

Entered at the Postoffice in Dwight, as second class mail matter.

W. G. DUSTIN, } Publishers.
J. F. WASSSELL, }

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
BY MAIL—POSTAGE PAID.

One year... $1.50
Six months... 1.25
Three months... .75

DWIGHT LOCAL NEWS.

Comic Opera!
Bell Ringers Oct. 16.
Buy apples of Liggett's.
Dressmaking at Mrs. Fenn's.

A fresh supply of cakes and crackers at Baker Bros.
Send your work to the Dwight Artisan Laundry.
Mrs. J. R. Oughton is spending the week in Chicago.

Dr. Leslie E. Keeley visited friends in Joliet Monday.
Mr. Cahill and son, of Budd, visited the fair this week.
Joe Kyle, of restaurant fame, took in the fair this week.

Buy flowerpots and queensware at Liggett & Liggett's.
Set of single harness for sale cheap. Inquire at this office.
A good phaeton for sale for $28 cash. Inquire at this office.

Milk, twenty-five quart tickets for $1.—Maplecroft Dairy.
Popular prices for the bell ringers, Oct. 16, 50, 35 and 25.
Sight is valuable. Have your eyes tested at J. C. Lewis'.

Andrew Doherty visited Dick Thornton in Pontiac Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Bower visited the fair three days this week.
Mrs. Conner and daughter Fannie are guests in Chicago this week.

For gents' furnishing goods of all descriptions, go to Harry Lawrence.
Mrs. Dr. Conway and little son were Chicago visitors the first of the week.
Hon. Lewis E. Payson and wife are visiting relatives in Pontiac this week.

A little baby of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schmidt has been very sick this week.
We club with any paper in the world,—that is any paper known to the world.
Mr. John Duffenbaugh is spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. I. Perry.

Frank F. Buren has received a state certificate for an engineer in Minnesota.
Mr. and Mrs. Orville Brown returned home Saturday from their wedding tour.
Col. J. B. Parsons attended the State meeting of Masons in Chicago last week.

Last race of the season in Dwight or neighborhood, Wednesday, Oct. 25. Good track and good races insured.

A. R. Zimmerman, of Lemont, was in town Wednesday evening. He informs us he is doing a good business.
Miss Hattie Miller attended the fair Chicago day and returned to her school duties on Wednesday in District No. 6.

Every lover of music should attend the great comic opera entertainment at the opera house next Thursday evening.
Don't forget the STAR AND HERALD when in need of auction bills. We do them cheap and satisfactory.

Get your seats at Barr & Davis' drug store for the bell ringers. Popular prices. Monday evening next.
Anyone wishing a nice, new, double or single carriage, can save $20 cash by calling at this office immediately.

Don't forget that Kyle is serving those elegant Sunday dinners, including all the delicacies of the season.
Excursion rate to Braidwood, 65 cents for round trip for races, Oct. 13 and 14, good to return until Oct. 16.
LOST—A black pig, white spot on right shoulder. Weighed about 125 pounds. Leave word at this office.

Our aim is to supply the trade with the best of fresh fruits and vegetables, your trade is solicited.—Baker Bros.
Mrs. Taler and Mr. Wm. Chester visited with Frank Chester last week. They are attending the fair this week.
Anyone going to Minneapolis or near there can hear of something for their financial benefit by calling at this office.

Miss Birtwhistle left on the accommodation Thursday for a week's visit at her former home near Cincinnati, Ohio.
Farmers, attention! Get your woolen shirts and winter underwear of Harry Lawrence. He sells lower than anybody.
Over 750,000 people attended the great fair on Chicago day. About 200 of them were from Dwight and neighborhood.

We have received a few school items from "A and B" this week. Thanks. Come again and make them longer.
Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, of McLevey's Fort, Huntington Co., Penn. visited over Sunday with H. Williamson and family.
H. Williamson, wife and son spent last week at the fair and Mr. W. and daughters spent part of this week at the fair.

Dan Chariton went to Chicago Wednesday on business. It is safe to say he was not looking after the male while he was gone.
Martin H. Drollinger, of Kenesaw, Neb., visited his sister, Mrs. Marvin Parker, on his way home from the white city.
John Thompson, Judd Williams, Jas. Kelagher and Frank Smith were among those who attended the Mazon races Wednesday.

Underwear that will keep you nice and warm during the coldest weather, for sale at hard times prices at Harry Lawrence's.
Prices on flour have advanced, but we are selling standard brands at hard times prices. Give us a trial, Baker Bros.
Mr. F. A. Haise returned from his visit in Chicago on Tuesday. Mrs. Haise remained in the city visiting her brother's family.

Nice eight room home, with cistern in house and good well, barn and fine shady yard, for sale for $1,200. Inquire at this office.
Take the Big 4 route for points east Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Louisville, etc. For rates apply to O. C. Minor, Gardner, Ill.
Quite a number from Dwight attended the Mazon races. They were very good. Most of the horses from there are at Braidwood to-day.

Mr. Joseph Morris, of Washington, Ill., visited his relatives here this week. He is getting along nicely and looks as hearty and well as usual.
Mr. and Mrs. L. Swartz, of Fairmount, Neb., and Mr. and Mrs. C. Finfield, of Odell, were the guests of their cousin, Mrs. L. Reeder, Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Weese, of Minooka, Ill., spent Saturday, Sunday and Monday in Dwight visiting their brother, W. M. Weese and wife.

Keep your lights well trimmed and your vessels filled with oil, and the place to get your oil is from Mr. Howe, who will call on you with his wagon.

Sons of Veterans and Women's Relief Corps meeting at their new halls next Tuesday evening. The Sons will serve lunch. Don't forget to be present.
Advertised letters, Dwight postoffice, Oct. 10.—Dr. J. White, Jacob Ascheim, James L. Taylor, Dr. Baldwin, Mr. E. E. Myers, Jas. P. Covington, Miss Lena Fox.

Geo. Baker has a little ten pound star groceryman at his house with whom he is well pleased. The little one came Monday and mother and son are very well.
The probate court docket records the appointment of John Thompson, Simon Winkler and W. M. Weese as appraisers of the estate of the late James Paul.

James C. Parker, of N.Y., a brother of Marvin Parker, is in Chicago for medical aid. It is hoped by his many friends that he will find immediate relief.
There is no use for us to try to enumerate the people by name that visited the fair Chicago Day. Dwight was right in the "push," and it was a "push."

J. A. Webster has just received a carload of genuine Lehigh Valley Range coal. This is a fine product and those in need should leave their orders immediately.
Kyle's Sunday dinners are very popular, and a large number take advantage of them. They are cheaper than getting up a Sunday meal at home. Call to-morrow at one o'clock.

John McWilliams, of Odell, is administrator of the estate of Judge Babcock under bond of $18,000. J. D. Pond, N. M. Kellogg and Daniel Mackintosh are the appraisers.
We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the kind friends and neighbors who assisted us during the sickness, death and burial of James Crawford.—M. S. CRAWFORD & CHILDREN.

Mrs. Lizzie Flood, of Pontiac, Kan., who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. E. Carey, near Campus, was in Dwight last Monday making arrangements to start next day for her Kansas home.
Andrews Opera Company in the comic opera "Trebizonde" next Thursday evening at the opera house. Admission 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents. Tickets on sale at Barr & Davis' drug store.

Shirts, collars and cuffs and plain and elegant neckwear bought for cash and will be sold at a very slight advance at Harry Lawrence's gents' furnishing store on West street, next to laboratory.
The crossing recently laid on Delaware street across Washington on the south side of the street is just fifteen inches wide by actual measurement. A person needs a balance pole to walk it.

Arrangements have been made for a match race between Little Joe and Billie H. on the day of the races at Dwight. It is sure to be a good one. Remember the date, Wednesday, Oct. 25.
Eyer Bros. have constantly on hand all kinds of plumber supplies, etc., and are always prepared to do the best work possible. Give them a call at their place of business on Mazon Avenue.

The Sons of Veterans will give their annual ball and reception Wednesday November 1, 1893, at Lyceum hall. A committee has been appointed, the hall rented, and invitations will soon be issued.
Mrs. Edward Parker will join her husband at Joliet Friday, where he has been visiting his old home near Plainfield. They will return home to Lincoln, Neb., after attending the fair for a few days.

The Three-I road has had its two combination coaches rebuilt at the Litchfield car shops and they now look equal to new. The seats are upholstered in bamboo cloth after the style of suburban coaches.
Chet Gould, Jesse Snyder and Tom Real attended the races at Mazon Wednesday. The races were good, but the crowd small. There are races in Braidwood to-day and will be in Dwight Wednesday, the 25th.

Miss Sadie Sheldon entertained a few Dwight friends Wednesday evening. All enjoyed a pleasant time, and although they were a long time on their way home, they were all on duty by 9 o'clock Thursday morning.
A splendid way of saving a little money and making it pay you well is to buy some stock in a reliable building and loan association. For further particulars inquire of W. G. Dustin, at the STAR AND HERALD office.
J. R. Oughton has nearly completed a fine residence on his farm just south of the Club House. He has rented the place to Thomas Comford for a term of years and he will undoubtedly make a fine dairy farm out of it.

so on. Call and see them at his store o West street, next to laboratory.

Sam ("Buckshot") McLane of Dwight visited in Kankakee last week for the first time in two years. He said that the changes in the town seemed marvelous to a man who formerly visited it every week or two.—Kankakee Gazette.

The encouraging report now comes to us that the banks, and particularly the country banks, are a little freer in making loans to farmers, and that the crops are now beginning to move in sufficient quantities to somewhat ease the tightness of money.

W. H. Taylor will accept all kinds of silver money for coal at his 3-1 yards. It makes no difference whether they are 16 to 1, 20 to 1, or any other kind of dollars. They all go for coal at a reasonable price and 2000 pounds to the ton every time.

Miss Laura A. Brown, of Kirkwood, Ill., spent several days visiting her brother, Willard S. Brown, and wife, this week. This is her third visit to Dwight, and she is very much pleased with the place. She left to attend the fair Wednesday.
The Hoopston canning factor claims to be the largest in the world. Dwight might have had just as good a factory in full running order the past season, had there not been more wind than money in the air. Every factory of that kind pays.

The Board of Temperance Organization and Domestic Missions of the Central Illinois M. E. Conference meets at Peoria, on Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 17th and 18th. Rev. C. W. Ayling is a member of both organizations and will attend the meetings.
On Thursday evening, from 8 to 10 o'clock the Epworth League will give a reception at the Methodist church to their new pastor and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ayling, and extend a cordial welcome to all members of the church and friends of the congregation.

Some corn fields in this vicinity are yielding over thirty bushels to the acre, where it was thought during the drouth the crop would be a total failure. The farmers say that the yield would have been over seventy bushels to the acre had the season been favorable.

STAR AND HERALD from now until Jan. 1, 1895, for $1.50 in advance to new subscribers. Please relate this little story to the person that is borrowing your paper every week, or to some one that don't take the home paper. There are a few left in the neighborhood yet.

The American Farmer and Farm News and the DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD for one year for $1.50. The former is a handsome sixteen page paper, a sample copy of which can be seen at this office. This offer will remain good until Jan. 1, when the subscription price of the STAR AND HERALD will be $1.50 per year. We have found out that $1.25 does not pay for the paper.

We can furnish probably the highest grade illustrated monthly magazine published in the world—The Cosmopolitan—for $2.75 per year, including the DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD. No offer like this has ever before been made. The Cosmopolitan is beautifully illustrated with half tone engravings, and its articles are by the best writers on political economy, science, etc., in the world. Only $2.75 for both papers.

"Knights of Columbia" is a new society recently organized in Dwight. It is composed of young men from thirteen years old up, and is devoted to educational and social interests. The young men composing are of excellent character. They occupy the old art gallery in Mickleson's block.
The Dwight Driving Park Association has concluded to give one more day of sport in the racing line this season, on Wednesday, Oct. 25. There will be a free-for-all run and free-for-all pony race and 2:50 trot, and a match race between Billie H. and little Joe. Come and enjoy the last of the season.

Ed. Dittus had the misfortune Wednesday to fall from a scaffold while working over north of Campus, or rather the scaffold fell with him. When he struck the ground his left hand was doubled up under him spraining the wrist and mangling the back of his hand. It's a bad hand and will lay him up for some weeks.

"Struck a Snag!"

We are the Sole Agents for the celebrated "Snag Proof" Boots and Rubbers.

We have always in stock the Best Makes of all grades of SHOES, including Reynolds Bros' Ladies' Fine Shoes, Geo. E. Keith's Gents' Shoes, Etc. REPAIRING DONE PROMPTLY.

Our Harness Department

Is Complete. Our $12 Hand-made Single Harness is second to none.

LEACH & REEB, Dwight, Ill.

DR. C. H. BARR, Physician and Surgeon,

Prompt attention given to Calls in City or Country. Office at Drug Store of Barr & Davis. Residence, 215 Mazon Ave.

K stands for Ketcham, who at law has gained fame.
E stands for Elegant--homes for all--blind, halt and lame.
T stands for Title, which we give clear.
C stands for your Credit, which we don't fear.
H stands for Honest, in deals without conniving.
A stands for Almighty--dollar--for which we're all striving.
M stands for Money, in the deals we are driving.
A stands for Amazement, which our bargains are causing.
N stands for Non-residents, whose business we do while pausing.
D stands for the Dividends for our customers made.
S stands for Smith, always ready for a trade.
M stands for Men, with whom we like to deal.
I stands for Irrepressible, the way we feel.
T stands for "Tab," which we always keep.
H stands for Honor, the reward which we reap.

Our short-haired poet was brutally murdered, or rather beautifully murdered, as the last line of the above was written, but his name and fame will live on forever. He meant well. His last words were "I hope to meet"

Ketcham & Smith,

The square Real Estate Dealers of Dwight in the sweet subsequently.

City Tank Line, F. H. HOWE, Prop.

The best of Kerosine Oil and Gasoline on hand, also the celebrated Headlight Oil. All oils delivered promptly. Stop the man with the tank when he rings the bell and buy your oil cheap and good.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE WILL NOT RIP.

Do you wear them? When next in need try a pair. Best in the world. $5.00 $3.00 $4.00 $2.50 $3.50 $2.00 $2.50 $2.25 $2.00 $1.75 $2.00 $1.75

PARKER THE TAILOR.

Three doors northeast of the Treatment Hall, upstairs.

If you want a fine DRESS SHOE, made in the latest style, don't pay $6 to $8, try my $3, $3.50, $4.00 or $5 Shoe. They fit equal to custom made and look and wear as well. If you wish to economize in your footwear do so by purchasing W. L. Douglas Shoes. Name and price stamped on the bottom, look for it when you buy W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass. Sold by MILLER BROS.