

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Faulkner, Mr. Faulkner's sister, Mrs. May Faulkner-Brown, left Wednesday for Caznovia, N. Y., their former and future home. Mr. Faulkner has been employed at the hay press factory for several years, and Mrs. Brown has been in the employ of the Dwight Art Co. We join their many friends in wishing them prosperity.

In the 2:30 trot at Mazon Wednesday Durango, the Gardner stallion that was in Dwight at the race course some time since, and trotted against time, won in 2:26, 2:26 1/4, and 2:26 1/2. Pretty good time for a horse seventeen years old. By the time he is of age he bids fair to be a "Chicago Day" runner. There will be races in Dwight Oct. 25, Wednesday.

Who says the country is short of money, or the people in it? Look at the trains passing through here during the past few days and say that people haven't money. That's the trouble, the money is going to the world's fair, and it will be a godsend to the business men of country towns when the fair is over, and some of the money stays at home.

Senator A. J. O'Connor and family, of LaSalle county, left for California this week, their future home. The senator was the most prominent democrat in the new congressional district, and undoubtedly would have received his party nomination for congress had he remained in the district. We would most respectfully call the attention of Mr. Brydia, of Fairbury, to the fact that Mr. O'Connor has gone to California.

We clip the following from the Blue Rapids, Kansas, Moler. The young lady spoken of is a sister of Mr. Scherburne, baggageman at the C. & A. depot. A quiet wedding took place at 1 o'clock p. m. Friday, September 29, 1893, at the residence of the bride's parents, three miles southwest of Waterville, the contracting parties being Mr. W. H. Bivens, of this city to Miss Ina M. Sherburne, the Rev. Hisey officiating. They have the best wishes of their many friends.

It will be remembered that the Andrews Opera Company gave excellent satisfaction here last year, and was one of the very best attractions of the season. Manager Romberger has been fortunate enough to secure them for this year, and they will be here next Thursday evening at the opera house. They have twenty-eight people and travel in a special car. They will play in Streator the night before and in Kankakee the night after Dwight. In Dwight they will present the beautiful comic opera "Trebizonde," next Thursday evening, Oct. 19th.

James Crawford, of Farm Ridge, while visiting his children in the town of Nevada, this county, died on Thursday of last week at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. John Fowler, after one week's illness, aged 73 years. The burial took place at Farm Ridge on Friday afternoon, Rev. Knapp, of Odell, and Rev. Hiestler, of Farm Ridge, conducting the services, the hymns being sung by Misses Cora Adams and Minnie Barr and Mr. Elmer Fenn, of Dwight. In the death of Mr. Crawford, the wife loses a tender and loving husband and companion, his children a kind father and wise counsellor, and the community an upright and highly respected citizen.

The Dwight Modern Woodmen Camp met in their new hall Tuesday evening. They voted in one new member, and we understand several more are to follow. It is the cheapest insurance one can take. For further particulars inquire at this office, or of any member. The camp instructed their board of managers to lease Sons of Veteran hall for one year for two meetings a month from Oct. 1 to April 1, and for one meeting a month the remaining time. Every member of the Camp should bear in mind the fact that their policies are worthless if the assessments and dues are not paid promptly inside of the month when they are due. This is very important to each member.

The Hawkeye, Burlington, Iowa Saturday, April 8, 1893, has the following: The English Hand Bell Ringers, who gave an entertainment at the Congregational Church last evening, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. were to have made that appearance here on the 14th of December, but owing to a previous engagement for that date they were unable to fill their engagement with our association till last evening. A great many people were disappointed because of the postponement, but while they were listening to the sweet strains of music that were produced with the bells last evening they freely forgave them for the delay and wished that they could come oftener. There were four numbers down on the program for the bells, and the encores they responded to increased the number to eight. The Shipp Brothers are right at home with the bells, and all the numbers deserve the highest praise, but perhaps in rendering of "Old Madrid" they displayed their talents to the best advantage. It is a difficult piece of music, full of minor notes, and it was astonishing to hear them brought out with the bells. Popular prices. Tickets on sale at Dr. Barr's.

One of them hit the jailer over the head with an iron bar and knocked him senseless. Miss Bertha Cornell, the office bookkeeper tried hard to keep them in and showed considerable courage. Sheriff Coe was absent. They are still at large.

NEWS AND NONSENSE.
Thanksgiving Day this year will be the last day of November.

W. J. Neely, of Ottawa, a horseman well-known in Illinois, died last week.

The matters pertaining to the Middle Division Elevator Company, with headquarters at Pontiac, have been settled and business resumed.

There was a case of "didn't know it was loaded" at Streator last week Sunday. Harry Morris shot Joseph Toombs with a revolver that he thought was empty. The Toombs boy died.

There are over 550 prisoners at the state reformatory at Pontiac and the number is constantly increasing. It is estimated that by the first of January there will be not less than 700 prisoners in the institution.

A lady at Joliet, has become a slave to liquor. Instead of sending her to jail or poor house the churches took her case up and by liberal donations enabled her husband to take her to the Keeley Institute at Dwight.

Farmers in southern Illinois who are offered but 43 cents for their wheat are feeding it to their hogs. By keeping close track by weight before and after feeding the wheat they find that thus invested it nets them 60 cents a bushel.

Sarah Dodge, who was sent to the Kankakee asylum two months ago for treatment, has been released on probation. She was a visitor here to day and showed marked signs of improvement. She has gone to Austin on a visit to relatives.—Morris Herald.

John G. Wooley, the great temperance orator, has been engaged by The Illinois Christian Endeavorites to make a systematic canvass of the state of Illinois. Any further information desired will be furnished by E. D. Wheelock, 99 Washington Street, Chicago.

We always knew that some people over at Pontiac were pretty smart and now they are beginning to find it out themselves. To show just how cute they are a fellow wrote a letter to the postmaster of a neighboring town this week and put a special delivery stamp on it. You bet they're posted over there.—Fairbury Blade.

Aurora is promised a new "enterprise" for the manufacture of a corn cutting machine, the invention of Dr. Fosgate, of that place. The machine is drawn by two horses and cuts two rows at a time, tying it skillfully in bunches and setting it up on the ground firm and straight. The corn cutting machines on exhibition at the world's fair, owned by the McCormicks and the Deeringes, are no comparison to the Fosgate machine.

A sad accident occurred Thursday afternoon about three-quarters of a mile outside the village, which resulted in the death of Abraham Gray, a stepson of J. Jones. Young Gray and a companion, John Clarken, had in their possession a revolver somewhat out of order, which the young men were trying to fix, when it was accidentally discharged, the bullet passing through the throat of young Gray, causing his death in a few minutes thereafter.—Gardner Graphic.

There was a bloody affray on Monday at Marshall, Ill., growing out of a dispute over an estate. Daniel Thompson is administrator of his father's estate, but his mother is dissatisfied with his proceedings and desired to go to the county seat and have a new administrator appointed. As Thompson refused to take her she prevailed upon O'Harrow, a neighbor, to take her. Thompson became so enraged that he followed O'Harrow up and shot him dead, upon which Thompson gave himself up. The feeling is so high against him that there is serious talk of lynching.

An observing old farmer has been talking to the editor of the Cuba Press about the shrinkage of grain. He says: "I have found that wheat will shrink two quarts to the bushel in six months from ordinary threshing under the most favorable circumstances; hence it follows that sixty-four cents the first of August, when threshed, is the same as seventy cents six months later—money worth seven per cent. One hundred bushels of corn as it comes from the husk in November will measure out only eighty when well seasoned; thus thirty cents in November is the same as forty cents in March, barring the loss from vermin. Twenty-five cents from the field is better than forty cents in March.

God bless the man who does not live for himself alone, but for his family, his neighbors and his town. Such a man has friends, such a man is loved and respected by all. He is of real worth and benefit to a community, while the disgruntled individual who can see no good in his fellow being, but always on the lookout for the weakest point, is not the man for whom a community will long mourn after he is departed. Help your neighbor, say a good word for him and your town; you will feel better, your food will digest better, your sleep will be more refreshing and you will be of some benefit in the world.

Eli H. Diek, a wealthy farmer living near Paxton, was swindled out of $2,700 by tin box sharpers last week. Two strangers representing themselves as real estate men, offered him a fabulous sum for one of his farms, which proposition Mr. Diek readily accepted. They made a deposit of $5000, and Mr. Diek a deposit of $2,700, to bind the bargain until they could return with the balance of the sum agreed upon. The money was presumably placed in a tin box and left with Mr. Diek until they should return. After their departure the box was opened and found empty. The sharpers have not yet been apprehended.

Deduction in Valuation.
The state board of equalization have finished their work at Springfield, and adjourned to-day. We noticed that there was a material reduction in the valuations in Livingston county. The valuation of personal property was reduced five per cent, and on lands and lots ten per cent each.

The Nickel Plate Road announces that commencing Sunday, Sept. 3, Train No. 4, running between Chicago and Cleveland, and No. 8 running between Cleveland and Buffalo, was merged into a continuous through train; leaving Chicago at 8 a. m. and reaching Buffalo at 3:40 the following morning. The equipment of this train embraces standard smoking and day coaches and sleeping cars Chicago to Buffalo. Direct connection at Buffalo for all points East.

Andersen-Andersen.
There was a quiet and happy wedding ceremony performed Tuesday afternoon at the Danish Lutheran church by Rev. Bekker. The contracting parties were Miss A. M. Andersen and Mr. O. P. Andersen. The bride has been a resident of Dwight for some years and is a very nice young lady and is just as happy as if her name had been changed and the groom is an employe at the Spencer hay press factory, and is a steady young man. Their many friends wish them much joy. We were a little previous in extending congratulations last week, but it goes now.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Eno left last Monday for their new home in Lewis, Mariposa Co., Cal. Mr. Eno has been in the employ of the Spencer Hay Press Company for over three years, and has been a faithful and valuable employe. Mr. and Mrs. Eno have made many friends during their stay in Dwight. We join them all in wishing them success in their new home.
