

NOTICE.

We have repeatedly sent out duns to several of our subscribers who live away from Dwight. Some of them have responded promptly, others have paid no attention.

A Fine Entertainment.

The entertainment given at the opera house last Wednesday evening by Keeley League No. 1 was an exceptionally fine one.

Miss Stella Bovik, a thy tot, enlisted the sympathies of the audience by several nice little recitations.

Mr. John M. Quan gave the following two selections in his well-known manner: Thomas Moore's "Believe Me if all These Endearing Young Charms," and "Stand up and take your Medicine," the last of which is as follows:

I do not think it would be wrong To offer you another song, You never heard it, did you say, It's called "Ta-ra-boom-dee-ay."

Now there's O'Meara, young and gay, In Dwight I fear he'll have to stay, The girls won't let him go away, He's round the school-house every day.

And there's John Hunt, he's up to snuff, Of whiskey straight, he's had enough, And Uncle Ed., from Pilot Grove, Who liked his booze, he did, by Jove.

And Park and Thomas, only think The quarts of Bourbon they could drink, With Burrough, a Missouri wag, It took a barrel for his jag.

Once more Missouri holds full sway, When full Nat Dryden has his say, Before he came life was a drudge, He couldn't get enough of budge.

Miss Lura Wheatley followed with a well delivered recitation. Miss Addie Fenn added to her reputation as a singer; she was accompanied on the piano by Miss Minnie Lower.

The pie-eating contest was a unique and very enjoyable close to the first part of the evening's entertainment.

The second part opened with a duet by Mr. Charles Adams, who rendered the "Chinese Wedding March" on the mandolin assisted by his sister, Miss Cora Adams, on the piano. They were accorded a hearty encore.

Prof. F. H. Granger, a new arrival for treatment, demonstrated very satisfactorily, more than ordinary ability as a mind reader.

Mr. John W. Hunt, of Iowa City, Ia., was the star of the evening. "The Chariot Race," from Ben Hur was his selection and to say that he delivered himself in a mastery way would but faintly convey an idea of his success.

wonderful memory. It only goes to show that there is nothing detrimental to one's mind in the Keeley Treatment. A brilliant future awaits this gentleman.

Mr. John J. Powers, of Chicago, did a neat song-and-dance, which was loudly applauded.

Mr. Nat C. Dryden, of St. Louis made his debut in the finale. Joe Jefferson, Nat Goodwin and many others who today are trodding the paths of fame as Thespians are "not in it" with Mr. Dryden. He assumed the character of "Billy Buffalo," a typical Westerner.

Did you catch onto Nat Dryden's date pants? Wrapped copies of the STAR and HERALD can be had at this office at any time for five cents.

Rev. Fisher addressed the league Thursday morning. He always says something when he talks to the boys and receives a hearty reception. "Shysters, thugs, thumpers, traitors and hypocrites" are among the pet names applied to members of the Keeley League by the "Missing Link" organ.

Mr. Quan, the genial gentleman from St. Louis, whom we had occasion to mention in these columns several times on account of his great interest in the league, was unanimously elected president Thursday morning. Nat Dryden retires with glory.

Dr. King, medical director at the St. Joseph, Mo., Keeley Institute, was in Dwight over Sunday, and made a fine talk at the song service. The doctor is a graduate from Dwight of two years standing and, of course, a firm believer in Keeley temperance.

Interesting Address by Bright Talker at Media Yesterday.

The reception room of the Keeley Institute, at Media, was filled to overflowing yesterday afternoon by an interesting audience to hear Mrs. Ida B. Cole, National Secretary of the Women's National Auxiliary Keeley League, deliver a lecture on the Keeley cure.

Mrs. Cole is an exceptionally attractive looking lady and a very bright and earnest talker. She spoke for an hour to the effect that inebriety is a disease and not a crime, and should be so treated; and she wanted to explain the Keeley cure by showing the people what an inestimable value the Keeley cure is to those needing such treatment.

Dist. Attorney Bingham, of Chester county, followed Mrs. Cole. Mr. Bingham is a thorough believer in the Keeley cure. In addition to taking the treatment himself he has sent a great many of his friends to the Keeley Institute to be cured, and he says: "The beauty of it is, they all stick."

Mrs. Cole will speak to-night in the rooms of the Delaware County Institute of Science on South avenue, Media, and everyone is invited to come and hear her.—Chester, Pa., Daily Times.

Auxiliary Meeting. The Ladies Auxiliary Keeley League will meet Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Broughton, next week. It is particularly desirable for all members to be present.

Perhaps some of our readers would like to know in what respect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better than any other. We will tell you. When this Remedy is taken as soon as a cold has been contracted, and before it has become settled in the system, it will counteract the effect of the cold and greatly lessen its severity, and it is the only remedy that will do this. It acts in perfect harmony with nature and aids nature in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions, liquefying the mucus, and causing the its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs and restoring the system to a strong and healthy condition.

"During my term of service in the army I contracted chronic diarrhoea," says A. E. Bending, of Haisey, Oregon.
