The Kentish Guards.

We have been handed a clipping from the daily Bulletin, Providence, R. I., giving an account of a recent reception of probably the oldest military organization in the United States, and bearing the name as above. The Kentish Guards received their charter from the colonial legislature in 1774, the object "being the preservation of the colony in times of war," and has continued as a military organization ever since, and is consequently a source of pride and interest to every Rhode Islander, and everyone in Dwight will be interested in it when it is known that our popular and honorable townsman, Mr. Daniel Bartholic, was colonel of the organization fifty-eight years ago, in 1835. Mr. Bartholic is now eighty-six, and is in excellent health of body and mind. The company was 119 years old recently, and the birthday was properly celebrated, but Colonel Bartholic was not there, but would very much liked to have been. He is the oldest colonel living, and is probably the oldest member of the company living, and, by the way, is the oldest man living in Dwight. The membership of the Kentish Guards includes many of the most prominent men of revolutionary fame, such as Maj.-Gen. Nathaniel Green, and others. It took part in many battles, and has had a varied existence. During the war of the Rebellion it went to the front and furnished material for many commissioned officers. It is indeed an honor to have belonged to such an organization, and especially to have been its commanding officer.

"Watch the Professor."

The following personal letter we take the liberty of publishing. The Professor's many friends here extend congratulations, and wish him prosperly all the time. He is a gentleman of excellent ability and we feel sure will do honor to the position to which he has been elected. He was principal of the Dwight schools for two years:

CLINTON, IOWA, Nov. 8, 1893.

W. G. DUSTIN, Esq., Dwight, Ill., Dear Sir:—After a hard campaign I take pleasure in announcing to my friends in Dwight, that in a county which has been 2,000 democratic for ten years, I am elected County Superintendent of Schools by a handsome majority of 1,650, a gain of 3,650 over my opponent.

Tell Frank Smith to set up the cigars to the boys and send the bill to I. E. Regards to all my friends. Yours,
C. E. SCHLABACH.

Vaccinate Them.

The State Board of Health has sent out circulars warning people against small pox and advising parents and school teachers to see that all children are properly vaccinated. From the circular it appears there is real danger and the matter should be attended to in Dwight. Dwight has no health officer and under such circumstances the city marshal is probably supposed to attend to it, the same as everything else. The attention of Health Officers Robert Orr and Freeman Spencer is called to the circular. If they happen to be busy flushing sewers, cleaning streets, repairing sidewalks, grading streets, cleaning crossings, watching for criminals, keeping the peace, running the water works nights, taking care of the town house, serving warrants, running the scraper or attending to the few little duties they have to perform for $40 a month, why, the world's fair mayor or the aldermen will have to do the vaccinating. Of course, with all this talent on hand, there is no use of a competent physician being appointed as health officer.

Bad Boys Beware.

It was only a short time ago in a neighboring town that a howling mob called a charivari party, was fired into with a double barreled shot gun and a revolver and several of the party injured. That is just about what will take place in Dwight if this thing is not stopped. If the police of the town are not able to cope with these fellows the people who are openly insulted and abused will take the matter into their own hands and some one will get hurt. Last Monday night a gang got gathered and most disgraceful scenes were enacted. They yelled and screeched like a lot of anarchists and pounded on horse blocks, sidewalks, tin cans, etc., until night was made hideous. There were several sick people in the neighborhood who were caused intense agony by the noise. Even after the mob was informed of the latter fact some of the most contemptible continued the noise. We will take a great deal of pleasure in publishing the names of these boys should this occur again, for the information of the parents and police.

School Notes.

How about your seats?
A new song on the board.
Jimmie Condon was enrolled this week.
Whose favorite song is "After the Ball?"
Prof. Wood visited the school Thursday morning.
The astronomy class was viewing last Monday evening.
Louise Perry visited the High School Thursday afternoon.
Several of the members of the High School have been absent to attend sick friends.
The old saying "Better late than never," does not hold true in the schools.
Primary teachers round table at Pontiac Saturday, none of the teachers from here will attend.
We notice that one of the High School pupils has a sore eye. Is it from too much study by lamp light?
M. Estes Buck and Chas. G. Koehnlein furnished apparatus this week. Thanks to Mr. W. M. Weese for material for it.
The Grammar room has three new scholars this week, namely: Andrew Mickelsen, John McCarthy and Ruth Schumm.
Good advice to grammar scholars is: "Never play truant—'tis naughty and bad." And then if you should get caught at it.
The number of High School pupils around town Friday a week ago is accounted for. Thus, there were examinations in all departments, and members not having examinations were not required to be present.
There is going to be a great improvement made in our waterworks. It will be piped into the school house, and there will be drinking faucets on both floors, and the waist water will be directed to the ### Change in Management.

The management of the Livingston has changed during the past week. Mr. Watson retiring and Mr. Louis Schaefer, of Chicago, a man of large experience, taking charge. Mr. Schaefer comes to Dwight highly recommended. He has one brother that is cashier at the Grand Pacific and another steward at the Great Northern and still another steward at the Plaza, and he was for a number of years steward of one of the finest hotels in Cincinnati, and for the past three years manager of the finest hotel in Dayton, Ohio. It will be seen by the above that Mr. Schaefer is a thorough hotel man, and that he has mastered all points connected with the business. He took charge of the Livingston last Tuesday and already a vast improvement is noticed, and it is perfectly safe to say that it will be one of the best conducted hosteleries in the state.
Mr. James Nelson, well-known as a competent, painstaking, accommodating and pleasant hotel man, will retain the position of chief clerk.

Harvest Home.

The entertainment at the annual meeting of the Epworth League of the M. E. church last Tuesday evening was a very pleasant affair. The church was handsomely decorated with cereals and fruit and presented an attractive appearance. The fruit was presented to the pastor, Rev. Ayling, at the close of the entertainment, in a neat speech by the newly elected president, W. T. Wilson. The program was excellent and carried out as published in the STAR and HERALD last week.
The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, W. T. Wilson; 1st vice-president, Mrs. D. B. Stevens; 2d vice-president, Miss Nellie McWilliams; 3d vice-president, Mrs. Manning Smith; 4th vice-president, Miss Lizzie Haney; secretary, Miss Fannie Conner; treasurer, Orville Brown.

Jacobsen-Green.

There was a quiet wedding in Pontiac Saturday afternoon which proved to be a surprise to many, but a pleasant one. The contracting parties were Miss Inga Jacobsen, of Dwight, and Mr. S. S. Green, of Chicago. There were only a few friends present, but the event was a happy one just the same. The bride is the esteemed daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Jacobsen, living on Delaware street, and the groom is a mail carrier in Chicago, and bears a fine reputation. The happy couple visited several days in Dwight, but will make their home in Chicago. We join their many friends in extending congratulations and wish them a happy and prosperous future.

Hon. James H. Funk.

There is no man in Iowa who is so well-known in Livingston county, Ill., as Jas. H. Funk, known to most everyone as the "farmer orator, Jim Funk." He went to Iowa about three years ago and settled in Iowa Falls, Hardin Co. During the first year of his residence there he established his reputation as a republican orator, by making speeches all over the state, under the direction of the republican State committee. He is an attractive talker and a strong republican. This year he was nominated for the legislature and last Tuesday was elected with the balance of the republicans in Iowa. There is one thing sure, he is not a man that will serve a term in any legislature and do nothing to bring him in to prominence.
His many friends in these parts will be pleased to hear of his success.

Krohn-Healy.

A handsome card bearing the following has been received by quite a number of people of Dwight: "E. J. Healy, Estella Krohn, Married, Thursday, Oct. 26, 1893, Gallon, Ohio."
The bride was a teacher in our public schools for two years leaving about two years ago for her home in Gallon, Ohio. She was one of the most competent instructors the schools ever had, and had splendid success because she commanded the respect and love of her pupils. Mrs. Healy nee Krohn visited her many friends here a few months ago and met with a warm reception, and now they take great pleasure in extending congratulations and well wishes. They also congratulate Mr. Healy in having secured such a desirable lady for a helpmate through life.

Happy Holidays.

There is a great demand for sample copies of the STAR and HERALD among the farmers and citizens of neighboring villages. Everyone within a radius of ten miles will be supplied with our holiday number. Dwight merchants and those of neighboring villages should bear this in mind and prepare announcements for that occasion. The circulation at that time will cover Gardner, Goodfarm, Highland, Greenfield, Nevada, Sunbury, Odell, Union, Lexington, Broughton, Round Grove, Hedrick and Dwight townships thoroughly. Please think this matter over and get your copy ready prior to Dec. 1. The price for space will be very reasonable. Call on or write us.

Again on Deck.

C. Y. Trice, after an absence of several weeks, turned up last Saturday looking as hale and hearty and full of Kansas real estate and a sprinkling of Indiana dirt as of yore. He has recently been operating in territory north and west of Dwight, and in Indiana, and has been very successful. He reports many successful trades and sales which have netted him well, but there has been very little ready money in them until now, when he reports that times are much better.
Mr. Trice has been taking parties of four and five and up to twelve and fifteen to Kansas right along, and nearly all have been investors. He has not given up work in this locality, as has been reported by some, but will have a representative here most of the time, and bargains and cheap transportation will be offered to one and all who wish to invest in Kansas or Indiana land.
Word from the hundreds from these parts whom Mr. Trice has located in Kansas comes to the effect that they are all well satisfied with their purchases or trades, as the case may be.
Trice cannot be beaten as an agent, an entertainer and an all around cyclonic hustler from the wild and woolly west.

Excuses for Not Advertising.

There are many excuses offered for not advertising, among which "the weather is bad," "the weather is too good for this time of year," "wait until it gets cold," "it's out of season," "there's nothing doing," "it's too quiet, what's the use," are some of them, but they are all very poor. The advertiser that makes it pay keeps before the public all the time. If a man waits until it gets colder before he advertises it is liable to be warm before the effects of the advertising is felt. The way to advertise is to do it continually and then no matter whether it is hot or cold, wet or dry, the reader of the STAR and HERALD know just where to go at all times.

Religious Services.

Lord willing, the Zion's Society of the Regular Evangelical Association will have their services next Sunday, Nov. 12, at 3 p. m., in the basement of the M. E. church, all are cordially invited.
B. C. WAGNER, Pastor.
