur started on the Denver Thursday for a visit through the New England states. The Major will visit his mother at Pittsfield, Mass., and anticipates a pleasant time. A splendid way of saving a little money and making it pay you well is to buy some stock in a reliable building and loan association. For further particulars inquire of W. G. Dustin, at the STAR AND HERALD office. Residents in the neighborhood of east St. Louis and Franklin streets, say they heard "After the Ball" very unfavorably rendered last Sunday night, and it is to be hoped that the disturbances will not occur again.
