Our National Law-Makers and What They Are Doing for the Good of the Country—Various Measures Proposed, Discussed and Acted Upon.

Thursday was quiet in both houses. The Senate continued talking about silver, though some members felt that the only thing necessary to end the tiresome discussion was an opportunity to submit the repeal bill to a vote.

The Senate resumed its session at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, with fifty-two Senators present. The joint resolution offered by Mr. Cullum of Illinois, transferring the model of battleship Illinois to the city of Chicago was agreed to.

The Senate is taking a rest after its exhausting struggle with silver. All day Saturday morning the House has been busy with the bill providing for the amendment and place of holding Circuit and District Courts in South Dakota.
