Ferocious Spiders.

Attempts have been made to produce spider silk, but have failed, the ferocious nature of those insects not permitting them to live together in communities.

A SURGEON'S KNIFE

gives you a feeling of horror and dread. There is no longer necessity for its use in many diseases formerly regarded as incurable without cutting.

The Triumph of Conservative Surgery is well illustrated by the fact that RUPTURE or Hernia, is now radically cured without the knife and without pain. Clumsy, chafing trusses can be thrown away! They never cure but often induce inflammation, strangulation and death.

TUMORS Ovarian, Fibroid (Uterine) and many others, are now removed without the perils of cutting operations.

PILE TUMORS, however large, Fistula and other diseases of the lower bowel, are permanently cured without pain or resort to the knife.

STONE in the Bladder, no matter how large, is crushed, pulverized, washed out and perfectly removed without cutting.

STRICTURE of Urinary Passage is also removed without cutting in hundreds of cases. For pamphlet, references and all particulars, send 10 cents (in stamps) to World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

ANTI-SILVER WINS.

VOORHEES' BILL FINALLY PASSES THE SENATE.

Long and Desperate Contest Concluded as Mr. Cleveland Desired—Twenty-three Republicans and Twenty Democratic Senators Voted for the Measure.

End of the Fight.

Unconditional repeal has carried the day in the United States Senate. At 1:30 o'clock Monday night the Voorhees bill was passed by the decisive vote of 43 to 34. It was the same repeal majority of 11, indicated when the voting began three days before. It remains now only to reconcile minor differences of phraseology between the Senate and the House, and, this being done, Press dent Cleveland's signature will make the repeal bill a law. The last scene in the senate was devoid of excitement. There was a lack of that high tension which had existed up to that time. Senators knew perfectly well what was coming, and they awaited the recording of the final vote as a matter of formality. The result had been won when the silver men surrendered last week, and this last act was merely the formal expression of that surrender. At 7 o'clock the Senate galleries were still crowded, although it was long past the usual time of adjournment. Efforts had been made to take a recess, but Senator Voorhees, wearied with delays, insisted that the Senators should keep their seats until the final vote was taken. The silver men kept up their speeches until the last, Senator Stewart had the last word. When he took his seat Vice President Stevenson directed the clerk to put the bill on its final passage. It was read for the last time, and then the roll-call began. Not a Senator on the floor took the trouble to keep tally on the call. They answered mechanically to their names. There were no surprises as the roll proceeded. Men answered just as they had voted on the early amendments. The Southern silver Senators held together to the last.

The Vote in Detail.

The detail of the vote follows, the Democrats being printed in small capitals, Republicans in italics, and Populists in Roman:

FOR THE REPEAL.

Aldrich, R. I.	Lodge, Mass.
BRICE, O.	McMillan, Mich.
CAFFERY, La.	MCPHERSON, N. J.
CAMDEN, W. Va.	Manderson, Neb.
Carey, Wy.	MILLS, Tex.
Cullom, Ill.	MITCHELL, Wis.
Davis, Minn.	Morrill, Vt.

HILL, N. Y.	VOORHEES, Ind.
HUNTON, Va.	Washburn, Minn.
LINDSAY, Ky.	WHITE, La.

AGAINST THE REPEAL.

Allen, Neb.	Kyle, S. D.
BATE, Tenn.	MARTIN, Kan.
BERRY, Ark.	PASCO, Fla.
BLACKBURN, Ky.	Peffer, Kan.
BUTLER, S. C.	Perkins, Cal.
CALL, Fla.	Pettigrew, S. D.
Cameron, Pa.	Power, Mont.
COCKRELL, Mo.	PUGH, Ala.
COKE, Tex.	Roach, N. D.
DANIEL, Va.	Shoup, Idaho.
Dubois, Idaho.	Stewart, Nev.
GEORGE, Miss.	Teller, Col.
HARRIS, Tenn.	VANCE, N. C.
Irby, S. C.	VEST, Mo.
JONES, Ark.	WALTHALL, Miss.
Jones, Nev.	Wolcott, Col.

The following pairs were announced, those in favor of repeal being given first:

Allison, Iowa, and Mitchell, Oregon.
Chandler, New Hampshire, and White, California.
Wilson, Iowa, and COLQUITT, Georgia.
GORDON, Georgia, and MORGAN, Alabama.
PALMER, Illinois, and Hansbrough, North Dakota.

The analysis of the votes and pairs shows:

	For.	Against.
Democrats	22	10
Republicans	20	13
Populists		4
Totals	43	37

From this it is apparent that both parties were badly divided. The Democratic Senators were almost equally divided on the final vote, although the administration has the satisfaction of knowing that it had a majority of one in the vote of its own party.

It Was in Boston.

"Mad dog!" Mad dog!" yelled a small boy. No cry can collect a crowd quicker. In a moment an excited throng were gazing from a safe distance at a poor, miserable little pup, howling and struggling on a doorstep. "Kill him! Shoot him! Don't let him bite you!" shouted half a dozen at once. Just as the excitement was at its height, a typical Boston girl walked deliberately through the crowd and approached the dog. She raised her eyeglass and surveyed him calmly. Then she spoke: "I judge from the attitude of the animal and from the anguish of his cries that the door is closed upon his tail. Open the door immediately." She was obeyed. The dog trotted away with a tail decidedly the worse for wear. The crowd dispersed, and another mad dog scare had been nipped in the bud.—Shooting and Fishing.

Military Ballooning.

Some experiments in military ballooning have just been made in France. Five balloons were released from the Esplanade des Invalides in Paris, the aeronauts in charge having been previously instructed to pass over a radius of twenty miles of country supposed to be held by an enemy, and then to descend as closely as possible to Combs la Ville. One of the balloons descended within a mile of the desired place, and two others at a point somewhat more distant from it.

Exposure to Sunshine.

Apropos of the effect of exposure to sunshine destroying microbes, Mrs. Percy Frankland, in Longmans' Notes, cites the interesting fact that exact experiments conducted in the Lake of Geneva to ascertain by means of photographic plates the depths to which the sun's rays penetrate, showed that they did not reach beyond 553 feet, at which depth the intensity of the light is equal to that which is ordinarily observed on a clear but moonless night.

POSITION DURING SLEEP.

A Subject Upon Which Doctors Can Arrive at No Agreement.

Almost everyone has a favorite position during sleep, says the New York Ledger, and no end of theories and beliefs is indulged in on the subject of the proper position, location, and general condition for that sleep that "knits up the raveled sleeve of care." Many physicians argue that one should cultivate the habit of sleeping on the right side, especially if one has indulged in a full meal late in the evening. The food makes its exit from the stomach on the right side, and it is for this reason claimed that the position is more favorable to digestion without effort. This is important, as all of the faculties and functions should have a certain amount of rest, and in no way is this as easily attainable as during the hours of sleep.

Other authorities say that one should always lie on the back, but there are excellent reasons why this is not wise. The weight of the stomach and its contents rests upon the spine, which often affects the nerves. Some severe cases of insomnia have been cured by the habit of sleeping on the face. This is easy to do, and is the most comfortable position if one dispenses with the pillow. One young man who had exhausted all the skill of the doctors fell into the habit of lying on his face, with his right arm under his head, which was turned slightly to one side. By this change natural rest soon came to him, and he entirely recovered. Whatever position one may choose to take, a little practice will make it comfortable, and the experiment is well worth trying.

Sorrow in the Near Future

Awaits those who disregard symptoms of liver disorder. Be on time if you feel dress in the region of the liver, if your visage is sallow, eyeballs yellowish, tongue coated, or if you are troubled with constipation, sick headache and occasional dizziness. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will banish these unpleasant symptoms, and should be used early and persistently. The bowels are relaxed without pain or griping, and are not weakened by it as they are by the action of a violent purgative. Digestion grows more active when it is used and the system is strengthened, because it nerves assimilation of the food constituents by the blood. Kidney complaints, malaria and rheumatism are overcome by this searching and thorough remedy.

Bean Porridge Hot.

The children's game of slapping hands to the rhymes of "Bean porridge hot, bean porridge cold," as now adapted to the use of adults has fun in it in large, solid chunks. It may be played by a roomful of people, who are divided into fours. In each group the couples are so seated that the hands of the second couple meet across the hands of the first couple. As everybody knows, the first motion is to slap the hands palm downward upon the knees; the second is to slap the palms of the upraised hands of the second couple. In the revised and enlarged form of the game the second couple makes its first motion when the first couple makes its second motion, and the second couple continues thus, always one motion behind the first, to avoid collision. When all the players are ready let somebody sit down at the piano and begin "The High School Cadets' March," or "Push Dem Clouds Away," or any other lively tune of suitable measure, and with the whole room in motion to the music it won't take any more than a month to discover that there is more fun in this version of "Bean porridge hot" than you can shake a stick at.—New York Sun.

"Sweet Charity."

In the Artists' Exhibition of 1893 at the New York Academy of Design, there was exhibited an oil-painting by J. L. G. Ferris, entitled "Sweet Charity." Its richness of coloring commanded instant attention, while the lesson it taught was so impressive that one naturally returned to it for a second view.

Its subject is a young lady of colonial times who is on an errand of charity to one of the poorer families of the town. She has a sensible, charming face, which expresses with remarkable fidelity the sentiment of her errand. There is not a home that this charming picture will not ornament. It must be seen to be appreciated. "Sweet Charity" was purchased by the Publishers of the Youth's Companion, and has been reproduced in colors in large size, 14½ by 21.

It will be sent to all new subscribers to the Companion who send $1.75 for a year's subscription, and the paper will also be sent Free from the time the subscription is received, to January, 1894, and for a full year from that date, to January, 1895. This offer includes the Double Souvenir Numbers published at Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's. Address THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, Boston, Mass.

Southern Domestics.

Southern servants who come north in search of employment find it difficult to adjust themselves to northern habits, or even to northern notions of morality. It is still common in the south for servants to lodge in their own cabins, and pass only the day at their places of service. Sometimes, indeed, a servant is engaged to cook only a single meal, and it is the usual thing for the laundress to carry soiled clothes to her own cabin to be washed and ironed. It is the custom of many southern housekeepers to look up all their stores and dole out as much as will be needed for each day. Whatever is consumed then by servants carry off home, and these remnants are regarded as their natural perquisites. It is difficult for the southern negro to realize that northern housekeepers look upon the appropriation of such unconsidered trifles as theft.—New York Sun.

Safety Matches.

Safety matches that can be used without a box are to be placed on the English market by a German inventor. The idea is to dip the two ends of the wood separately with those compositions which in the ordinary way go one on the box and the other on the match. To use, break the wood across the middle and rub the ends together.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

SHOULD be used wherever yeast has served heretofore. Yeast acts by fermentation and the destruction of part of the gluten of the flour to produce the leavening gas. Royal Baking Powder, through the action of its ingredients upon each other in the loaf while baking, itself produces the necessary gas and leaves the wholesome properties of the flour unimpaired.

It is not possible with any other leavening agent to make such wholesome and delicious bread, biscuit, rolls, cake, pastry, griddle-cakes, doughnuts, etc.

A Prairie Tragedy.

We were out by the cemetery the other day, says the Hays City (Kan.) Sentinel, and noticed the sexton pulling away the weeds from two sunken graves which seemed more than commonly neglected amidst the still, awesome houses of the voiceless dead. And these houses held the bones of two people who were once quick in the wild days of Hays—people who passed the dark river in the very flush of youth and strength. How time flies! It was early in 1857 when Alexander Ramsey, then sheriff of Ellis County, fell by the bullet of a horse thief, and ten days later the body of his wife was laid by his side. These were the sunken graves. Ramsey overtook two horse thieves at the town of Stockton. Leaving his deputy at dinner in the hotel Ramsey rode boldly down to their camp. It was all over in a minute—one horse thief was dead upon the ground, the other was fleeing upon horseback, and poor brave Ramsey lay mortally wounded. He died in two hours, but as he lay there with his life blood pulsing into the brown grass he coolly adjusted his affairs and smiled grimly into the blanched faces around him. Stern stuff in those first men of Hays. When the word came Mrs. Ramsey started for Stockton, but when she met the slow-moving wagon with the body of her dead husband there was a low cry, a wailing shriek!—she was a maniac. She was taken to the gentle Sisters of Mercy at Leavenworth, but in ten days her body was returned and laid in the prairie spot beside her all. There they sleep—a lion and his mate.

Unwelcome Congratulations.

There must be many sharp tongues in the world if all newspaper stories are true.

"I am glad to see you on your feet again, Mr. Burrows," said Miss Parslaw. "You were looking very badly the last time I saw you."

"You must be mistaken, Miss Parslaw," said Burrows. "I haven't been ill. Where did you see me?"

"You were in the park—on horseback."—Exchange.

Pen Pictures of Twilight.

A September twilight. There were delicate clouds in the northern and eastern sky. Mere films of pale pink mist, they stretched upward like a fan from the horizon, while strange tints of gray and green flecked the light, floecy veil drawn over the western heaven. Everything looked unsubstantial and unearthly in the weird and changing glow. Colors altered every moment and forms yielded their permanence to some transforming magic. Beauty only remained, as if it alone were real amid the shows of earth and sky. A little house stood back from the road. A little field planted in hues of umber, brown and ochre stretched before her eyes. Here and there on its surface the golden-rod displayed a tarnished glory in splashes of reddish and faded yellow. A patch of cultivated ground extended on one side, where the corn was still standing, and here a russet amber was the prevailing hue, broken by hints of purple in the tasseled tops of the stalks. Back of the fields the atmosphere bathed the whole scene with a unifying element which harmonized all its details.—New Peterson.

Yachts Were Pleasure Vessels.

The term "yacht" is derived from the Danish word jaght, meaning a chase; hence yachting is the chasing of one vessel after another and, accordingly, yachting and yacht racing are synonymous expressions. A yacht is and always has been essentially a pleasure craft. History does not tell us where, or under what circumstances yachts were first built, but it is certain they are of ancient origin and were only owned by royal persons and great nobles.—London Times.

"August Flower"

"What is August Flower for?" As easily answered as asked. It is for Dyspepsia. It is a special remedy for the Stomach and Liver.—Nothing more than this. We believe August Flower cures Dyspepsia. We know it will. We have reasons for knowing it. To-day it has an honored place in every town and country store, possesses one of the largest manufacturing plants in the country, and sells everywhere. The reason is simple. It does one thing, and does it right. It cures dyspepsia.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the right quantity is taken.

When the lungs are affected it causes shooting pains, like needles passing through them; the same with the Liver or Bowels. This is caused by the ducts being stopped, and always disappears in a week after taking it.

If the stomach is foul or bilious it will cause squeamish feelings at first.
